Chipola to hold auditions for spring musical

Chipola College Theatre will hold open auditions for the spring musical "How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying," Jan. 14 and 15 at 6 p.m.

Singers, dancers and actors ages 16 and up are needed. No experience is necessary.

The 1961 musical opened with an initial run of 1,417 performances. With music and lyrics by Frank Loesser and book by Abe Burrows, Jack Weinstock, and Willie Gilbert, the show won seven Tony Awards and the 1962 Pulitzer Prize for Drama. In 1967, it was produced as a film by United Artists, with many of the original cast recreating their roles.

Matthew Broderick (Ferris Bueller's Day Off) won a Tony for the highly-regarded 1995 revival which also starred Megan Mullally.

The musical runs March 12-16 in the Chipola Theatre.

For information, contact Charles Sirmon, Director of theatre at 850-718-2227.

duPont helps Chipola College

Robert E. Nedley, president of the Alfred I. duPont Foundation, Inc., (left) recently presented a check for $60,000 to Chipola College president Dr. Gene Prough (center) and Chipola Foundation Director Julie Fuqua. The donation will be used to fund scholarships and other special projects at the college. The Alfred I. duPont Foundation supports numerous educational institutions and charitable causes throughout the southeast.

Chipola to offer Nursing Assistant class

Application deadline for Chipola College's Certified Nursing Assistant program is Jan. 22.

Applicants must submit an application, questionnaire and TABE test scores by this date.

This CNA program is designed to prepare Certified Nursing Assistant students for employment as nursing assistants, or to provide supplemental training for persons previously or currently employed in these occupations.

Upon completion, the graduate will be prepared to care for patients in the hospital or nursing home.

The 120-hour program will meet Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Classroom meetings will take place on the college campus, with clinical experiences in Marianna health facilities.

The class will be limited to 24 students. Upon completion of the course, students will be eligible to take the NACE (Nursing Assistant Certification Exam), written and clinical, for a fee of $93.

Financial Aid may be available through One-Stop, Chipola Foundation or Workforce Development.

For information, call 850-718-2316.

Chipola hoopsters in conference play

The top-ranked Chipola Indians (19-0, 1-0) host Okaloosa-Walton, Saturday, Jan. 12, in a pair of big conference basketball matchups. The women tip off at 5:30 p.m. and the men play at 7:30 p.m.

Chipola's 2007 National Champion Baseball and Softball teams will be honored at two championship ring ceremonies during Saturday's games. Both national champion teams will gather for a reunion at 4 p.m. (CST) in the Continuing Education building.

In the men's basketball battle, OW enters the game at (15-1, 1-0) after defeating Gulf Coast 73-62 on Jan. 5. The Indians enter the second round of league play with a perfect (19-0) record and ranked first in the state and national polls.

The undefeated Indians opened conference play with an 86-58 win over Tallahassee. Chipola sophomore Mario Little scored a game high 22 points and pulled down five rebounds. Gary Flowers added 21 points and 10 rebounds, "I thought our depth was an important factor in tonight's game," said Chipola coach Greg Heiar. "We came out wanting to attack them and utilize our bench."

For the second year in a row, the Chipola Indians entered Conference play with an unblemished record. The Indians cruised to an 18-0 record with a 93-34 win over St. Lawrence of Canada on Dec. 31.

Coach Heiar, said "All of our guys work extremely hard, and I'm glad that they had an opportunity to help us get to eighteen wins."

Chipola's toughest test of the pre-conference schedule was an 88-87 overtime victory over Palm Beach. Casey Mitchell scored 26 making six consecutive 3-pointers on seven possessions to bring the Indians back to life.

The Indians lead the state in team offense and team defense, averaging 93.6 points per game and allowing only 61.7 points.

Sophomore Mario Little leads the Indians with 15.85 points per game. He is also averaging 3.4 assists per game and shooting 59% from the floor.

LADY INDIANS

The Chipola Lady Indians enter the OW game at 1-1 in the conference following an 85-51 win over North Florida on Jan. 8. Lesheria Stevens and Kikwiki Mamuku led Chipola with 16 points apiece. Ashley McCray scored 14 and Jamia Akins added 13. The win pushes Chipola 15-2 overall.

Chipola lost the conference opener at Tallahassee, 66-47, on Jan. 5. Ashley McCray led Chipola with 17 points. The Lady Indians were plagued by turnovers and shot only 25 percent from the field.

In other first round conference games, Gulf Coast defeated OW, 90-67, and Pensacola defeated North Florida, 76-43.

The Lady Indians opened the New Year with a 75-64 win over South Georgia Tech on Jan. 2. Chipola led 33-19 at the half. Latoya Williams led Chipola with 24 points. Lesheria Stevens had 14 and Jamia Akins had 11. Gekeela Clemmons and Ashley McCray scored 10 apiece.

The Lady Indians are ranked third in the FCCAA poll behind top-ranked Gulf Coast and second place Santa Fe. OW is fifth. TCC is sixth and Pensacola is eighth.

Chipola was sixth in the final NJCAA national poll of 2007. Gulf Coast led the NJCAA poll and OW was number 15.

Chipola's Latoya Williams was named FCCAA Women's Basketball Player of the Week for the last week of December. Williams led the Lady Indians to a hard-fought 63-57 road victory at Georgia Perimeter on Dec. 14. Williams had a double-double with 29 points and 13 rebounds.

The Lady Indians are the defending state champions having won the state title three years straight. The squad finished fifth in the 2007 national tourney.

As a team, the Lady Indians are averaging 74 points per game, and giving up only 56 points per contest.

Both Chipola squads host Gulf Coast on Tuesday, Jan. 15, in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center.

'Pop! Go the Classics' to open 2008 Chipola Artist Series

Tickets for the Chipola College Artists Series event "Pop! Go The Classics" go on sale, Monday, Jan. 14, in the college Business Office.

Starring Mac Frampton and the ThreePenny Symphony, "Pop! Go The Classics" is set for Thursday, Jan. 24, at 7 p.m., in the Chipola theatre.

The performance showcases celebrated pianist and arranger Mac Frampton in a production that merges his conservatory training with his mastery of the pop and jazz idioms and original interpretations of revered classical works. Frampton has built a library of innovative arrangements based on classical themes in such as works as "Pictures at an Exhibition," Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C# Minor," "Flight of the Bumblebee." Bach, Chopin, and of course, Gershwin are featured in this evening of classical music with a twist of pop.

Upcoming performances in the Chipola Artist series include: "Strata," classical trio, Feb. 19; and Proteus 7, Brass Ensemble, March 25.

The Artist Series is funded through Chipola's Performing Arts Fund, with grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Southern Arts Federation, the Florida Division of Cultural Affairs, the Chipola Regional Arts Association and corporate donors.

For information call the Chipola business office at 718-2204.
