

Freddy Cole Quartet in concert Feb. 7 at Chipola

The Freddy Cole Quartet in Concert, the third event in the Chipola College Artist Series, will be presented Feb. 7.

Individual event tickets - $12 for adults and $8 for ages 18 and under –are on sale in the Chipola Business Office.

Freddy Cole, a Grammy nominee in his own right, makes no apology for sounding like his brother, Nat King Cole. And he stands shoulder to shoulder with today’s jazz greats. Warm, intimate, elegant come to mind with Freddy behind the piano and microphone. A master vocalist and pianist, Cole will captivate listeners with his warm presence, subtle phrasing, and world class jazz. He has been charming audiences in the States and abroad for over 40 years.

Freddy’s music education began at Chicago’s Roosevelt Institute, continued with degrees from the Juilliard School of Music in New York and the New England Conservatory of Music. He hit the thriving jazz scene of New York City learning the ropes from such influential mentors as drummer Sonny Greer. For information, visit www.freddycole.com.

The Manhattan Piano Trio closes the 2010-11 season, March 17. The Trio has become one of the most creative, exciting, and dynamic young ensembles in the United States. The group uses piano, violin and cello as their individual instruments of expression to present Classical, Romantic and Contemporary music. For information, visit www.manhattanpianotrio.com.

Cast announced for Chipola’s “Little Shop of Horrors”

The Chipola College Theater is in full rehearsal for the totally awesome musical, “Little Shop of Horrors,” Book by Howard Ashman, Music by Alan Menkene, Lyrics by Howard Ashman and Directed by Charles Sirmon, Choreography by Chris Manasco, which opens a five-day run, March 9.

Chipola Theater director Charles Sirmon recently cast local actors in the following roles: Meghan Gilliland as Ronnette, Deanna Harrison as Chiffon, Kayla Todd as Crystal, Griffin Smith as Mushnik, Dianna Glaze as Audrey, Trey McKay as Seymour, Chris Holloway as Orin, D.R. Forrester as Audrey II (manipulation), Caleb Lovely as Audrey II (voice), Piper Williams as Interviewer, Austin Pettis as Stage Manager and Alex Anderson as Asst. Stage Manager. Skid Row Ensemble: Alex Parish, Allison Bunge, Ashleigh Stowe, Austin Pettis, Tabitha Shumaker, Matthew Van Buren, Joshua Tetlow, Piper Williams, Blake Collins, Ryan Pilcher, Clint Touchton, Elizabeth Mathis, Austin Brockner, Lee Shook, Joy Wallace, Alexis Perry, Allie Brockner, Sierra Hill, Olivia Corbin, Keith Watford, Seth Basford.

The long-running Off-Broadway hit musical “Little Shop of Horrors”. The story centers on Floral-shop employee Seymour who discovers an exotic plant species at a flea market and brings it back to Mushnik’s Skid Row Florist, where the mysterious plant draws in curiosity seekers and customers. Mr. Mushnik is thrilled with the new business, but soon, Seymour learns the plant has an unusual appetite that must be satisfied. The plant, named “Audrey 2,” having developed a mind and a rhythm-and-blues singing voice of its own, demands that Seymour fulfill its cravings, promising wealth and fame in exchange.

Showalter and Bautista to headline Chipola baseball event

Orioles manager Buck Showalter, Blue Jays slugger Jose Bautista and dozens of other former Chipola baseball players are expected to return to their alma mater Feb. 4-6 for the fourth annual Chipola Baseball Alumni event.

On Feb. 5, former players will gather for Fastest Pitch and Homerun contests. A Kid's Baseball Camp is also slated. The jerseys of Orioles manager Buck Showalter and MLB Homerun leader Jose Bautista will be retired during a pre-game ceremony before Chipola's Saturday afternoon game. A $100 a Ticket Pro Baseball Celebrity Dinner is slated for 6:30 p.m.

