

Summer Registration begins April 10; new classes added to schedule

Chipola College officials have revamped the Summer Schedule to provide more classes at more convenient times as well as new classes that extend from Summer I to Summer II.

Several new classes and times have been added to both terms. More than 30 evening courses and six distance learning courses are available during the two six-week summer sessions.

Several classes—including ENC 1101, ENC 1102 and Humanities and French—have been extended to run for 12 weeks rather than 6.

Summer I classes begin May 8. Summer II classes begin June 25. Currently-enrolled students may register for both summer terms, April 10 through April 20. Current students with 30 or more hours may register Tuesday, April 10. Current students with one or more hour may register April 11 through April 20.

For added convenience, counselors will be available from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., Tuesday, April 10 and Tuesday, April 17. Online registration also is available April 10-20 for students who qualify.

Fees for early registration must be paid by April 24. Scholarship recipients should contact the Business Office by April 24 to declare fee payment method. Students from Georgia and Alabama pay in-state tuition.

New students planning to enroll in summer classes are encouraged to apply by the April 20 deadline for Summer Session I. Applications for Admission are available in the Admissions Office located in the Student Service Building or on-line at www.chipola.edu

Chipola offers the Associate in Arts Degree, the Associate in Science Degree, Workforce Development programs and Bachelor of Science Degrees in Secondary and Middle School Education with majors in Math and Science.

Business majors are encouraged to contact the college for information on a new Bachelor's of Applied Science degree in Business Management slated to begin in January of 2008. Application deadline for new students planning to enroll in summer classes is April 20.

New students who take at least one class during either summer term may register early for Fall 2007 classes.

The new Summer Schedule is available online at www.chipola.edu. For information, call 850- 718-2211.

Chipola opens Academic Center for Excellence

Chipola student Ricky Baker gets help from ACE tutor Brandy Blighton. An open house for the ACE is scheduled for Tuesday, April 17, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Chipola College recently opened the Academic Center for Excellence (ACE), a full-service lab designed to help students succeed in their college courses.

The ACE offers individual tutoring, test-prep sessions for specific courses, study group organization, study skills development and high-speed computers with course software. Supplemental instruction also is available for students in high risk courses including Earth Science (GLY 1001) and Intermediate Algebra (MAT 1033).

The ACE is located in Building L directly behind the new Student Services/ Administration building. Hours are Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Friday from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

League-leading Indians host three at home this week

The Chipola Indians baseball team hosts three big home games this week, including: North Florida, Saturday, April 7, at 1 p.m.; OW, Tuesday, April 10 at 5 p.m.; and Gulf Coast, Saturday, April 14, at 1 p.m.

As of April 5, Chipola leads the Panhandle Conference race with a 13-2 mark. OW is 7-7. Gulf Coast, TCC and PJC are tied at 6-8.

The Indians improved to 25-13 and 13-2 in league play after defeating North Florida 12-2 on April 5.

The Indians swept Pensacola in a pair of games, April 1 and 3. Chipola won a 14-10 slugfest over Pensacola on April 3. Chipola's Tom Hatcher had a three-run homer, to put the Indians up 5-4 after trailing 3-0 early. Hatcher also had a two-run single later in the game to log five RBI's 5 on the day.

Lou Green picked up his first collegiate win after relieving Tyler Musslewhite in the fourth. Josh Storm came on in the ninth to get his second save in two days.

The Indians beat Pensacola on 5-3 on April 1. Daniel Jones got the win with seven complete innings. Josh Storm came in to get the save. Einar Atencio had three hits for Chipola.

The Indians finished a three game sweep of Okaloosa-Walton with an 11-2 win in 7 innings on March 31. Starting pitcher Brett Wiggins threw five scoreless innings, before giving up a two-run homer in the sixth to finish a complete game in the seventh.

Tom Hatcher led Chipola's offense with a two-run homer in the first. Daniel Renfro hit a grand slam in the fifth. Jesus Barroso hit his first career homerun in the sixth to put the Indians up 11-2.

Lady Indians top national polls for second week

The Chipola College Lady Indians moved into first place in the Panhandle Conference and held onto the top spot in the NJCAA Division I Softball rankings for the second consecutive week.

The Indians took control of the NJCAA poll last week when they jumped over pre-season No. 1 Pima Community College. Chipola received 80 total poll points and four first place votes to claim the top spot.

Region 8 (Florida) has a stronghold on the NJCAA poll as three of the top five teams hail from the region: Chipola (1), Manatee (3) and Gulf Coast (5).

Chipola moved into first place in the conference April 5 with a pair of 8-0 mercy rule wins over the Lady Commodores. The Lady Indians improved to 10-2 in the Conference ahead of Gulf Coast at 9-3. As of April 5, TCC (5-5) is third. PJC and OW are both 4-6. Chipola took home three wins last week to improve their record to 36-5-1. The Indians swept Tallahassee on March 28 in a twin-bill 8-3 and 4-0, but then lost the first game of a doubleheader against Pensacola on March 31 by a score of 5-1.

The Lady Indians bounced back and took the second game by a score of 12-0.

Chipola has two players that rank in the Top 20 in the NJCAA in batting average: Sara Lovstrand (.511) and Martina Landrum (.506). The Lady Indians are 11th in team batting average with a .379 mark.

The Lady Indians finish out the conference season on the road before returning home to host Darton College on April 25.
