Chipola College offering 3-D course

Chipola College is now accepting students for the new Simulation Modeling Technician (3-D) Certificate program.

Students in the program will develop the technical skills necessary to produce three-dimensional content to be used in business, industry, education, state and federal government as well as the military.

The software that will be taught in this program includes Photoshop, 3D Studio Max, ArcGIS, Java Script, AutoCAD and Unity gaming software.

Prospective students must have proficiency in computer applications in order to successfully complete the course.

The first course begins April 11 and runs through Aug. 4. Registration deadline is April 4. Classes are scheduled for Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 5 to 10 p.m. Cost of the program is $1,500 plus the cost of textbooks. Due to the length and the nature of the program, traditional Financial Aid is not available. The course is limited to the first 12 students. Matt White, Chipola's Network Coordinator, will teach the course.

For information, contact Christen Bennett in the Chipola Continuing Education Office at 850-718-2395 or 850-718-2455.

Firearms course set at Chipola

Chipola College will hold an 8-hour Firearms Familiarization course, Saturday, March 19, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the Chipola Annex Firing Range on the Blue Springs Highway.

Although this class can be used to meet requirements to obtain a concealed weapon permit, those who simply want to learn to shoot or take a refresher course are welcome.

Only .38 cal, 9mm, and .40 cal ammunition will be provided. College weapons will be utilized for most of the course, but students will be allowed to shoot their own weapons at some point. Personal weapons must be left in the vehicle until requested by instructors.

Registration and payment of the $100 fee must be completed in advance. Class size is limited. Use of a weapon and ammunition are included in the cost of the course.

For information, call Doris Williams at (850) 718-2394 or e-mail williamsd@chipola.edu.

Change in Twain/Hemingway Lecture Series slated for Feb. 23

The schedule for the Twain/Hemingway Lecture Series has been adjusted to incorporate an excellent video entitled "American Masters: Ernest Hemingway: Rivers to the Sea." This video will be shown in Jackson Hall, Z-116, on Wednesday, February 23, at 10:00 a.m. All students and faculty are invited to attend. Future series events include Professor Carol Saunders' "oral interp" students presenting scenes from Hemingway's "The Short Happy Life of Francis Macomber" on March 23 and a mock trial of Mrs. Macomber from the same story on April 20. The jury for the trial will be the audience; come prepared to proclaim the guilt or innocence of this intriguing character. The audience will also be "entertained" with material from or about Mark Twain at each event.

Audition dates for Chipola scholarships in the arts

Auditions dates have been set for Music, Art, and Theatre scholarships to Chipola College for the 2011-12 school year.

Music Scholarship auditions are Feb. 24, March 17 April 21, and May 26.

Theatre Scholarship auditions are Feb. 24, March 17 and April 21. The Visual Art application and portfolio deadline is April 21.

The scholarships are available to high school graduates with acceptable academic records and aptitude in music, theatre, and art. Applicants who plan to pursue studies as music, theatre or art majors are eligible to apply for scholarships. Music or theatre students unable to meet one of the scheduled dates are asked to contact Joan Stadskev, Director of Fine and Performing Arts, to arrange an alternative audition date.

Scholarships in various amounts, up to full tuition and fees, are awarded on the basis of talent and academic record. Students with financial need may seek additional assistance through the college's Office of Financial Aid and the Chipola Foundation.

Scholarship applications may be obtained from the college's web site: www.chipola.edu. Select Fine Arts and click on the discipline of interest.

Applications also are available by calling the Fine and Performing Arts Department at 850-718-2277 or 850-718-2301, or by emailing stadskev@chipola.edu

Honors program which recruits students from its five-county district. The Ivey Brothers have again volunteered their talent and time for the event.

Tickets for the dance are available from students in the program, or by calling Bonnie Smith or Robert Ivey at 526-1761, Ext. 3247.

Tickets on sale for Chipola's "Little Shop of Horrors"

Tickets go on sale Feb. 23 for the Chipola College production of the Off-Broadway musical, "Little Shop of Horrors."

The show opens a five-day run, March 9, with shows nightly at 7:30 p.m. and a 2 p.m. Sunday matinee. Some material in the show is best suited to adult audiences.

Music in the Off-Broadway show was written and composed by the talented team of Alan Menkene and Howard Ashman. The Menkene/Ashman duo also wrote tunes for the Disney versions of "The Little Mermaid," "Beauty and the Beast" and "Aladdin." Menken is nominated for an Oscar for his work in the current Disney animated hit, "Tangled."

Theater director Charles Sirmon selected a cast of 30, including the following roles: Meghan Gilliland as Ronnette, Deanna Harrison as Chiffon, Kayla Todd as Crystal, Griffin Smith as Mushnik, Dianna Glaze as Audrey, Trey McKay as Seymour, Chris Holloway as Orin, D.R. Forrester as Audrey II (manipulation), Caleb Lovely as Audrey II (voice) and Piper Williams as Interviewer.

The Skid Row Ensemble includes Alex Parish, Allison Bunge, Ashleigh Stowe, Austin Pettis, Tabitha Shumaker, Matthew Van Buren, Joshua Tetlow, Piper Williams, Blake Collins, Ryan Pilcher, Clint Touchton, Elizabeth Mathis, Austin Brockner, Lee Shook, Joy Wallace, Alexis Perry, Allie Brockner, Sierra Hill, Olivia Corbin, Keith Watford and Seth Basford.

Austin Pettis is Stage Manager and Alex Anderson is Assistant Stage Manager. Chris Manasco is directing the choreography for the show.

"Little Shop of Horrors" centers on flower-shop employee Seymour who discovers an exotic plant species at a flea market and brings it back to Mushnik's Skid Row Florist, where the mysterious plant draws in curiosity seekers and customers. Mushnik is thrilled with the new business, but soon, Seymour learns the plant has an unusual appetite that must be satisfied. The plant, named "Audrey 2," having developed a mind and a rhythm-and-blues singing voice of its own, demands that Seymour fulfill its cravings, promising wealth and fame in exchange.

The stage show was remade as a popular film starring Steve Martin as the sadistic dentist.