Showalter and Bautista also visited Chipola at the 2010 Alumni event with former players: Richie Smith, Ryan Chaffee, Jay Chapman, Jeff Bosse, Raynel Robles, Brandon Street, Jeff Mathis, Jake Mathis, Blake Balkcom, Drew Miller, Luke Johnson, Angel Medina, Kellen Ludwig, Jonathan Swearingen, Luis Bautista, Ethan Martin, Josh Lawhon, Drew Cook, David Credeur, Grant Conyers, Jason Barber, Travis Anderson, Victor Alvarez, Jeff Mathis, Josh Storm, David Oswalt, Alan Horne, Mat Gamel, Liam Shanahan, Andrew Gay, Luis Bautista, Kevin Johnson, Jay Scott and Shawn Larkin.

For information about the event, contact Matt Addison at 850-718-2332, or email addisonm@chipola.edu.

Proceeds from new book to fund Village Scholarship at Chipola

Chipola College alumna Margena Bell Myrick has written a new book which she hopes will provide money for The Village Scholarship at Chipola College.

The book, entitled, "Grandparents and Grand Lessons," is a book told from Margena's perspective as a six year-old growing up in Marianna. The book includes wisdom and anecdotes from her grandparents. The book is available at Basford Christian Supply, CJ's Country Pantry, Gadsden Art Center in Quincy, Northview Christian Church Bookstore in Dothan and Amazon.com.

A portion of proceeds from book sales will go to the Village Scholarship which was established in honor of Margena's mother Dorothy J. Bell, a long-serving employee of the college and a mother-figure to hundreds of students. "Mrs. Dot," as she is affectionately known, worked at the college for 35 years from 1968 until her retirement in 2004. She served 16 years in the kitchen of the student center and 19 years in the college dormitory.

Her daughter Margena said, "Over the years my brothers and I watched mother care for countless numbers of students both on campus and off campus. Because many of the students had no money to get home or were out of the dorm for whatever reason, our house often looked like a meeting of the United Nations." To this day students continue to thank her with countless cards, flowers, calls and other forms of appreciation on her birthday and holidays.

Margena said, "Our mother has truly been a blessing to us and countless others. She is retired now, but the show must go on. This scholarship is our way of saying thanks for all she has done for us and other folks that were blessed as a result of crossing her path at Chipola." The Village Scholarship is designed to assist students who need financial support for classes, fuel, food, and other needs.

Tax deductible donations of any amount may be mailed to: The Village Scholarship, c/o the Chipola College Foundation, 3094 Indian Circle, Marianna, FL 32446.

Chipola College offers free tax preparation

In order to help more local citizens get the most refund due them, Chipola business instructor Lee Shook and his student volunteers are providing free tax preparation and free electronic filing.

The free service—for individual tax returns only—is available from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., on Wednesdays, through early April. Other times may be scheduled by appointment. Professor Shook says, "If it is a very complicated return, we ask that you continue to use your paid professional, but if it is a fairly simple return we can help. We will do Schedule A, itemized deductions."

The free service usually takes no longer than 30 minutes. For faster refunds, taxpayers are asked to bring a personal check which has routing information needed for electronic refunds.

To make an appointment for free tax assistance, call Lee Shook at (850) 718-2368.

Homecoming 2011 set for February 14-19

Lobby of Building Z	5 p.m. until 6 p.m.

Voting will continue on Feb. 10 in the Student Activities Office (K-105) until Noon.

Homecoming week will culminate on Saturday, Feb. 19. The men's basketball team will play TCC at 5:30 p.m. with the women following at 7:30 p.m. Dr. and Mrs. Gene Prough will host an Alumni Reception in the Appreciation Club Room at 6:30 p.m. All alumni are invited to attend.

Chipola's 2011 Homecoming Queen and Mr. Chipola will be crowned at halftime of the men's basketball game on Feb. 19.

Watch CTW for more about Homecoming 2011.

Former Chipola players making news in Division I

More than a dozen former Chipola College men's basketball players are making significant contributions at Division I colleges across the nation.

Chipola head coach Jake Headrick, says, "We are proud of our record of preparing young men to succeed at the next level."

Casey Mitchell (West Virginia) is leading the team in scoring with 16.8 points per game, and he is the third leading scorer in the Big East. He recently scored 28 points against Georgetown as the Mountaineers defeated the Hoyas on their home floor.

Justin Brownlee (St. John's) is averaging 14.3 points per game which is good for second on the team. He is also pulling down 5 rebounds per game. He helped St. John's to a 3-1 conference start which is their best start in several seasons.

Gary Flowers (Southern Mississippi) is averaging 21 points and 8 rebounds per game which is leading the team in both categories.

