NOTE: If you are TEXTING or working on some other assignment during class, you are NOT participating in class. Attendance/participation points will be deducted for these activities. Class will begin at the scheduled time. Students are expected to be prepared to begin work at this time. This grade is calculated based on the percentage of full classes attended for the semester. Leaving early or arriving late will result in a deduction.
- Tardy: A deduction will be made against your participation/attendance grade for any tardy or early departure.
- Preparedness: Students are expected to be prepared for class and to prepare required assignments in a timely manner.
- Ethics: As members of the Chipola College Teacher Education academic community, you are a pre-service teacher. You are expected to commit yourself honestly. Honesty in academic work is vital and students should not knowingly act in ways which erode that integrity. Accordingly, actions or tolerance of cheating, plagiarism, bribery, conspiracy, misrepresentation, or other violations of the Chipola College Student Code of Conduct will result in disciplinary action on the first incident. Disciplinary action can include: degree program modification, grade reduction, suspension, or expulsion. Don’t risk it!
- Written Work: All written assignments will be judged on the accuracy of the content, comprehensiveness, typography and design, correct usage of grammar, correct capitalization, spelling, and punctuation; clarity of thought, and logical order and sequence. Moreover, students are expected to adhere to specified formats; use various sentence patterns and structure; make use of transitional words and expressions, and maintain appropriate focus. Typographical and/or spelling errors will result in a 1-point grade deduction for each occurrence on all tasks and assignments.

- Oral Presentation: Any time a student speaks in front of the class, all presentations will be judged on correct punctuation and enunciation, projection, effective use of gestures, meaningful use of visuals, attention getting procedures, maintenance of audience interest, correct use of grammar and language, and degree of presenter enthusiasm and interest in the topic.
