Chipola opens Home Conference Season on Tuesday, Jan. 11

Chipola hosts Pensacola, Tuesday, Jan. 11, in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center. The women's game tips off at 5:30 p.m., followed by the men's game at 7:30 p.m. Pensacola is first in the state and national women's polls.

Both Chipola hoops squads opened the conference season with wins at Gulf Coast on Jan. 8.

The Lady Indians 64-59 win over the Lady Commodores marked the first time that Chipola coach David Lane's Lady Indians had won a game in Panama City. Carleeda Green led the Lady Indians with 17 points. Jeniece Johnson scored 12. Brieona Warner had 11.

Coach Lane said, "It was just a good, hard-fought game. Chipola lead 36-26 at half. It was just a good win." The Lady Indians improve to 15-4 and 1-0 in conference play.

The Lady Indians defeated Bishop State 60-43 on Dec. 31. Chipola outlasted Daytona 59-56 on Dec. 30. Jasmine Shaw led Chipola with 16 points and four rebounds. Carleeda Green scored 13. Brieona Warner had 10. Chipola whipped Santa Fe, 65-52 in the Cabot Lodge Holiday Classic on Dec. 29.

Chipola announces auditions for Little Shop of Horrors

The Chipola Theatre will hold auditions for "Little Shop of Horrors," Jan. 10 at 5 p.m. and Jan. 11 at 6 p.m.

The long-running Off-Broadway hit musical by the songwriting team of Alan Menken and Howard Ashman will run March 9-13, 2011, in the Chipola Theatre.

The story centers on Floral-shop employee Seymour who discovers an exotic plant species at a flea market and brings it back to Mushnik's Skid Row Florist, where the mysterious plant draws in curiosity seekers and customers. Mr. Mushnik is thrilled with the new business, but soon, Seymour learns the plant has an unusual appetite that must be satisfied. The plant, named "Audrey 2," having developed a mind and a rhythm-and-blues singing voice of its own, demands that Seymour fulfill its cravings, promising Panhandle Conference teams occupy the top five spots in the latest FCCAA Women's State Poll. Pensacola leads the poll. Northwest is second, followed by Gulf Coast in third. Tallahassee is fourth, followed by Chipola in fifth.

The Indians narrowly defeated Gulf Coast, 68-64, on Saturday. Chipola improved to 15-2 and 1-0 in league play. Marcos Knight lead Chipola with 22. Chipola lead 38-31 at the half and by as many as 12 late in the game.

The Indians opened the 2011 campaign with a 104-77 win over Covenant Christian in Marietta, GA. The Indians outlasted the Beef O'Brady's Basketball Club 94-92 in an overtime thriller in Panama City at the Gulf Coast Holiday Classic on Dec. 30.

The Indians' only losses of the season came at the hands of Monroe College, 72-61 on Nov. 20, and St. Pete, 104-83 on Dec. 12.

In the first FCCAA State Poll of 2011, Chipola is ranked fourth. Northwest is first. Tallahassee is seventh and Pensacola is tenth. Chipola travels to Northwest Florida, Jan. 15 before returning home to host Tallahassee on Jan. 18.

wealth and fame in exchange.

Auditioners should be prepared to sing, dance and read lines from a script. Parts available include: Seymour, a tenor singing voice and a bit of a klutz; Audrey, a high and squeaky voice with a Brooklyn accent; Mr. Mushnik, a foreign accent who rants in Yiddish; Dentist Orin Scrivello, who speaks with a cool drawl and sings in spoken and yelled words; the Voice of Audrey 2, who sings in a powerful, deep R&B bass-baritone voice; and the trio of Chiffon, Ronnette and Crystal, ages 16-30, in extremely important singing and dancing roles.

In addition to the voice of Audrey II, a puppeteer is needed to manipulate three of the four Audrey II puppets.

Small Business Seminars set at Chipola

Chipola will offer two small business seminars on Jan. 21 with more scheduled in February and March.

Two seminars are slated for Friday, Jan. 21. A Webinar on “Understanding Income Statements” will meet from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. A local Certified Public Accountant will help participants learn to understand income statements and discover line by line what all those numbers mean and how to analyze them efficiently.

Also on Jan. 21, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., is a seminar entitled, “Marketing Series, Part 1: Introduction to 21st Century Marketing,” will be offered. Participants will learn the best methods for marketing a business and broaden and target market audience. Participants will also learn to easily create a free web site, discover which social media avenues are the best, and learn to optimize internet presence.

On Friday, Feb. 25, from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m., a Webinar on “Understanding Balance Sheets” will be offered. Participants will discover where each line of a balance sheet comes from and how to verify and compare them in this course taught by a local Certified Public Accountant.

