Chipola AFC Scholars

The Chipola Chapter of the Association of Florida Colleges (AFC) recently awarded nine scholarships to children and grandchildren of college employees.

Since 1993, AFC has awarded over $139,000 to more than 100 students through Chipola's AFC Scholarship Endowment. AFC members raise funds through concession sales at college sports events and with an annual silent auction.

RESTAURANT SEMINAR SET

Chipola will offer a small business seminar "Restaurant Fundamentals" on Nov. 15.

Participants will learn to analyze food costs, develop a winning menu, incorporate cost-saving strategies, and loss prevention. These are tools specific to the food industry that are used by most business owners on a daily basis.

The seminar meets from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., in Room M-108 of the Chipola Business and Technology building. Cost is $15. The first six Chipola students to sign up receive free admission. Students should contact Elissa Severson at 718-2441 or sign up in person in Building M, Office 108. Participants may register online at www.northfloridabiz.com.

BOOK FAIR

Education majors Miranda Jordan of Bascom and Shannie Lockhart of Blountstown with some of the books available for sale.

The Chipola College Future Educators Club (FEC) will host a Scholastic Book Fair, Oct. 28 through Nov. 1.

The fair will take place in the new Teacher Education Building (O) from 8:30 to 4:30 daily.

FEC members are hosting the fair to promote literacy. Pre-K through 8th grade level books, of various genres and topics, will be for sale. Chipola students who work the book fair will earn credits to purchase books for collections in their future classrooms.

For information, contact Casey Bush at 850-718-2449.

WITHDRAWAL

Wednesday, Oct. 30, is the last day to withdraw from a class for the Fall Semester Term A. Students who stop attending a class will receive an "F" unless they withdraw. Withdrawal forms are available in Admissions and Records.
