Chipola to present free Gilbert and Sullivan concert

Two of Chipola College's Ensembles will perform free concerts, Tuesday, April 4 at 7 p.m., in the Chipola Arts Center.

The 13-member Rock and Jazz Ensemble, under the directions of Dr. Allen Molineux, will play a variety of selections from the Swing Era, Rock Literature, and Latin rhythms. Each member of the Rock and Jazz Ensemble will be featured as a soloist during the concert.

The Chipola Chamber/Community Chorus will present A Gilbert and Sullivan Sampler Concert on the same evening. William.S. Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan were composers of 14 light operas called "op-erettas" in the late 19th Century and early 20th Century. The Chipola Chorus will feature brief selections from five of these: "Trial by Jury," "Pirates of Penzance," "H.M.S. Pinafore," "The Mikado," and "The Gondoliers." The British humor in these wonderful musicals is delightful and fun for all. Community members Hope Rister, Bette Giese, Timothy A. Jumonville, and Jeff Allen will be featured. Chipola soloists include Bradly Bunce, Tina Lester, Nick Melvin, Daniel Carter, and Scott Boyle and others.

The concert is free and open to the public. For information contact Dr. Lyon at 850-718-2221 or Dr. Molineux at 850-718-2257.

Spring Frolics and SGA Elections slated for Wednesday at Chipola Pool

Spring Frolics will be Wednesday, April 5 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Chipola Pool or Health Center, in case of rain. Students will be excused from their classes to participate in this fun event!

SGA has some great activities lined up including soft play blow up games. There will be music and hotdogs and hamburgers for everyone! We will have some great door prizes to give out at lunch. You must be present to win. There should be several universities displaying recruiting tables for people that are interested.

There will be a match up between clubs in a relay competition to see which club rules.

The SGA Spring Elections will also be held at Spring Frolics, as well as voting for The Distinguished Service Award for a Faculty Member and The Distinguished Service Award for a Career Employee or Administrator. If you are interested in running for an SGA position, come by the Student Activities Office, (K-104) and pick up the information. The deadline to apply is Monday, April 3.

Everything is FREE, so come join the fun! Questions, call 718-2308 or come by the Student Activities Office, K-104.

Core Ensemble to present “Tres Vidas” at Chipola

The Core Ensemble will present “Tres Vidas” at Chipola College, April 3, at 7:30 p.m.

The sold out concert is the final event of the 2005-06 Chipola Artist Series.

Consisting of cello, piano, and percussion, Core Ensemble will perform the new music theatre piece, Tres Vidas (Three Lives). The work celebrates the lives of three powerful Latin American women: Mexican painter Frida Kahlo, Salvadoran peasant-activist Rufina Amaya, and Argentine poet Alfonsina Storni. Tres Vidas features a script by award-winning Chilean writer Marjorie Agosin. Actress Georgina Corbo will portray all three protagonists with the Core Ensemble onstage. The trio also will perform popular and folkloric music from a variety of Latin cultures.

The Chipola Artist Series is funded through Chipola’s Performing Arts Fund, with grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Southern Arts Federation, the Florida Division of Cultural Affairs, the Chipola Regional Arts Association and corporate donors.

Spanish film/lecture series set at Chipola

The events are free and open to the public and will be held in Jackson Lecture Hall of the Chipola Literature/Language Building. A lecture and slide presentation, “Translation and Triage: Lessons Learned from a Medical Mission to Honduras.” second event—set for April 11, from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m.—is The presentation chronicles Dr. Ebel’s recent mission to the South American country. Ebel presented a paper on the mission and served as a panelist on Health and Society in Latin America at the recent annual professional meeting of SCOLAS (Southwest Council on Latin American Studies).

The final event in the series is a lecture: “Traveling to Cuba: Is It Possible?” and a film, “Carros de Cuba,” Tuesday, April 18, from 4:30 to 6 p.m. The lecture will provide practical information for traveling to Cuba and a documentary film with a light-hearted theme: the presence and maintenance of classic American cars in Cuba. The film is mostly in Spanish with English subtitles.

For information, call Dr. Ebel, at 850-718-2282.

Latin Cultures Art on display at Chipola

Children in brilliantly colored costumes, llamas with charming, curious expressions and beautifully-painted landscapes and still life all are part of the Latin Cultures Art Exhibit at the Chipola College Arts Center on display through April 4.

The exhibit continues the theme of the Celebration of Latin Cultures as artists from Bonifay, Blountstown, Panama City and Marianna share their work and the work of their family members now through April 4. Exhibit hours are 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday and Tuesday.

Chilean artist Maria Bohme, honors her mother and daughter's art in this special exhibit. Peruvian artist Edmundo Vilca displays his realistic portraits of children in native costumes and Marianna artist Nancy Zurenda shares the joy and pride she feels for her beloved llamas as illustrated in her oil animal portraits.

Gloria Taylor and Sherry O'Connor share their Mexican roots and love for art with original works, as well as some Taylor family heirlooms. Kathy Wycoff and Anna Gitana Layton demonstrate their gift of capturing the essence of the culture in portraits of Hispanic and South American people.

The Latin Cultures Exhibit will be open for Artist Series ticket holders after the performance by Core Ensemble of "Tres Vidas" at Chipola on April 3.

For information, call 718-2301.
