

Chipola students celebrate first service in new chapel

The first service in the new Chapel at Chipola College was held Sunday, Aug. 28. The chapel was donated by the C.C. Harrison family earlier this year.

A student praise team led the music, and Rev. Riley Henderson, pastor of St. Luke's Missionary Baptist Church, delivered a message.

Chipola Fellowship of Christian Athletes sponsor Dr. David Hilton, says, "The students in the praise band are committed to leading worship each Sunday, and we have speakers lined up through the month of September."

Hilton said he is hoping to enlist pastors or youth pastors to commit to a Sunday each month so they can rotate through each month in their preaching. Currently, services are set for Sunday nights at 8 p.m.

For information, contact Hilton at 526-2761, Ext. 3331, or email: hiltond@chipola.edu

The Tallahassee Ballet to open Chipola Artist Series, Sept. 19

The Tallahassee Ballet (TTB) brings its highly celebrated Afternoon of Music and Dance to Chipola College on Sunday, Sept. 19, at 2:30 p.m., in the first event of the 2010-11 Chipola Artist Series.

The concert will feature both classical and contemporary works from Bach to Broadway with live music under the artistic direction of Rick McCullough and the music direction of Deloise Lima. Four acclaimed choreographers will present works to music by Bach, Chopin, Glass, Keating Adler, Schwartz and Orbison.

Rick McCullough, TTB's Artistic Director, brings a wealth of choreographic talent to TTB's repertory. His choreographic awards include five fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts, second prize at the Tokyo International Choreography Competition and a gold medal at the Boston International Choreography Competition.

Choreographer Gerri Houlihan, from the Florida State University, began her professional career at the Juilliard School where she studied with Antony Tudor. She is choreographing a piece entitled Mercy!. "Mercy!, featuring popular songs by singer/songwriter Roy Orbison.

Choreographer Ken Alan appeared in the Broadway productions of A Chorus Line (Bobby), Fosse, the first national tours of Chicago, Fosse, and Grease!. Included in the TTB's performance are two Broadway gems, "Who's Got the Pain" from Damn Yankees, and the "Manson Trio" from Pippin, choreographed by the late Bob Fosse. A third piece, "Big Noise," features Alan's choreography set in the Fosse style. Alan will join the company on stage for the performance in addition to staging.

Lauren Slone, an FSU MFA student is choreographing a contemporary duet entitled It's That Simple. Sloan describes her piece, "Rather than re-visit passion in the traditional pas de deux format, I attempted to explore the playful/competitive aspects of a relationship. An essence of 'coyness' underscores the piece, as the dancers beautifully execute demanding movement vocabulary."

Katy Cashin returns to TTB as a choreographer. She grew up with The Tallahassee Ballet and performed many soloist roles. A recent graduate from SMU, four of her original works were produced while earning her degrees. She performed in master works including Arpino's Birthday Variations (soloist), Balanchine's Serenade (demi-soloist) and Bejart's Batucuda. Her piece "Catalyst" "has no story, but she says, "The objective was to focus on how patterns can be interwoven while simulating the music. It's about the movement and what initiates it."

The performance features live music by FSU musicians and costumes designed and executed by Ann Todd.

Individual tickets go on sale Sept. 7 at the Business Office located in the Student Services Building. Tickets are $12 for adults and $8 for students under age of 18. Season tickets for all four Artist Series events—$40—will be available through Sept. 19 in the McLendon Fine Arts Building.

For more information contact Joan Stadskev at 850-718-2301 or email stadskev@chipola.edu.

Sunday Afternoon with the Arts seeking exhibitors

The 6th Annual Sunday Afternoon with the Arts Reception and Exhibit at Chipola College, is seeking 2-D and 3-D artists for the fall show. The exhibit opens November 1 to 13, 2010. The annual Reception will be November 7 from 1 to 4 pm. As in year's past, the free to the public event will feature art demonstrations and activities in addition to music, refreshments, and an opportunity to meet local and regional artists.

Exhibit guidelines and applications are now available to all artists 18 years or older, throughout the region. Each artist may exhibit up to three pieces of art in any medium. Art must be original art or photography. Art must be appropriate for audiences of all ages. The exhibit committee reserves the right to determine what is acceptable.

There will be no entry fee. Deadline for entries is October 2.

For information or entry form contact: Debra Pelc Menacof (850) 482-8289, debimencof@embarqmail.com, or the Chipola website at www.chipola.edu under "Fine Arts".

The exhibit is sponsored by The Artists Guild of Northwest Florida in partnership with Chipola Regional Arts Association and Chipola College.

Auditions for "Dearly Departed" Tuesday at Chipola

Chipola College Theatre director Charles Sirmon will hold auditions for the Fall comedy, "Dearly Departed," Tuesday, Sept. 7 and Wednesday, Sept. 8, at 6 p.m. The play will run Nov. 4-7.

Not since "Steel Magnolias," has a more dysfunctional group of Southern eccentrics gathered below the Mason-Dixon. When the patriarch of the family keels over, the struggle to get him buried involves the whole clan, including the not-so-grieving widow who wants to put "Mean and Surly" on the tombstone. Audiences amused by "Greater Tuna," will enjoy this more ambitious trip down a rustic main street written by David Bottrell and Jessie Jones.

Chipola's Spring musical will be the smash hit, "Little Shop of Horrors," March 10-13.

Chipola's Summer children's show is Aesop's (Oh-So-Slightly Updated) Fables by Kim Esop-Wylie is May 12.

Theater fans are invited to join the ACT (Applauding Chipola Theatre) Fund. Benefits include advance ticket selection and VIP seating for all Chipola productions.

For information, call director Charles Sirmon, at 850-718-2227, or email: sirmonc@chipola.edu

FOOD COURT OFFERS.

The Food Court/Cafeteria located in the Student Center introduces several new offers for the upcoming year.

The Food Court now offers a complete line of catering services and can cater to groups as small as five to as many as 1000. From breakfast and lunch meetings, to casual social gatherings, to formal sit-down dinners, the Food Courts catering menu has selections that can meet any need. The new catering guide and menu can be found at www.chipola.edu/foodcourt.

Also new this year is meal plans and frequent diner discounts. Meal plans can be purchased on a monthly, half-semester, or full semester basis with plans for both breakfast and lunch or lunch only. The meal plans are available to students, faculty and staff. The Frequent Diner Program offers a great incentive to visit the cafeteria often. For every $50 you spend in the Food Court, you receive $5 credit to be used for whatever you choose.

New menu selections include hot lunches with meats and vegetables, soup, salad and baked potato bar, pizza and pasta bar, taco and nacho bar, made to order burgers and sandwiches, dessert bar, energy drinks, sodas, snacks and more.

For more information on catering or to purchase meal plans, contact Chef Michael Hussey at (850) 718-2415 or husseym@chipola.edu.
