Former Chipola Cheerleader is new dermatologist

Chipola College alumna and former cheerleader Dr. Shellie (Davis) Marks recently completed her Dermatology Residency at the University of Alabama at Birmingham where she served as Chief Resident. She recently joined Inverness Dermatology and Laser in Hoover, Alabama, a suburb of Birmingham.

Dr. Marks graduated with a 4.0 GPA from the University of Florida College of Agriculture and Life Sciences Honors Program with a degree in Food Science and Human Nutrition. She was awarded the 2002 University of Florida Golden Key International Honor Society Senior Academic Scholarship.

Dr. Marks received her medical degree from The Florida State University College of Medicine in 2006 where she graduated in the top of her class. While attending medical school, she was inducted into the Omicron Delta Kappa Leadership Honor Society. She was the recipient of the FSU College of Medicine Student Research Award, the John A. Johnson, MD Scholarship, and a Women's Dermatologic Society Medical Student Awareness Program Grant. After graduating from medical school, Dr. Marks completed her internship in Internal Medicine at the Medical College of Virginia where she received the Most Valuable Internal Medicine Resident Award in October 2006.

Dr. Marks spent a year performing research trials as the University of Alabama at Birmingham Department of Dermatology Clinical Research Fellow prior to starting her Dermatology Residency at UAB. She participated in numerous research studies focusing on treatments for psoriasis, onychomycosis, disseminated superficial actinic porokeratosis, and cutaneous candidiasis, among others. She has been published in multiple medical journals and continues to present lectures at local and national medical conferences.

Dr. Marks is a member of the American Academy of Dermatology, the American Society of Dermatologic Surgery, and the Women's Dermatologic Society.

Call for artists and authors

Calling all authors, painters, potters, photographers, jewelry designers, sculptors and other fine arts craftsmen 18 years old and older to enter the 7th Annual Sunday Afternoon with the Arts exhibit and reception at Chipola College. This year's reception is scheduled for November 6 from 1 to 5 p.m.

The exhibit has quickly become one of the premier art exhibits in the region featuring a variety of original work by over 60 artists. Last year's exhibitors came from as far away as Arizona, Panama City, Dothan and Tallahassee.

The exhibit reception hosts an average audience of over 400 people. This year's event will include several new and exciting features to be announced throughout the summer.

The exhibit and reception is sponsored by The Artists Guild of Northwest Florida, Inc. in partnership with the Chipola Regional Arts Association and the Fine and Performing Arts Department at Chipola College.

Local and regional artists and authors and Chipola College students are invited to plan now to participate in this year's event. The Entry Guidelines and Entry Form are on the Chipola College web site at www.chipola.edu - follow the links to the Fine Arts Department and to Sunday Afternoon with the Arts.

For more information about the fall event contact Judy Brooten at JDBrooten@aol.com or at 850- 209-5747.

Learning to care
