

Chipola This Week

August 24 - 30, 2009

An Equal Access/Equal Opportunity Institution

A newsletter for Chipola College students, employees, and friends

Late registration continues at Chipola

Fall semester classes at Chipola College begin Aug. 24 with late registration continuing through noon on Friday, Aug. 28.

Students who missed regular registration also may choose to enroll in Fall Term C which begins Oct. 15.

Three different terms are offered during the Fall semester. Terms A and B both begin Aug. 24. Term A runs Aug. 24 through Dec. 16. Term B classes are Aug. 24 through Oct. 15. Term C runs Oct. 16 through Dec 16.

Chipola's open-door policy guarantees acceptance to any student with a standard high school diploma or its equivalent.

Chipola offers day and evening courses, as well as independent study and online courses. Chipola has expanded its offerings to include more than 40 individual programs, including BS, AA, AS, AAS, Workforce Certificates and Continuing Education programs.

The college offers eight Bachelor of Science (BS) degree programs, including: Business Management, Elementary Education, Mathematics Education (5-9 or 6-12), Science Education (5-9 or 6-12), Exceptional Student Education and RN to BSN in Nursing. The Educator Preparation Institute (EPI) offers Teacher Certification for those with a B.S. in a non-teaching field.

The majority of Chipola students are enrolled in the Associate in Arts (AA) Degree program designed for students who plan to complete their first two years of college work at Chipola and then transfer to a four year program at Chipola or another college. Credits earned are transferable and are applicable toward a bachelor's degree. Academic plans for specific majors are available on the college website at www.chipola.edu.

Registration continues throughout the Fall semester for several Workforce Development Certificate programs. These include: Automotive Service Technology, Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA), Computer Systems Technology, Correctional Officer, Cosmetology, Corrections, Firefighting and Law Enforcement.

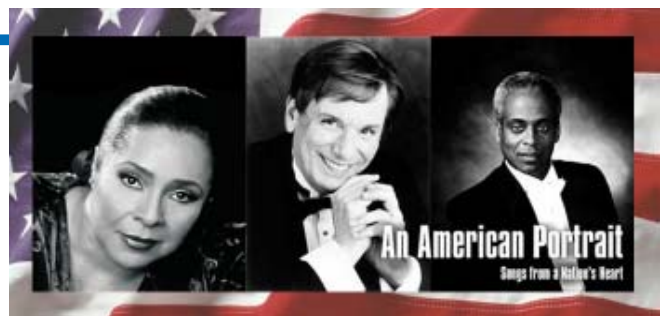

Chipola Artist Series season tickets on sale

Season tickets for the 2009-10 Chipola Artist Series are on sale now in the Chipola College Business Office.

The highly-acclaimed four-event series opens Sept. 10 with "An American Portrait: On Wings of Freedom" at 7 p.m. An American Portrait celebrates two centuries of American milestones as our country's story is told through the songs that united and inspired its people.

From songs celebrating the joy of newfound independence to the laments that expressed our pain, the show features the battle cries that tore us apart and the inspirational songs that reconciled us. Audience members will be treated to our nation's diverse regions through the music that captures their essence. The finale is pure patriotism as America's most beloved anthems are performed with eloquence and majesty.

This stirring, evocative homage to our homeland comes alive through the legendary piano work of Mac Frampton and the powerful voices of Sam Hagan and Dawn Marie.

"Celebrating the Season," is Thursday, Dec. 10. Perfect for the holiday season, the show features Chipola music faculty who will delight the audience with their musicianship, skill, and showmanship. Featuring Dr. Josh Martin, piano; Dr. Daniel Powell, saxophone; Dr. Christine Yoshikawa, piano; Bethany Kiral and Angie White, voice; and Andrew Stroud, guitar, the performers will present classical to modern literature and music of the season.

"Cantus" one of America's finest professional male vocal ensembles will perform Feb. 1, 2010. Cantus maintains a vigorous schedule of national tours, subscription concerts in its home of Minneapolis and Saint Paul, as well as educational outreach programs and recording. The Washington Post hails the ensemble's sound as having both "exalting finesse" and "expressive power," and refers to their music-making as "spontaneous grace." The ensemble is known for adventurous programming spanning many periods and genres, including chant, Renaissance music, contemporary works, art song, folk, spirituals, world music and pop.

Sarah Geller, violinist, will perform March 18, 2010. Geller is described as possessing "the simple, poised, confident stage presence of a seasoned performer," is highly regarded from coast to coast for captivating audiences with her intriguing programming. As a winner of the Artists' International Special Presentation Award, Geller made her Carnegie Hall solo recital debut in 2002 and in 2004 presented a recital on their Alumni Series at New York's Merkin Concert Hall. Geller performs a wide variety of music from Latin American and flamenco treasures to traditional favorites and unknown gems of mainstream composers. She serves as artist-in-residence at Munson Williams Proctor Arts Institute and as guest artist at Georgetown University.

The Chipola Artist Series is funded through Chipola's Performing Arts Fund, with grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Southern Arts Federation, the Florida Division of Cultural Affairs, the Chipola Regional Arts Association and corporate donors.

Season tickets—$40 for all four events—include same seat reserved seats and "Meet The Artist" receptions sponsored by Tyndall Federal Credit Union, Bank of Bonifay, First Capital Bank and Regions Bank. Season ticket holders also get a subscription to the CRAA arts calendar.

A limited number of individual event tickets—$12 for adults and $8 for ages 18 and under—will be available prior to each performance at the Chipola Business Office.

For performance information, contact Joan Stadskev at 850-718-2301 or stadskev@chipola.edu.

Tickets are available in the college Business Office, located in the Student Services Building, or by phoning 850-718-2220.

Chipola auditions set for 'Musical Comedy Murders of 1940'

Chipola College Theatre will hold open auditions, Sept. 8 and 9, for "The Musical Comedy Murders of 1940." Auditions begin at 6 p.m. each night in the college theatre.

Performances of the show are set for Nov. 5-9.

This ingenious and wildly comic romp enjoyed a long and critically-hailed run both on and Off-Broadway. Poking fun at the more ridiculous aspects of "show biz" and the corny thrillers of Hollywood's heyday, the play is a non-stop barrage of laughter as those assembled (or at least those who aren't killed off) untangle the mystery of the "Stage Door Slasher."

The mystery is solved in the nick of time, but not before the audience has been treated to a sidesplitting good time.

For information, call Theatre director Charles Sirmon at 850-718-2227, or email sirmons@chipola.edu

Governor appoints three to Chipola Board of Trustees

Governor Charlie Crist on Aug. 3 announced the following reappointments and appointment to the Chipola College District Board of Trustees, pending confirmation by the Florida Senate.

Dr. Leisa H. Bailey, 48, of Bonifay, self-employed physician, succeeding Brenda Taylor, appointed for a term beginning August 3, 2009, and ending May 31, 2013.

Daniel E. Ryals III, 57, of Altha, self-employed real estate broker, reappointed for a term beginning August 3, 2009, and ending May 31, 2013.

Virginia "Gina" Stuart, 65, of Marianna, self-employed real estate broker, reappointed for a term beginning August 3, 2009, and ending May 31, 2013.

Nine trustees—appointed by the Florida Governor—represent Chipola's five-county district on the board. They include: John Padgett, Gina Stuart and Jeff Crawford of Jackson County, Gary Clark and Jan Page of Washington County, Dr. Leisa Bailey and Bob Jones of Holmes County, Danny Ryals of Calhoun County and Mark Plummer of Liberty County.

The board meets on the third Tuesday of each month to set policy for the college.