Also on Feb. 25, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., “Marketing Series, Part 2: Marketing on the Internet and Using Social Media” will be offered. Participants will discover the power of having a social media strategy. Business owners also will learn to implement new marketing techniques, unlock the secrets of social media and establish an online presence.

On Friday, March 11, a Webinar entitled, “Are You Missing Tax Deductions?” will be offered from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. Participants will learn which tax deduction areas are being missed due to lack of communication with the tax preparer? Existing business owners will determine if a change of entity can decrease their taxes.

Also on March 11, a seminar entitled, “Ultimate Business Plan,” will meet from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Participants will learn to create an impressive business plan to ensure business success.

The workshops will meet in Room M-108 of the Chipola Business and Technology building. Cost of each seminar is $30.

Olympic softball players coming to Chipola

Area softball players will have the once-in-a-lifetime chance to work with three team USA Olympic medalists at the Chipola College Softball field, Jan. 22-23, 2011.

The Triple Threat team of Cat Osterman, Kelly Kretschman and Caitlin Lowe will provide a weekend of softball instruction focusing on pitching, offense and defense.

Pitcher Cat Osterman played at the University of Texas. She was an Olympic Gold Medalist and Silver Medalist, a two-time World Cup Champion and a two-time Pan American Gold Medalist. Osterman was a three-time USA Collegiate Player of the Year and a three-time NFCA First-Team All-American. She was the two-time ESPY Award winner as the Top Collegiate Female Athlete. Cat is the assistant softball coach at DePaul University in Chicago, and plays professionally for the Rockford Thunder.

Kelly Kretschman played outfield and infield at the University of Alabama. She was an Olympic Gold Medalist and Silver Medalist. She also was a Gold medalist at the Pan American Games and a member of the World Cup Championship team. The four-time NFCA All-American lives in Southern California and plays for the USSSA Pride.

Caitlin Lowe played outfield at the University of Arizona. She was an Olympic Silver Medalist and a Gold medalist at Pan American Games. A member of the two-time World Cup Championship team, she also was a four-time NFCA First-Team All-American. Caitlin now resides in Texas where she gives specialized lessons in out-fielding and slapping.

Chipola head coach Belinda Hendrix says, "This is a great opportunity for local players to learn from some of the best softball players in America."

The two day Chipola camp will include six hours of instruction each day with lunch included. Registration fee is $200 by Dec. 18 and $250 after Dec. 18.

For information, call Hendrix at 718-2358 or 718-2359, or visit www.chipolaathletics.com.

Spring Registration Continues at Chipola

Spring semester classes at Chipola College began Jan. 7, but late registration will continue through noon on Tuesday, Jan. 11.

Traditional courses as well as online and independent study courses are available. Three terms are offered in the Spring semester. Term A runs Jan. 7 through May 3. Term B runs Jan. 7 through March 2. Term C runs March 3 through May 2.

Chipola offers AA degrees, workforce programs and BS degrees. The Associate in Arts (AA) degree provides the first two years of college for students planning to transfer to a university or into one of Chipola's Bachelor's degree programs. Curriculum guides that outline requirements for specific majors are available on the college website at www.chipola.edu

The college also offers several bachelor's degree including Mathematics and Science for middle or high school, Elementary Education, Exceptional Student Education, Business Management and an RN to BSN program in nursing. The college also offers an Educator Preparation Institute which provides teacher certification for persons with a bachelor's degree in a non-teaching major.

Chipola was recently approved to offer a BS degree in Business Administration with concentrations in Accounting and Management and a BS degree in English Education. The new degrees will begin in May.

Workforce programs include: Automotive Technology, Corrections, Computer Systems Technology, Cosmetology and Law Enforcement. Associate in Science (AS) programs include: Business Administration and Management, Computer Information Administration, Criminal Justice Technology, Culinary Management, Early Childhood Education, Fire Science, Network Administration and Recreation Technology.

The Health Science Division offers training programs for a number of health-related careers. The Associate Degree Nursing (ADN) program is a 1+1 LPN to RN curriculum. Students are eligible to take the LPN exam after the first year, and the RN exam after the second year. The college also offers an Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) program and a Paramedic program. A new Paramedic to RN bridge program is set to begin in Summer of 2011. Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) classes are set to begin in January.

Chipola's open-door policy allows any student with a high school diploma to enroll after completing an application and providing high school or college transcripts.

Applications are available online at www.chipola.edu. Students without ACT or SAT scores must take the College Placement Test by calling 718-2284.

For information, call the Chipola Registration Office at 718-2311, or visit www.chipola.edu.
