Indians second in conference race

The Chipola Indians moved into second place in the Panhandle Conference race with a string of Spring Break wins.

Chipola won two of three games in a recent series with Pensacola. Pensacola won a 7-5 decision on April 7. The Indians scored a 9-7 win over Pensacola on April 5. Chipola beat PJC 7-5 on April 3.

Chipola swept a three game set with Northwest, including a 9-8 win on April 2, and a 10-4 win on March 31. The Indians blanked Northwest 10-0 on March 29 behind the shutout pitching of Austin Wright.

With nine conference games remaining as of April 8, the Indians are 7-8 in league play. Gulf Coast (11-1) leads the league. TCC, PJC and Northwest are all knotted at 6-9.

The top two teams from the conference will represent the Panhandle in the state tournament.

The Indians play at Tallahassee April 9 and return home to host Tallahassee Saturday, April 10, at 1 p.m., at the Chipola field. Chipola heads back to TCC April 12.

Chipola hosts Gulf Coast Wednesday, April 14, at 5 p.m. and Saturday, April 17, at 1 p.m. The Indians play at Gulf Coast April 16.

The Indians host Northwest in the final home conference game Monday, April 26, at 5 p.m. Chipola plays at Northwest April 24 and April 28.

The Indians' recent success moved them back into the FCCAA Top 10 landing at number 8.

The Indians finished second in the conference and second in the state last season. In 13 seasons at the helm, Chipola head coach Jeff Johnson has led the Indians to the state tournament 10 times with six appearances in the title game. Chipola won the 2008 and 2007 state titles and captured the school's first-ever national tournament in 2007. The Indians finished second in the state tournament in 2009, 2005, 2002 and 2001, third in 1998, and among the top four in 2006.

Gator Gathering at Chipola College

Chipola College and the University of Florida College of Agricultural and Life Sciences invites CALS alumni, friends and prospective students and their families to the annual Gator Gathering on the Chipola campus, Tuesday, April 27.

The event will begin at 6 p.m. in the Continuing Education Conference Center where dinner will be served.

Those in attendance will receive an update from CALS Dean Kirby Barrick and hear from Agricultural Education and Communication Chair Ed Osborne. The UF representatives will discuss the proposed Agricultural Education and Communication program to begin in the Fall of 2011 on the Chipola campus.

Dr. Osborne also will discuss the distance learning masters program which is now available.

Overall, the gathering will provide an excellent opportunity to answer questions regarding any area of interest offered by UF-CALS.

Please respond by April 12 regarding attendance and the free dinner to Dean Bud Riviere at Chipola (850-718-2268), or email: riviueb@chipola.edu

Covington wins Disney Dream Ticket

Kyndall Covington a member of Chipola College's Show Choir won the DREAM TICKET at Disney's Hollywood Studios in Orlando on a recent Show Choir performance trip to Disney World. Successfully auditioning and performing her way to the night competition, Kyndall was voted best singer of the day by the large enthusiastic audience winning the Dream Ticket thereby giving her the opportunity to make a reservation to sing in front of an American Idol representative at an actual regional audition of the American Idol TV show. The Dream ticket is the ultimate "Fast Pass" to the regional auditions. While at Disney, the Chipola Show Choir performed for a standing-room-only crowd in Downtown Disney. Chipola Show Choir is under the direction of Angie White, Josh Martin, and Brittney Holmes.

Auditions for Chipola Show Choir 2010-2011 are scheduled for Monday, April 19 at 4:00 p.m. in the college's Arts Center. All college and graduating seniors who are interested in being a part of Show Choir are encouraged to audition. For more information contact Joan Stadskev at stadskev@chipola.edu or 850-718-2301.

Lady Indians lead Panhandle Conference, Hewett named NJCAA POW

The league-leading Lady Indians finish up the conference season with a pair of home doubleheaders: TCC on Saturday, April 10, at 1 p.m. and Northwest on Friday, April 16, at 4 p.m.

Chipola leads the Panhandle Conference race with a 10-2 record as of April 8. Northwest is 7-5. Gulf Coast is 4-6. TCC is 3-6 and Pensacola is 3-8.

Chipola is third in the FCCAA poll behind top-ranked Miami Dade and second place Santa Fe. Northwest is sixth. Gulf Coast is ninth.

Chipola swept a pair of games from Pensacola April 7, winning 4-1 and 9-2.

The Lady Indians split an April 1 double-header with Gulf Coast, losing 6-3 in game one and winning 7-5 in game two.

Chipola swept Northwest in a March 30 double-header winning 4-3 in game one and 9-0 in game two.

Chipola's Michelle Hewett was named NJCAA Softball Player of the Week for April 4. Hewett had a tremendous week at the plate for the sixth-ranked team in the country. In a March 30 double-header against Northwest, the sophomore went 7-for-9 with two runs, two doubles, two RBIs, and two stolen bases.

Two days later, in a double-header against Gulf Coast, Hewett went 2-for-6 with two runs, one RBI, two walks, and one stolen base. For the week, the outfielder batted .600 (9-15) with four runs, two doubles, three RBIs, two walks, and three stolen bases.

Hewett was also named FCCAA Softball Player of the Week on Feb. 25.

The FCCAA state softball tournament is set for April 30 in Auburndale.
