MEANS OF ACCOMPLISHING STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

1. Arrive at school site promptly and stay beyond the school day to plan for upcoming instruction.
2. Be in attendance except in the case of emergency. If illness or a personal emergency makes it necessary to be absent, you must first call your cooperating teacher to notify him or her. Then call Dr. Rentz’s office to leave a message.
3. Complete assigned projects in a timely manner to enable reflections and revisions of the final product.
4. Collaborate with peers and other professionals.

ASSIGNMENT AND/OR COURSE OUTLINE

1. Task 2.3.1 (1.1, 1.4, 1.5, 2.1, 2.2, 2.6, 3.1, 3.6, 3.7, 3.9, 3.10, 4.2, 5.4, 6) - Being able to critically reflect on your teaching is a skill you need to develop. Choose a class you will be teaching for almost the entire semester. The supervising teacher will complete your first observation in this class (videotaping may be substituted for live observation). With a mentor (your cooperating teacher or College supervising teacher) analyze your teaching. Together you will choose areas upon which to focus for improvement and design a plan to help you improve in those areas. Following this conference, you will reflect in your journal: a critique of the original lesson, the areas upon which you focused for improvement, a discussion of your successes and setbacks, and your plans for continued efforts. You will also analyze your second and third observations with your mentor and identify areas of improvements that you can make.

2. Task 4.3.2 (1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 1.4, 3.4, 3.10, 4.1, 4.2, 4.3) - The teacher creates a showcase portfolio of student work over a unit. This portfolio includes samples of work from students in the teacher’s class who have exceeded and/or met expectations with regard to targets for critical, creative, or higher-level thinking and those who have not met expectations (at least on an initial evaluation). All samples presented also show that students have acquired and used knowledge in the content area. The final product includes work samples from ten students, a reflection on each student, and a copy of the lesson plans that were used to generate the work. (This is a companion to Task 1.3.2)
3. Task 1.3.2 (1.4, 4.1, 4.2, 4.3, 4.4, 4.5) - The teacher develops a classroom assessment system for one grading period. The product includes lists of outcomes, pre-assessment activities, and traditional and alternative assessment strategies, as well as a copy of the teacher’s assessment recordkeeping system or grade book. (This is a companion to Task 4.3.2)

4. Task 11.1.1 (2.4, 2.5, 4.5, 5.3, 5.4) - The teacher develops and implements a plan to foster communication with parents/guardians through activities that might include an open house, parent conference, or any other appropriate parent/school function that meets outside of school hours.

5. Task CC3A (all indicators) – This is the final product to be prepared on the teacher candidate by the Chipola supervising instructor of the internship. It includes major tasks and performance observations from the internship experience. Using the scoring rubric, a decision is reached about whether the candidate has successfully completed the internship.

6. Task 5.4.2 (2.3, 2.4, 2.5, 2.6, 2.8, 2.9, 3.8) - The teacher plans a lesson for a class containing diverse students. The teacher is observed to determine effectiveness of instruction with a diverse student population. This observation targets sensitivity, equitable treatment, and planning for students from different backgrounds, cultures, and skill levels.

Students will be assigned two grades for this course. The secondary or middle cooperating teacher will assign one grade using the following criteria: 35%, attendance and punctuality at school site; 20%, knowledge of subject areas; 25%, completeness of lesson plans; 20%, classroom management skills. The college supervisor will assign the second grade based on: 45%, completion of assignments and Tasks; 20%, knowledge of subject areas; 35%, classroom management skills. The student’s grade in this course will be the average of these two grades.

Tasks must meet the criteria for “demonstrated” as determined by the scoring rubric to earn credit for this course. A task judged as “partially demonstrated” or “not demonstrated” may be resubmitted for the purpose of demonstrating the accomplished practice indicator. The original grade will be used when calculating the course average. Points will not be deducted or added for resubmission. No grade will be given for the course until all tasks have been successfully demonstrated.

Major Assignments and Other Requirements

1. One day at the beginning of your student teaching experience you need to “shadow” a student during his or her full day of classes. Your goal is to develop a better understanding of a typical day in the life of a high school/middle school student. You will prepare a short report (3-4 pages, typed) in which you describe... the student’s schedule, analysis of cumulative folder (if possible), the nature of his or her classes, and discuss implications for you as a teacher of science. This is NOT just a log of what happened on that day; Write about problems, communication, reasoning, and connections from the point of view of the student, then link them to what that means for you as a teacher. Include strategies or suggestions for improvement after the shadowing. This report is your first assignment.

2. Observations. After an initial visit between you and your cooperating teacher, we will observe you teaching a minimum of 3 class periods for a traditional schedule and 2 class periods for a block schedule. Lesson plans (a planned worksheet will be acceptable) and journal entries will be checked at the observation. Observations will focus on teaching style, instructional strategies, assessment, planning and preparation, classroom management, use of technology, and use of materials. There will be a debriefing conference following each observation.

3. Regular daily attendance. If illness or a personal emergency makes it necessary to be absent, you must first call your cooperating teacher to notify him or her. Then call Dr. Rentz’s office to leave a message.

4. Punctuality to school and seminars.

5. Keep a plan book of all of your lesson plans. This needs to be available at observations.

6. Provide your observer with a copy of your teaching schedule at each seminar.

7. Keep folder with documentation of communications with students, parents, colleagues, administrators, etc.

8. Turn in all assignments on time.

9. Complete all activities on the accompanying checklists

10. Smile a lot and learn a lot!

This will be a very busy semester for you. The sooner you get organized and learn to manage your time, the more you will learn and enjoy the experience.
