An Equal Access/Equal Opportunity Institution

Hilton is Chipola's Top Prof

Chipola College natural science professor Dr. David Hilton has been named the Faculty/Administrator/Other Professional of the Year at Chipola College.

Dr. Hilton has taught science courses at Chipola since 1997 and developed the Conservation Biology course to provide students with academic knowledge to appreciate and preserve the natural environment. He also serves as academic adviser for student-athletes.

The student body has selected Dr. Hilton to receive the Teacher of the Year and Distinguished Service awards numerous times. He also was chosen by his peers to receive the 2007 Kirkland Award for Excellence in Teaching.

Dr. Hilton is a member of the Chipola Faculty Association and the Chipola Council of Educators. He has served on several committees including: Budget Review and Development, Marketing and Recruitment, Intercollegiate Athletics, Alumni/Homecoming, Planning and Accountability and the Governance Council. He also has served as a Chipola Partner at Cottondale High School.

An anonymous student said of Dr. Hilton, "When you see Dr. Hilton lecturing, teaching, demonstrating and evaluating, you can look around the room and see the light bulb come on in the eyes of the young men and young women in his classes. He uses examples of everyday things and his own experiences to improve understanding and to trigger interest." An anonymous colleague noted, "Dr. Hilton is never satisfied with anything less than his best. He is continually revising and revamping his course to meet the ever-changing needs of student learners."

Cosmetology Cancer Survivor Day June 5

In observance of the Cancer Survivor Beauty and Support Day on Tuesday, June 5, the Chipola College Cosmetology program will join with other salon professionals nationwide to offer complimentary cosmetology services for cancer survivors and those living with cancer.

Cancer Survivor Beauty and Support Day was founded in 2003 by Barbara Paget. Each year, she recruits salons and cosmetology schools from 44 states to participate. Barbara was featured in the July 2011 issue of the Chicago Tribune for her volunteering spirit. "The real beauty of the day is the support that it gives to cancer survivors," says Barbara Paget.

Chipola Cosmetology instructor Paige Vanderwerf, says, "Chipola is participating in this event because we believe that community service is important to the success and growth of our stylists."

For more information on the Cancer Survivor Beauty and Support Day at Chipola, call 850-718-2439.
