Chipola announces auditions for Little Shop of Horrors

The Chipola Theatre will hold auditions for "Little Shop of Horrors," Jan. 10 at 5 p.m. and Jan. 11 at 6 p.m.

The long-running Off-Broadway hit musical by the songwriting team of Alan Menken and Howard Ashman will run March 9-13, 2011, in the Chipola Theatre.

The story centers on Floral-shop employee Seymour who discovers an exotic plant species at a flea market and brings it back to Mushnik's Skid Row Florist, where the mysterious plant draws in curiosity seekers and customers. Mr. Mushnik is thrilled with the new business, but soon, Seymour learns the plant has an unusual appetite that must be satisfied. The plant, named "Audrey 2," having developed a mind and a rhythm-and-blues singing voice of its own, demands that Seymour fulfill its cravings, promising wealth and fame in exchange.

Auditioners should be prepared to sing, dance and read lines from a script. Parts available include: Seymour, a tenor singing voice and a bit of a klutz; Audrey, a high and squeaky voice with a Brooklyn accent; Mr. Mushnik, a foreign accent who rants in Yiddish; Dentist Orin Scrivello, who speaks with a cool drawl and sings in spoken and yelled words; the Voice of Audrey 2, who sings in a powerful, deep R&B bass-baritone voice; and the trio of Chiffon, Ronnette and Crystal, ages 16-30, in extremely important singing and dancing roles.

In addition to the voice of Audrey II, a puppeteer is needed to manipulate three of the four Audrey II puppets.
