Chipola Artist Series season tickets on sale July 29

Chipola Artist Series season tickets go on sale to the public July 29, at 7 a.m.

Online tickets may be printed at home or with an order confirmation. Will-call tickets will be available at the box office the night of the show.

Director of Fine and Performing Arts, Evelyn Ward says, "Season ticket sales are expected to go quickly once they are offered to the general public, so don't miss out."

For those who want to purchase tickets in person, they will be available in the Center for the Arts Box Office July 29-August 28, Monday through Wednesday from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

This year's lineup includes Sweet Potato Pie, sharing a classy blend of Americana, Bluegrass, Country and Gospel music, on Aug. 29.

Voices of Lee, a 16-member a cappella vocal ensemble from Lee University in Cleveland, TN, will perform Oct. 4.

On Jan. 16, 2014, concert harpist Anna Maria Medieta will present the passionate and sensuous music of the Argentine Tango and Spanish Flamenco complete with Latin instruments and flamenco dancers.

Recognized throughout the U.S. and abroad as the premier Chinese acrobatic touring group, the Golden Dragon Acrobats will amaze audiences with their breathtaking skill and spellbinding beauty on April 1, 2014.

Season tickets are $48, a bargain price when compared to sister institutions where prices are double or triple this amount.

Season ticket holders also are invited to VIP Meet the Artist receptions and early renewal privileges for the next season.

Meet the Artist reception hosts this year include: First Commerce Credit Union, First Federal Bank of Florida, Regions Bank and Wells Fargo.

Some events are expected to sell out quickly.

Season ticket purchases are the best way to be sure to get the best seat in the house. For those who want to brave single ticket sales, prices are $14 for adults, $10 for children under 18, with special pricing for Chipola students and employees. Individual tickets for the first event go on sale Aug. 26.