Flowers, who has helped USM to a 12-3 start, is projected by NBADraft.net as the 49th pick in the 2011 NBA Draft. LaShay Page (Southern Mississippi) is averaging 7 points per game and shooting 35% from the three point line for the Golden Eagles. Torye Pelham (Southern Mississippi) is red-shirted this season due to injury.

Vernon Teel (Loyola-Marymount) is averaging 15 points, 7 rebounds, and 4 assists per game which is leading the team in all three categories.

Malcolm Armstead (Oregon) is averaging 6.4 points per game to go along with a team-leading 4 assists per game. Jeremy Jacob (Oregon) is averaging 8 points and 4 rebounds per game for the Ducks.

Seven-footer Jon Kreft (Florida State) is averaging 3 points and 2 rebounds per game for the Seminoles. He recently was projected as the 55th pick in the 2012 NBA Draft.

Mario Little (Kansas) is averaging 6 points and 4 rebounds for Kansas and shooting 55% from the floor while helping the third ranked Jayhawks to a perfect 18-0 start.

Steadman Short (Ole Miss) is averaging 3.6 points and 4 rebounds per contest for the Rebels this season.

Delwan Graham (Jacksonville U) is averaging 8 points per game and 5 rebounds. He had 10 points and 8 rebounds in Jacksonville's overtime win against Florida.

Trevor Deloach (UNC-Willmington) is averaging 7.9 points per game and 4.2 rebounds for the Seahawks.

Tyler Schwab (Spring Hill College) is averaging 6.3 points and 4 assists per contest for the Badgers this season.

Polston brothers return to Chipola

Two of Chipola College's most successful alumni, brothers Ricky and Lamar Polston, recently returned to their alma mater to speak to students in the Chipola Honors program. Ricky Polston is a Justice on the Florida Supreme Court. Lamar Polston is a retired insurance executive. Originally from Graceville, the brothers discussed their careers and offered advice to the students. Here, Chipola president Dr. Gene Prough (right) presents college portfolios to Ricky (center) and Lamar (left).

Twain/Hemingway lecture series to begin Jan. 26 at Chipola

Dr. Sarah Clemmons and the members of the Literature/Language Department announce a series of events celebrating the works of two of America's most acclaimed authors. Mark Twain died one hundred years ago, as noted with the recent publication of the first volume of his autobiography, and this July of 2011 will mark the fiftieth year since the passing of author Ernest Hemingway.

The first event will take place on Wednesday, January 26, at 10 a.m. in the Chipola Theatre, featuring theatre students performing scenes from Twain's "The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County." Twain's "The War Prayer" will also be performed as a dramatic reading.

Language Professor Dr. Mark Ebel will then present an engaging lecture on "Risk Taking," with an emphasis on the novels and short stories by Hemingway to include The Sun Also Rises, For Whom the Bell Tolls, A Farewell to Arms, and "The Short Happy Life of Francis Macomber."

Future events in the Lecture Series will take place at the same time and place on the following dates: February 23 – a mock trial based on a Hemingway story; March 23 – an oral interpretation of a different Hemingway story; and April 20 – presentations based on the works of either author by students from the Chipola Honors Program.

11. Jasmine Shaw led the Lady Indians with 20 points. Warner had 16 points. Green scored 13.

The Lady Indians are 16-6 and 2-2 in conference play. In the Jan. 18 FCCAA State women's poll, Pensacola (21-0, 4-0) is first. Northwest Florida State (17-3, 2-2) is second. Chipola (16-6, 2-2) is third. Gulf Coast (13-5, 2-2) is fourth. Tallahassee (11-6, 0-4) is sixth.

For the latest scores and stats, visit www.chipola.edu or call 718-2CJC.

Other departments on campus are incorporating various forms of emphasis on the authors and their works, as well. This semester of celebration will culminate with four different contests that offer prizes of $75 for first place and $50 for first runner-up. Contest details will be announced in a future issue of Chipola This Week. Anyone interested in participating in the mock trial should contact Dr. Mark Ebel or Professor Geraldine DeFelix by January 27. Professor Carol Saunders will coordinate the oral interpretation in March, and Professors Bonnie Smith and Robert Ivey will assist students and professors in planning honors presentations in April.
