An Equal Access/Equal Opportunity Institution

Artist Series magic show nearly sold out

Less than 50 tickets remain for Illusionist Sammy Cortino's Las Vegas style magic show set for Thursday, Jan. 17, in the Chipola Center for the Arts.

Tickets are available online at www.chipola.edu. Click "Fine Arts" and "Artist Series." Online tickets may be printed at home, or with an order confirmation, will-call tickets will be available at the box office the night of the show. Box office hours are 2 to 5 p.m., Jan. 15 and 16. The Box Office also will be open at 6 p.m. the night of the show on Jan. 17. Tickets are $14 for adults and $10 for children under 18. Tickets for Chipola students and employees are $5 the day of the show.

Sammy Cortino is taking magic back to its roots in its purest, up-to-date form. His raw, live, unprecedented style brings out a sense of old Hollywood charm. Going against the mesh of cutting-edge illusionists of today, he is reviving the classics of magic presented in the spirit of the late Houdini and Harry Blackstone. Cortino holds a Doctoral Degree in Magic from the International Magicians Society and is a member of London's Magic Circle. Siegfried and Roy and Lance Burton endorsed Cortino's membership in the International Brotherhood of Magicians.

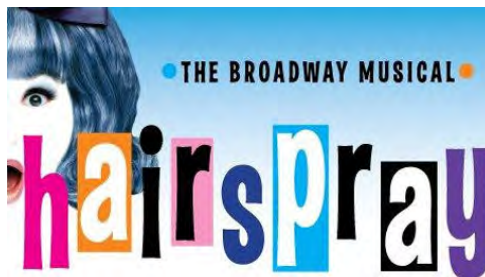

Two more events follow Cortino in the Chipola Artist Series. The Davis and Dow jazz quartet featuring a vocalist and a request-by-favorites second half is Feb. 7. The popular bluegrass/country comedy group, Three on a String, will perform April 11.

For information, visit www.chipola.edu or phone 718-2257.

Chipola hosts Pensacola Tuesday, January 15

Chipola hosts Pensacola in a pair of Panhandle Conference games Tuesday, Jan. 15, in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center. The women's game tips off at 5:30 p.m., followed by the men's game at 7:30 p.m.

The Indians (1-1) suffered their first loss of the season at the hands of arch-rival Northwest Florida State (80-65) on Jan. 9 in Niceville.

Kruize Pinkins

It was Chipola coach Patrick Blake's first loss as a head coach after leading the Indians to a perfect 18-0 start. "I was really disappointed with how the game turned out," coach Blake said. "We knew it was going to be a tough environment."

The Indians got off to a slow start taking nearly seven minutes to score their first points. Chipola gave up 12 first half turnovers to trail 32-26 at the half. The Indians cut the lead to eight (58-50) late in the second half, but never got any closer. Chipola was led by guard Demetrious Floyd with 15 points.

Coach Blake said, "It's tough to win a conference road game, but this can be a great learning tool for our players and our coaching staff. We've got a great team, but we weren't ready for this game. We're going back to work now to do everything we can to get to where we need to be."

Chipola (1-1) opened Conference play with an 80-63 win over Tallahassee. Chris Thomas led the Indians with 21 points and 6 rebounds. Kruize Pinkins scored 13. Carlos Morris and Cinmeon Bowers each scored 11. Demetrious Floyd added 10.

The Chipola Lady Indians also suffered a heart-breaking 62-61 loss at Northwest on Jan. 9. After Lady Raider Luiana Livulo missed the front end of a 1-and-1 with 17 seconds left to play, Chipola (16-2) got the rebound and called timeout with 6.4 seconds left. Jasmine Crawford had a last second shot for Chipola, but it fell short.

Chipola trailed 32-28 at the half, but tied the game three times in the second period. Lady Indian Jade Givens knotted the score at 52 with seven minutes to play. A 3-pointer from Kristine Brance, who shot 5 of 14 from beyond the arc for a team-best 15 points, made it 60-59, but Northwest's Shae Nelson hit a key with 1:41 to play.

Chipola shot only 30 percent from the floor, but hit 10 3-pointers to the Lady Raiders' 4. The Lady Indians were just 10 of 35 from beyond the arc despite a hot start that gave them an early eight-point cushion.

The Lady Indians, (1-1) in league play, opened the season with a 74-63 win over Tallahassee on Jan. 5. Rayven Brooks, FC-SAA Honorable Mention Player of the week, led Chipola with 19 points including four three-pointers. Kristine Brance had 18 with three from beyond the arc. Rhani Bell had 14 with four three-pointers. Lashonda Littleton added 12.

Small business seminars set at Chipola

Chipola will offer a series of small business seminars in the coming months. All seminars meet on Fridays, from 9:30 to 12:30 p.m., in Room M-108 of the Chipola Business and Technology building.

"Steps to Starting a Small Business" is Friday, Jan. 25. The seminar will focus on organizational requirements, licensing, financial assessments, insurance, marketing, loans, defining customers, location and employee requirements.

"Business Plans" is Feb. 15. The seminar will help participants discover which business type is best suited for their personality, and how to create a working business model to obtain financing and create a successful business.

A free seminar, "What the Veterans' Business Outreach Center Can Do for You," is March 22. The VBOC helps create, develop, and retain veteran-owned small business enterprises. The VBOC provides training through workshops, counseling, assistance, and resource utilization services to Veterans, Service-Disabled Veterans, Reservists, National Guard, and Active Duty business owners and entrepreneurs.

"Government Contracting" will meet April 19. This workshop helps business owners identify government agencies to which they can market their businesses. Participants will discuss the effective marketing and ways to find a proposal opportunity, and how to write a winning bid.

Cost of each seminar is $30. The first six Chipola students to sign up for any seminar will receive free admission. Students should call 718-2441 or sign up in person in Building M, Office 108.

Participants may register online at www.northfloridabiz.com. For more information, call 850-718-2441.
