Suntrust Atlanta CEO to speak at Chipola Honors Program

Chipola College graduate Gary Peacock, Jr., President and CEO of SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, will be the guest speaker at the Chipola Honors program, Friday, April 14, at 10 a.m., in Jackson Lecture Hall in the Chipola Literature/Language Building.

SunTrust Bank, Atlanta, is comprised of the metro Atlanta area, Gainesville and Athens, Georgia and operates a network of 221 offices and 359 ATM locations.

Peacock previously served as treasurer of SunTrust Banks, Inc. In this capacity, he was responsible for SunTrust's investment portfolio, short- and long-term funding, asset and liability management, liquidity management, funds transfer pricing, and economic capital business units.

Prior to being named treasurer, Peacock was director of investor relations and corporate communications. He began his career with SunTrust in July 2000 as the strategic finance officer for the retail line of business.

A 25 year veteran of the banking industry, he started his career with Barnett Banks, Inc., in Florida where he advised their community banks on strategy and marketing issues. Subsequently, he served as Chief Financial Officer and, later, Director of Retail Banking for one of the Company's metropolitan banks, Chairman, President and CEO for one of the Company's community banks, and Director of Mass Consumer Marketing for the bank holding company.

Peacock earned a bachelor's of science in finance from the University of Florida. He attended graduate school at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he earned his master's of business administration in finance. Peacock is a 1980 graduate of Marianna High School, and a 1982 graduate of Chipola College.

He is the son of Sandra Peacock and the late Gary Peacock, Sr., of Marianna.
