

Academic Honor Code

Please read the following document carefully, sign electronically, and upload to Canvas.

The Chipola College Honor Code is based on the premise that each student has the responsibility to (1) uphold the highest standards of academic honesty in his/her own work; (2) refuse to tolerate academic dishonesty in the college community; and (3) foster a high sense of honor and social responsibility on the part of students.

Academic Honor Code—Violations

Academic dishonesty includes but is not limited to having or providing unauthorized outside help. Any student who observes or learns of another student's academic dishonesty should report this violation to the instructor in whose class it has taken place. A student who shall have assisted in the dishonesty mentioned above shall be considered equally guilty as the student who accepts such assistance.

Academic Honor Code—Consequences

Chipola College expects students to be honest in all of their academic work. By enrolling at the College, students agree to adhere to the Academic Honor Code and understand that failure to comply with this code may result in academic and disciplinary action.

You may refer to the Academic Honor Code section of the Chipola Catalog under Student Governance—Student Rights, Responsibilities and Code of Conduct for additional information on conduct that constitutes academic dishonesty and consequences of such conduct.

If you agree to abide by Chipola's Academic Honor Code, please type in your name and the date at the bottom of this text. Doing so constitutes an electronic signature and is considered the same as your hand written signature. After entering your name and date, save the document to your desktop in pdf format using the Word commands of file, save as, select pdf format. Then upload the document to the Honor Code dropbox in each of your online courses. The date the document is placed in this dropbox will be used as a record of your first day of attendance in the course.

I hereby affirm my knowledge and acceptance of the Chipola College Honor Code and solemnly pledge to uphold the Honor Code by abstaining from dishonesty, deceit, or fraud in my academic and professional conduct. I understand and accept that my adherence to the Honor Code is an appropriate requisite for enrollment and participation in this course.
