Ivey wins Kirkland Teaching Award at Chipola

Chipola history professor Robert Ivey was chosen by his peers to receive the Kirkland Award for Excellence in Teaching.

Ivey has been teaching history classes at Chipola since 1993 but has been widely known as an educator for over 30 years. He holds a Bachelor's degree in History from the University of West Florida and a Master's degree from Troy State University.

In addition to teaching history and social science courses, Ivey as an adviser to the Chipola's Honors Program. As a member of the Ivey Brothers band, Robert performs at an annual dance to raise funds for the Honors program.

Ivey also supports the Social Sciences Department Film Series which he began several years ago as an innovative practice to foster critical thought and discussion. He also is well-known for organizing several trips to Europe over the years to introduce area students to other world cultures.

Ivey's peers nominated him based on his caring attitude towards the students. The colleague who nominated him said, "Robert is always professional and respectful in his relationships with students and is viewed by many to be a role model. He is a great asset to the college. He is positive and cooperative and is widely respected for his leadership."

The Kirkland Award was established by brothers, J.R. Kirkland and David Kirkland, in honor of their parents, Carolyn and the late Willis Kirkland of Marianna. The award provides $1,000 to the annual recipient.

Appreciation Club raises $20,000

Members of the Chipola Appreciation Club on Tuesday, May 24, recognized players and coaches on the state champion Chipola Baseball team and presented a ceremonial $20,000 check to college president Dr. Gene Prough to help with the team's trip to the national baseball tournament.

The Indians begin their quest for a second national baseball championship on May 29 in Grand Junction, CO.

Chipola will face Grayson College in the first round of the 2011 National Tournament on Sunday, May 29, at 8:30 p.m. (CST). Games from the week-long tournament will be broadcast on WJAQ 100.9 FM and will be available on the web at www.psblive.com. The official site of the national tournament is www.jucogj.org

Tax-deductible contributions to Chipola's national tournament efforts may be made payable to the Chipola Foundation and delivered or mailed to Chipola Foundation, 3094 Indian Circle, Marianna, FL 32446. For information, call 718-2451.
