

Tallahassee Ballet to open Chipola Artist Series, Sept. 19

The Tallahassee Ballet (TTB) brings its highly celebrated Afternoon of Music and Dance to Chipola College on Sunday, Sept. 19, at 2:30 p.m., in the first event of the 2010-11 Chipola Artist Series.

The concert will feature both classical and contemporary works from Bach to Broadway with live music under the artistic direction of Rick McCullough and the music direction of Deloisse Lima. Four acclaimed choreographers will present works to music by Bach, Chopin, Glass, Keating Adler, Schwartz and Orbison.

Choreographer Gerri Houlihan, from the Florida State University, is choreographing a piece entitled Mercy!. “Mercy!”, featuring popular songs by singer/songwriter Roy Orbison.

Choreographer Ken Alan appeared in the Broadway productions of A Chorus Line (Bobby), Fosse, the first national tours of Chicago, Fosse, and Grease!. Included in the TTB’s performance are two Broadway gems, “Who’s Got the Pain” from Damn Yankees, and the “Manson Trio” from Pippin. A third piece, “Big Noise,” features Alan’s choreography set in the Fosse style.

Lauren Slone, an FSU MFA student is choreographing a contemporary duet entitled It’s That Simple. Katy Cashin returns to TTB as a choreographer. Her piece “Catalyst” “has no story, but she says, “The objective was to focus on how patterns can be interwoven while simulating the music. It’s about the movement and what initiates it.”

The performance features live music by FSU musicians and costumes designed and executed by Ann Todd.

Individual tickets—$12 for adults and $8 for students under age of 18—are available in the Chipola Business Office. Season tickets for all four Artist Series events—$40—will be available through Sept. 19 in the McLendon Fine Arts Building.

For information, contact Joan Stadskev at 850-718-2301 or email stadskev@chipola.edu.

For individual tickets, call 718-2220.

Olympic softball players coming to Chipola College
