December 4 - 10, 2006

An Equal Access/Equal Opportunity Institution

A newsletter for Chipola College students, employees, and friends

Prepare now for Spring Registration at Chipola

Registration for the 2007 Spring Semester at Chipola College is Jan. 3 for returning students and Jan. 4 for new students. Classes begin Jan. 5.

Chipola's open-door policy allows any student with a high school diploma to enroll after completing an application and providing high school or college transcripts. New student application deadline for the Spring semester is Monday, Dec. 4.

Chipola offers college credit courses during the day and evening, and also online and through independent study. The college awards the Associate in Arts (AA) degree which guarantees acceptance to Florida's public universities. Chipola also offers Bachelor's degree programs in Secondary Education and Middle School Education with majors in Mathematics or Science. Chipola also offers several Associate in Science (AS) programs, as well as a number of Workforce Development programs which provide training for high wage jobs.

Chipola's University Center provides opportunities for students to pursue a number of bachelor's and graduate degrees from FSU, UWF and Troy on the Chipola campus.

For more information, call the Chipola Registration Office at 718-2211, or visit Chipola at www.chipola.edu

Chipola student Amanda West studies for finals at the college. New student application deadline for the Spring semester is Monday, Dec. 4. The Chipola College Indians host third ranked Santa Fe, Friday, Dec. 1, at 8 p.m., in the Panhandle Classic, in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center.

The Indians also play Daytona Beach at 8 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 2.

Panhandle fans will have a chance to see all five men's team in action beginning with Pensacola and ABAC at noon on Friday, Dec. 1. Gulf Coast meets Alabama Southern in the 2 p.m. game. Top-ranked Tallahassee will face Daytona in the 4 p.m. game and OW will play South Georgia Tech in the 6 p.m. game on Friday.

Saturday's action begins with Gulf Coast and ABAC at noon. Pensacola and Alabama Southern tie up at 2 p.m. Tallahassee plays South GA Tech at 4 p.m. OW meets Santa Fe at 6 p.m. Saturday, followed by Chipola and Daytona in the 8 p.m. nightcap.

The classic is sponsored in part by the Jackson County Tourist Development Council.

The Chipola Indians are the number one team in the state and national polls following five big wins over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Chipola received 159 total points and 15 of 16 first place ballots to remain in the No. 1 post in the NJCAA Men's Division I Basketball Poll for the second consecutive week. Okaloosa-Walton (7-1) is the only other Florida team in the national poll at number 19.

Chipola also tops the state FCCAA Poll which includes four Panhandle Conference teams. OW is second in the FCCAA poll. Santa Fe (6-0) is third. Tallahassee (6-3) is sixth, and Pensacola (6-2) is ninth in the state poll.

The Indians improved to 9-0 on the season with a hard fought win 88-75 win over Palm Beach on Nov. 29

Chipola trailed by as many as 18 in the first half, but Victor Dubovitsky kept the Indians in the contest with 17 first half points. He went on to score 15 in the second period to lead the Indians with 32 on the night. Deandre Thomas scored 18.

Chipola coach Greg Heiar, said, "I was really pleased with our effort in the second half. We showed a lot of poise and composure to come out in the second half and take control of the game."

The Indians scored a 59-53 victory over Miami Dade on Nov. 28. Chipola jumped out with a 21-8 run, but led by only three at the half. Jamarcus Ellis led Chipola with 19 points and 9 rebounds. DeAndrea Thomas had 17 points and 9 rebounds. Johnnie Harris got into early foul trouble and 6'8 Victor Dubovitsky fouled out with 6 minutes remaining. The Indians trailed 49-48 with 4 minutes to play, but went on to outscore Miami 11-4 in the final minutes.

Chipola scored a 90-82 win over Georgia Perimeter on Nov. 25 in the Rick Flores Classic at OW. Jamarcus Ellis led with 29 points, including 6 free throws. Dubovitsky had 21 points. Mario Little added 13. The Indians were up 50-44 at the half and led by as many as 16 in the second period, but Perimeter tied the game with 3 minutes remaining. Jamarcus Ellis scored 12 points including 6 free throws in the last 3 minutes to secure the Indians' victory.

Chipola head coach Greg Heiar said, "I really give Perimeter a lot of credit. They played extremely hard and really pressured us and we responded. I thought our bench played really well."

Chipola also scored a big 88-68 win over Chattahoochee Valley, Nov. 24. Michael Vogler led Chipola with 14 points. Thomas scored 13. Johnnie Harris and Mario Edwards scored 12 points apiece. Ellis scored 11 and Mario Little added 10.

Chipola Director visits Broadway

Sirmon visited backstage with his former New York roommate and Chorus Line Wardrobe Supervisor Rory Powers (right) along with Broadway performer Tyler Hanes (center).

"Chorus Line" became the longest running musical in Broadway history after 6,137 performances and is back on the great white way for the first revival.

Sirmon spends as much time as possible visiting New York, studying and networking with Broadway professionals.

"After each visit and every performance my love of the theater and the arts seems to get stronger and having friends on Broadway gives me a real inside look at the profession and something I can share with my students" says Sirmon.

Sirmon also was recently named an Outstanding American Teacher by the National Honor Roll, an award developed to recognize educators who have made a positive difference in the lives of their students.

Sirmon continues to share his devotion and knowledge of the theater as an FCCAA Theatre adjudicator and a Kennedy Center ACTF respondent throughout Florida.
