Frederick B. Peters endowment established by Chipola alumnus

Chipola College graduate Tom Gould recently returned to his alma mater to establish a scholarship endowment in honor of retired business instructor Frederick B. Peters.

Gould—whose retail clothing career included terms on the board of directors of Proffit's, Inc., which is now Saks, Inc.,—credits Peters for inspiring his success in business.

The Frederick B. Peters Scholarship Endowment will provide two annual scholarships to business majors who work while attending college. Gould asked that Peters and his family assist in the selection of annual recipients. The first two scholarships will be awarded in the Fall of 2006.

Gould made an initial $15,000 contribution with a commitment of $175,000 over the next 10 years. He said, "I'm happy to honor this man who was such an inspiration to me and others. Mr. Peters would look at us with those flashing blue eyes and motivate us and inspire us. I owe much of my business sense to him. I'm blessed to be able to make a contribution in honor of the man and to the college that helped me get where I am."

Peters taught accounting and business courses and also served as business manager at Chipola from 1957 to 1960, as professor from 1960 to 1965 and as chairman of the Business Division from 1968 to 1993. He said, "I am deeply moved by Tom's gesture of generosity in the name of someone who had such a small part in his education. Many former students have thanked me over the years, but Tom is the first to ever make such a tangible gesture."
