Chipola students named to All-Florida Academic Team

The State Board of Community Colleges (SBCC) recently named CJC students Andrea Bruner and Steven Hall to the 2001 All-Florida Academic Team.

The students are among 108 outstanding community and private college students recognized for academic achievement, leadership and community service.

CJC sophomore Andrea Bruner was named to the First Team All-Florida Academic Team. She also recently was selected as a 2001 Centennial Scholar—the highest-scoring student from Florida in the All-USA Academic Team competition. A 1999 valedictorian of Chipley High School, she is a Florida Academic Scholar and a Florida Top Scholar. She is president of CJC's Phi Theta Kappa, and is active in Science Club, Mu Alpha Theta, and the CJC Honors Program. She plans to attend the University of Florida, to pursue a major in Microbiology. Her plans include medical school and a specialization in obstetrics. Bruner will appear in the Thursday, April 5 edition of USA Today. A press conference highlighting Bruner's accomplishments will be held April 6, at 8:30 a.m., at the Chipola Junior College Continuing Education Building.

CJC sophomore Stephen Hall was named to the Second Team All-Florida Academic Team. Hall recently earned a $1,000 scholarship through the Coca-Cola Two-Year Scholarship Program.

He is president of the Chipola Ambassadors and serves on the college Governance Council. He is active in Student Government, Baptist Campus Ministries, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Academic Team.

An awards luncheon honoring the All-Florida Academic students will be held April 3 at Florida State University. "We are proud of the outstanding students in our system. They consistently excel academically and bring great honor, not only to themselves, but to the community college system and Florida," said Sherry Plymale, chair, State Board of Community Colleges.

Students were nominated by their colleges for the USA Today/Phi Theta Kappa-sponsored All-USA Academic Team. By virtue of their standing in that national competition, the All-Florida Academic Team was chosen. Team members will receive university scholarships as well as scholarships from the Independent Colleges and Universities of Florida.

CJC Chamber Chorus to perform at Presbyterian Church

The Chipola Chamber Chorus will present a performance of the "Requiem" by late 19th century, French composer, Gabriel Faure on Tuesday, April 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary of First Presbyterian Church, Marianna (214 N. Jefferson Street).

The "Requiem" is set in the traditional text setting using Latin. In classical music a requiem is a musical memorial service for the dead. Soloists will be soprano, Maribeth Kelley Burke and baritone, Thomas Basford. In addition to the "Requiem," the chorus members and faculty will perform additional compositions by Faure, including French chansons, his "Pavanne," and "Cantique de Jean Racine."

The one-hour presentation will be conducted by Dr. Edward Smith Lyon, accompanied by Carolyn Wilson, piano and Stanley Littleton, organ. Dr. Lyon has chosen the Faure "Requiem" because of its universal popularity, and also because it is so appropriate for college voices. Faure is a noted Impressionist composer along with Ravel and Debussy.

Texts from the Catholic mass are used including Requiem aeternam (Rest eternal); Kyrie eleison (God have mercy); Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy); Pie Jesu (Have mercy, Jesus); Agnus Dei (Lamb of God); and Dies Irae (Day of wrath). Nearly every major composer during the last 300 years has written a requiem, most notable of which are the Mozart, Brahms, and Verdi Requiems. The Chorus performed John Rutter's "Requiem" in 1999.

The public is invited to this free and inspirational concert. For more information contact Joan Stadsklev at 718-2301 or Dr. Lyon at 718-2221.

CJC Show Choir auditions

The Chipola Junior College Show Choir will hold auditions on Thursday, April 26, at 3 p.m. in the McLendon Fine Arts Building, Room 727.

The Show Choir is open to CJC students. Students should come with: comfortable clothes and shoes for the dance audition; a completed Show Choir Application (available in the Fine Arts Office or on the CJC Website (Fine and Performing Arts Page – Music Department.) Auditioners also should bring either sheet music or an accompaniment track to present an accompanied vocal solo.

Choreographer Rebecca Parmer will teach a dance routine to all auditioners at 3 p.m. Individual vocal auditions will follow the dance audition.

Directed by Dr. Ed Lyon, the Show Choir performs throughout the panhandle for schools, civic organizations and other events. The Show Choir has won awards at the Invitational Show Choir Workshop; has participated in Florida Community College Show Choir Festivals; and has performed on Royal Caribbean and Carnival Cruise lines. The January JAZZMATAZZ concerts have been near sellouts for three consecutive years.

Show Choir members must register for MUN1370 or MUN2371. Scholarships are available and applications are at the time of the audition.

For information contact the Fine and Performing Arts office at 718-2227, or Dr. Lyon at 718-2221.
