Task CC4C – Critical Thinking Unit - The teacher candidate develops a unit on facilitating students’ use of critical and creative thinking skills. The lesson includes objectives and a set of questions classified according to Bloom’s or Webb’s Taxonomy of Cognitive Skills and must specify which State Standards are addressed. The unit/product will consist of the lesson plans (minimum one week – 5 days and in Chipola Lesson Plan format), the assessment instrument, textbook used, social studies trade books (if at all possible, these trade books will need to be checked out from Chipola’s Teacher Education Bookshelf), evidence of technologies, graphic organizers, audio/visual materials, and activities students could complete during this duration of this unit.

Task CC8D – U.S. History Research Presentation - Research a selected topic of United States History. (Samples include but are not limited to: the American Revolution, Rosa Parks and/or Martin Luther King, Jr’s. influence on the Civil Rights Movement, issues surrounding the Civil War, War of 1812, Immigration, the Great Depression, Assassination of President John F. Kennedy, the Gulf War, etc). Research should include individuals or events that influenced economic, social, and political institutions in the United States during the selected time period. You should prepare a 15 minute presentation summarizing your research findings. Your presentation should include ideas and strategies as to how you could use what you learned in the classroom while teaching U.S. History to an elementary class. Technology should be creatively used (for example PowerPoint) and class handouts should be provided. In addition, prepare a board presentation that is directly related to your research topic, would be engaging for students, and have a way for them to be actively involved. It should be prepared on a tri-fold project board and brought to class to be shared on the day of your presentation.

Task CC8P – State Mandated Teaching Presentation – Florida Statutes 1003.42 and 1003.44 require instruction in social education beyond the State Standards. For example, the last week of September is designated as “Freedom Week” and by State Law (FS 1003.44) you are required to teach your students about the Declaration of Independence. Additional, state mandated requirements include the Holocaust, Black History, US Constitution, Hispanic and Women’s Contributions to the United States, Veteran’s Day, Flag Education, and Character Development/Character Education. You will select one of the topics from above and prepare a 15 minute presentation to inform our class about the background of the selected topic and provide examples of instructional activities that could be used as reinforcement, a primary source concerning the topic, examples of children’s books (if at all possible, these tradebooks will need to be checked out from Chipola’s Teacher Education Bookshelf) related to the topic, an Internet website to supplement instruction about this topic, and a video clip/segment about the topic.

Task CC8O - Subject Area Exam – NOTE: If student has already taken and passed the Elementary Education Subject Area Exam, this task will automatically be marked as “demonstrated” and student does not have to complete. Three exams will be given for the purpose of preparing for the Social Studies portion of the Florida Teacher Certification Exam (FTCE). Notice that according on task rubric; a certain score has to be earned on each exam in order for it to be considered acceptable towards demonstration status. Examinations will cover the following areas:
- Knowledge of people, places, and environment (geography)
- Knowledge of government and the citizen (government and civics)
- Knowledge of production, distribution, and consumption (economics)

All tasks must meet the criteria for “demonstrated” as determined by the scoring rubric to earn credit for this course.

All Tasks and Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date unless otherwise specified by the instructor. Work not submitted at the time the instructor collects it will be considered late and will receive a zero (0) for the grade. Late tasks may be submitted within one calendar week of the due date for Demonstration purposes only, but the zero (0) grade will remain.

A task judged as “not demonstrated” must be resubmitted for the purpose of demonstrating the FEAP indicators. Resubmissions must be received by the beginning of class on the due date indicated by the instructor on the rubric when it is returned to the student. Although the original grade is final and no points are added for resubmissions, failure to resubmit by the deadline will result in a ten-point penalty PER DAY grade reduction.

To pass this class ALL tasks must be successfully demonstrated.

Exams (10% of final grade)
There will be one midterm and one final exam. They will each receive equal weight.

GRADE ONE: ATTENDANCE - Attendance does count towards your grade. Attendance is an important part of your grade. Students are expected to attend every class. Class will begin at the scheduled time. Students are expected to be prepared to begin work at this time. This grade is calculated based on the percentage of full classes attended for the semester. Leaving early or arriving late will result in a deduction. A deduction will be made against your attendance grade for any tardy (after the first five minutes of class) or early departure (before the last five minutes of class).

GRADE TWO: PARTICIPATION – Participating in class discussion and activities is an important component of the learning process. NOTE: If you are TEXTING or working on some other assignment during class, you are NOT participating in class. Points will be deducted for these activities. Your participation grade will be deducted each time you engage in non-class related activities, including all the aforementioned. Preparedness:
