STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES/OBJECTIVES FOR ENL 2022:

See chart, last page.

MEANS OF ACCOMPLISHING OUTCOMES:

Class Meetings:
1. Classes will meet three times per week or as scheduled.
2. Students are responsible for attending classes. Absences indicate that an important part of the course is being missed and will be reflected in the final grade.

Reading Assignments:
1. Each week the student will have a reading assignment as stated in the syllabus.
2. The student will be responsible for all reading assignments whether discussed in class or not.

Writing Assignments:
1. There will be multiple writing assignments (three to five) during the semester. A minimum of 6,000 words will be required in order for any student to receive a satisfactory grade (C).
Typically, a student will write on some aspect within each of the three major units of the course. Possible theme topics will be suggested or assigned as the class develops. Each topic will require information from the class readings and lectures and may involve research at the Library or other resource center.

2. Out-of-class assignments will be due at the beginning of class on the date specified by the instructor. Late assignments will receive a reduced grade (minus ten points) and may not be accepted for credit after one week.

3. Unless the instructor indicates otherwise, all out-of-class assignments are to be in finished typed copy which conforms with the style authority in the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers.

4. All writing assignments must be turned in to receive a passing grade in this course. Other than for emergency health reasons, no incomplete grade will be given in this course.

5. Instructions concerning assignments should be carefully reviewed in advance so that any questions concerning the assignment may be answered in class before the assignment is due.

Plagiarism is academic dishonesty and may be defined as submitting another's work as your own. It includes failure to use quotation marks or other conventional marking around material quoted from any printed or electronic source. Plagiarism shall also include paraphrasing a specific passage from a specific source without indicating accurately what the source is. Plagiarism shall further include downloading an essay or letting another person compose or rewrite a student's written assignment. Plagiarism will result in a zero (0) for the assignment.

All written material becomes the property of the college.

Exams:

2. A double-weighted comprehensive final exam

ATTENDANCE AND WITHDRAWAL POLICIES:
MAKE-UP POLICY:

Regular attendance is expected of all students. Each student is accountable to the instructor for all class absences. There are three acceptable excuses for absences: (1) severe illness, (2) death in the immediate family, and (3) official college activity (approved by Student Services). Any questionable excuse shall be verified by the office of Student Services when requested by the instructor.

When any absence occurs, it is the responsibility of the student to contact the instructor as soon as possible and make arrangements about making up work. Work must be made up within one week following the absence or within the time specified by the instructor in case of extended absence. A ten-point penalty is assessed for late work. Except as noted above, make-up work will not be permitted after the one-week deadline, and the instructor will record a grade of “0” for each assignment not submitted.

Tardiness to class is disruptive to learning and is unacceptable. If the student is tardy, the student shall see his/her instructor at the end of the class period, and the instructor will determine if the tardiness is excusable. Excessive tardiness may be counted as absences at the discretion of the instructor.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY

A student may withdraw from a course prior to the deadline for withdrawing which is listed in the college catalog and the college class schedule. A student who has missed too many classes or who is making unsatisfactory progress in the course can withdraw and receive a “W” mark for the course. It is the student’s responsibility to obtain the necessary request form from the Registrar’s Office for withdrawing from a class, to obtain signatures for completing it, and to turn it in to the Registrar’s Office before the deadline. It is advisable to check later to ensure that the withdrawal has been processed.

NOTE: In 1997, the Florida Legislature passed House Bill 1545 which requires that students who have enrolled more than two times in the same college credit course must pay tuition fees at 100% of the full cost of instruction. The full cost of instruction is the same as the non-resident tuition fee. All Florida community colleges and state universities are required to begin “counting” attempts beginning in the Fall term 1997. An “attempt” is any course which remains on the student’s class schedule past the published drop/add date for any academic term. When a student withdraws from a course, the withdrawal counts as an attempt. A student is allowed to repeat a course a maximum of three (3) times. On the third attempt, a student cannot withdraw; he must receive a grade. No additional attempts will be allowed without prior approval from the Admissions Committee; approvals may be granted for extenuating circumstances only.
MAKE-UP POLICY:

See Attendance Policy (above).

ACADEMIC HONOR CODE POLICY:

Students are expected to uphold the Academic Honor Code. Chipola College’s Honor Code is based on the premise that each student has the responsibility to
1) uphold the highest standards of academic honesty in his/her own work;
2) refuse to tolerate academic dishonesty in the college community; and
3) foster a high sense of honor and social responsibility on the part of students.

Further information regarding the Academic Honor Code may be found in the Chipola Catalog, Student Governance section.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES POLICY:

Chipola College is committed to making all programs and facilities accessible to anyone with a disability. Chipola’s goal is for students to obtain maximum benefit from their educational experience and to effectively transition into the college environment.

Students with disabilities are requested to voluntarily contact the Office of Students with Disabilities to complete the intake process and determine their eligibility for reasonable accommodation.
