An Equal Access/Equal Opportunity Institution

Civil War minstrel to perform at Chipola

The next event in the Chipola Artist Series “Songs and Stories of the Civil War” is set for Monday, Jan. 30, at 7 p.m. in the Chipola College Theater.

Professional musician Bobby Horton will transport the audience back in time to the most turbulent era in our nation’s history. Dressed as a 19th century performer, using period musical instruments, Horton explores the stories of both the North and South through the music they loved with each song placed in historical context. Each song is placed in historical context and portrays the struggles, hopes, and fears of Americans during this long and bloody conflict.

These song and stories tell of sweethearts and families left behind, fallen comrades, the hope of going home, and the pride, bravery, and patriotism of the volunteers who answered their country’s call. Audiences will enjoy an evening of great music, inspired storytelling, and unforgettable entertainment.

Horton has produced and performed musical scores for eight Ken Burns PBS films, including “The Civil War” and “Baseball.”

Tickets—$12 for adults, $8 for ages 18 and under and $4 for Chipola students—go on sale Jan. 17 in the college Business Office.

Two more events are scheduled in the series. “Fused Tutu” a mixed dance repertoire presented by Dance Alive, the National Ballet Company is March 18. “The Whiffenpoofs,” the oldest and best-known collegiate a cappella all-male singing group, will perform April 26.

The Chipola Artist Series is funded through Chipola’s Performing Arts Fund, with grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Southern Arts Federation, the Florida Division of Cultural Affairs, the Chipola Regional Arts Association and corporate donors.

For ticket information, call 850-718-2220.

Chipola hosts Gulf Coast in conference battle

Chipola hosts Gulf Coast in a pair of games Saturday, Jan. 21, in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center. The women's game tips off at 5:30 p.m., followed by the men's game at 7:30 p.m.

The Indians fell to 1-1 in conference play with a 69-58 loss to top-ranked Northwest Florida on Jan. 10. Despite a standout performance from Chipola freshman Kruize Pinkins with 29 points and nine rebounds, the Raiders (2-0) proved too much for the Indians. Jerel

Kruize Pinkins

Scott also scored 11 points for Chipola. The Indians were without the services of leading scorer Joseph Uchebo who was an honorable mention pick for FCSA player of the week. Chipola trailed 32-23 at the half.

The Indians defeated sixth-ranked Tallahassee 53-50 in the conference opener. During the first half, Chipola's Jason Carter was injured during a loose ball battle for a rebound and did not return to the game. Chipola led 27-23 at the half. Uchebo finished with 18 points and 11 rebounds.

In the Jan. 10 poll, Chipola's men (17-2, 1-1) were ranked second in the FCSAA poll. The Lady Indians (13-4, 1-0) were ranked fourth.

The Lady Indians lost a close fight with top-ranked Northwest 46-44 on Jan. 10. Sara Djassi led the Chipola with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Jelleah Sidney scored 11 points with 10 rebounds. Chipola overcame a 29-17 halftime deficit to eventually pull to within two points in the final seconds of the game.

The Lady Indians edged the Lady Eagles, 52-49, in the league opener on Jan. 7. Chipola lead 30-25 at the half. Djassi came off the bench to score 18 points and grab 12 rebounds to lead Chipola.

The Lady Indians finished the pre-conference schedule with a 70-54 win over Daytona on Jan. 2.

Chipola plays at Pensacola on Jan. 18.

Chipola Future Educators teacher workshop is Jan. 21

The Chipola College Future Educators Club will host their fifth annual Teacher Workshop, Jan. 21. Current teachers and students interested in a career in education are invited to attend.

Future educators currently enrolled at Chipola, with the assistance of the Department of Education faculty and staff, will present hands-on activities along with samples for teachers and education majors to use in their own classrooms.

The sessions will include presentations and strategies in Math, Science, Reading, English, ESOL and ESE. Various sessions will be held for elementary, middle, and high school teachers.

Some 21 sessions are already scheduled. A few of the topics being presented are: Using Foldables and Manipulatives, Student Engagement with Social Studies, Cooking Through the Content Areas, Teaching Reading Components Using Picture Books, Using Holidays With the ESOL Student in Mind, Integrating Reading and Math, Technology in the Classroom, Discovering Pi, Incorporating Drama into the Classroom, How to Build a Classroom Community, Accommodating All Students in the Mainstream Classroom, Science Activities for elementary, middle school, and high school and a General Session with Center Ideas and an on-site Usborne Book Representative.

