

Chipola This Week

January 3 - 8, 2006

An Equal Access/Equal Opportunity Institution

A newsletter for Chipola College students, employees, and friends

Prepare now for Spring Registration

Registration for the Spring Semester at Chipola College is Jan. 3 for returning students and Jan. 4 for new students. Classes begin Jan. 5.

Chipola's open-door policy allows any student with a high school diploma to enroll after completing an application and providing high school or college transcripts.

Chipola offers college credit courses during the day and evening, and also online and through independent study. The college awards the Associate in Arts (AA) degree which guarantees acceptance to Florida's public universities. Chipola also offers Bachelor's degree programs in Secondary Education with majors in Mathematics or Science. Chipola also offers several Associate in Science (AS) programs, as well as a number of Workforce Development programs which provide training for high wage jobs.

Chipola's University Center provides opportunities for students to pursue a number of bachelor's and graduate degrees from FSU, UWF and Troy on the Chipola campus.

For more information, call the Chipola Registration Office at 718-2211, or visit Chipola on the web at www.chipola.edu

Chipola helps with Mississippi Toy Drive

Donofro & Associates add to Chipola scholarship

The firm of Paul A. Donofro & Associates recently made an additional contribution to the Paul A. Donofro & Associates Architects Scholarship Endowment at Chipola College. Here, Paul Donofro, Jr., presents a check to Chipola Foundation Director Julie Fuqua. The first scholarship will be awarded in August of 2006. Applications will be available in late February. Architecture majors will receive first consideration for the scholarship, followed by Visual Arts majors. Applicants must be residents of the Chipola five-county district and have a minimum 2.5 high school GPA.

International pianist to play Chipola theatre

The Chipola Artist Series presents Pianist Nadejda Vlaeva Tuesday, Jan. 17, 2006, in the Chipola College Theater.

Vlaeva was born in Sofia, Bulgaria, and began playing piano at age five. She has performed in concerts internationally, giving solo recitals in Bulgaria, Russia, Slovakia, Hungary, The Netherlands, Spain, England, Canada, Barbados and in the U.S.

She also has appeared as a soloist with the Budapest Symphony, the Calgary Philharmonic, The Capella Istropolitana in Slovakia, the Edinburgh Symphony and with various orchestras in Bulgaria and Holland. Included among her major awards are the First Prize and Gold Medal at the Liszt competition in Lucca, Italy; and the Yamaha Award for the best interpretation of Brahms, in Weimar. Vlaeva gave her New York debut in the Carnegie Weill Recital Hall in the year 2000.

Tickets—$12 for adults and $8 for ages 18 and under—go on sale Jan. 3 in the Chipola Business Office.

The Core Ensemble will present "Tres Vidas" April 3 in the final offering of the 2005-06 Artist Series.

The series is funded through Chipola's Performing Arts Fund, with grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Southern Arts Federation, the Florida Division of Cultural Affairs, the Chipola Regional Arts Association and corporate donors.

For ticket information, call the Business Office at 718-2220.

Chipola Show Choir Jazzmatazz is Jan. 12-14

Chipola College's award-winning Show Choir will present Jazzmatazz 2006: Design of the Decades in the Chipola Theatre, Jan. 12, 13, and 14, 2006, at 7 p.m. nightly.

The high energy show will feature musical highlights from the 50's to the present.

Jazzmatazz tickets make great stocking stuffers if you hurry. The college is closed for the holidays Dec. 16 through Jan. 2.

Tickets for this annual show are available from Show Choir members beginning Dec. 1. Tickets also are available at 718-2277 or 718-2301.

Chipola cheerleaders to host extravaganza

Chipola's annual Cheerleading Extravaganza is scheduled for Feb. 4, 2006.

The event begins at 9 a.m. at the Milton Johnson Health Center, with participating squads coming at 8:30 a.m. for the warm-up session prior to the competition.

Two new competition divisions have been added this year: Straight Cheer and Straight Dance (no tumbling or stunts).

Complete rules and information can be accessed at the Chipola website: www.chipola.edu by clicking on "Athletics" and then "Cheerleaders."

For more information, call 718-2322, or 482-1333.

SOFTBALL RAFFLE. The Chipola Softball team is selling raffle tickets to help fund their trip to the Arizona tournament this year. Tickets are $10 and can be purchased from any softball player or by calling Coach Hendrix at 718-2358. Prizes include two passes to the Talladega race, grill and smoker, autographed baseball items, camouflage clothing, and more.

NEW ID CARDS. Beginning Spring Semester 2006, students must acquire new Chipola ID cards. The ID card has been redesigned to eliminate the bar code and the use of the social security number. The new card is already being used; after December, the old card will no longer be valid. In the future, new ID cards will be required each academic year.

Chipola board chairman Danny Ryals and college president Dr. Gene Prough recently presented plaques of appreciation to Dr. Sarah Clemmons, Dr. Kitty Myers and Gail Hartzog for their leadership during the SACS accreditation project of 2005. Chipola College was affirmed in good standing with SACS on Dec. 6.