In addition to the student-led sessions, a representative from Big Ideas Learning will conduct a session for middle school math teachers. A representative from Teacher Effectiveness also will conduct a session on Classroom Management for teachers in grades 3-6.

Registration opens at 8 a.m. in Building D on the Chipola College campus. Sessions begin at 8:15 a.m. and run through 12:30 p.m.

To ensure that sufficient materials are available, those planning to attend are asked to RSVP.

For information or to reserve a spot, contact Casey Bush at bushc@chipola.edu or 850-526-2761, Ext. 2449.

Chipola baseball alumni weekend set for Feb. 10-11

Major League Homerun leader Jose Bautista will return to Chipola College on Feb. 10-11 for the fifth annual Chipola Baseball Alumni event.

Chipola coach Jeff Johnson says, "It's special to have these guys come back for this event. A lot of them have gone on to be successful in baseball and in other careers. They all have a lot of pride in Chipola and it means a lot for them to come in here and help us raise a little money for our program."

The weekend begins Friday, Feb. 10, with a game between Chipola and Walters State at 11 a.m. Chipola plays San Jacinto at 2 p.m. A Golf Outing for Chipola Baseball Alumni and friends tees off at 2 p.m. at Indian Springs Golf Course. An Alumni Social will be held at Beef O'Brady's from 6:30 p.m. to midnight.

Saturday, Feb. 11, events begin at 11 a.m. with Chipola vs. Walter's State. An Alumni Home Run Derby begins at 1 p.m. Fans will have a chance to meet the players and get an autograph. A $100 a plate Pro Baseball Dinner and Auction is set for 6 p.m. at the Trammell Camp in Blountstown.

The following Chipola alumni have confirmed their attendance: Jose Bautista—Toronto Blue Jays, Tyler Flowers—Chicago White Sox, Adam Loewen—

Jose Bautista

New York Mets, Mat Gamel—Milwaukee Brewers and honorary Chipola alumnus Jeff Mathis—Toronto Blue Jays. Several other former players are expected to attend.

World class softball camp set at Chipola

Charlotte Morgan

Area softball players will have the once-in-a-lifetime chance to work with world-class softball players Charlotte Morgan and Kelsi Dunne at the Chipola College Softball field January 20-22, 2012.

Chipola head coach Belinda Hendrix says, "This is a great opportunity for local players to learn from two of the best softball players in America."

Camp participants have several opportunities to choose from during the weekend of Jan. 20-22. Players who are interested in improving their hitting can choose to attend the Jan. 21 Hitting session only for $100. Pitchers may choose the Jan. 22 Pitching session only for $100. A homerun derby on Jan. 21 is $20 per person. A Jan. 21 Banquet with the players is $30 per person.

An all-inclusive three day camp with hitting and pitching sessions, additional instruction, Banquet, Home Run Derby, lodging and food is $350.

Charlotte Morgan is a professional softball player with the USSSA Pride based out of Kissimmee which is part of the National Pro Fastpitch League (NPF). She is an alumnus of the University of Alabama and was the first pick in the 2010 National Pro Fastpitch Senior Draft. The California native was one of the most highly decorated players in Crimson Tide softball history. In 2009 and 2010, Morgan was named the (SEC) Player of the Year. She was a USA Softball Player of the Year Top 10 finalist and ESPN Magazine's Academic third-team All-American. She ended the 2010 season with a 7–2 pitching record, a .350 batting average and led the team with 16 home runs. She was the first player in Crimson Tide history with three 50-plus RBI seasons. She led Alabama in all three major hitting categories in her final season with a .406 batting average, 11 home runs and 59 RBI.

Kelsi Dunne is a senior at the University of Alabama where she was a teammate of Charlotte Morgan. Dunne is the second pitcher in Alabama history to be named SEC Pitcher of the Year. She was the SEC tournament MVP and was named to the all-tournament team was on the ASA/USA Player of the Year Watch List. She led the SEC during league play in wins (13), strikeouts (144) and opponent batting average (.174). She struck out at least 10 batters in seven conference games last season. She entered NCAA 2011 postseason winning her last 16 consecutive starts. She threw a career-high 17 strikeouts and notched the second most K's in a game in Alabama history by fanning 17 in a complete game at UAB (Feb. 23). She became the first pitcher in Alabama history to start all three games at the SEC tournament and earn all three wins.
