— A newsletter for Chipola Junior College students, employees, and friends —

Spring 2003 registration continues at Chipola

Late registration for the Spring Semester at Chipola continues through noon on Thursday, Jan. 9.

Chipola’s open-door policy allows any student with a high school diploma to enroll after completing an application and providing high school or college transcripts.

Chipola offers hundreds of college credit courses during the day and evening, and also online and through independent study. Some two-dozen independent study courses on videotape are available in most academic areas. Students are required to visit campus for an orientation session, examinations and to borrow videotapes.

Three online courses are also available this semester: ENC 1102 (Communications Skills II), EME 2040 (Introduction to Educational Technology), CGS 1100 (Microcomputer Applications) and CGS 1060 (Introduction to Microcomputer Use).

Chipola offers the Associate in Arts (AA) degree that guarantees acceptance to Florida’s public universities. CJC also offers several Associate in Science (AS) programs, as well as a number of Workforce Development programs which provide training for high wage jobs.

The University Center @ Chipola provides opportunities for students to pursue a number of bachelor’s and graduate degrees on the CJC campus.

Persons employed with the State of Florida can apply for a special tuition waiver which pays for up to six semester hours per term. Employees wishing to take advantage of the waiver must register on Jan. 9. A Tuition Waiver Application is available in the CJC Registrar’s Office.

Alabama and Georgia students will enjoy a reduction in tuition at CJC beginning this semester. Students from the two states will now pay $53.50 per semester hour for academic courses and only 90 cents extra for workforce fees. Students should complete a residency affidavit, available in the Admissions and Registration Office, prior to registration.

For more information, call the CJC Registration Office at 718-2211, or visit Chipola on the web at www.chipola.edu.

Soprano Alison England to perform at CJC

Soprano Alison England hits the Chipola Junior College stage Tuesday, Jan. 21, to open the 2003 portion of the Chipola Artist Series.

Tickets—$12 for adults, $8 for ages 18 and under, and $4 for current CJC students—go on sale in the CJC Business Office, Jan. 7.

England’s one woman show Opera, B’Way & Beyond includes selections from Romeo & Juliet, Carmen, South Pacific, Carousel, The King and I, My Fair Lady, Phantom of the Opera, Easter Parade and many others.

England recently finished her second season as a featured operatic artist on ABC’s Dharma & Greg. She can be seen in Sky-Tel’s national commercial as “Brunnhilde,” and is sought after as a recitalist and artist-in-residence around the country. Her debut album Harp & Soul is due for release this year.

The stellar singer/actress/comedi- enne has starred at Lincoln Center, Kennedy Center, The Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, Orange County Performing Arts Center and Ambassador Auditorium. She has appeared with the Los Angeles, Miami, Honolulu, Miami and Redlands Symphonies and has sung leading roles with the Seattle, Miami, St. Louis, Long Beach and Kansas City Operas. She has starred in “The Sound of Music,” “The King & I,” “Hello Dolly.”

The Artist Series is funded through Chipola’s Performing Arts Fund, and with grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Southern Arts Federation, the Florida Division of Cultural Affairs, the Chipola Regional Arts Association, and corporate donors.

For ticket information, call the CJC Business Office at 718-2220.

The CJC Show Choir has invited the Marianna High Show Choir for a guest appearance. The first half will conclude with both show choirs on the CJC stage.

The second half of the show will be a rollicking tribute to the South, “Made in the South and Proud of It!”

Tickets—$10 for general admission and $4 for students—are available from any Show Choir member or from the main office in the McLendon Fine Arts Building. CJC students and employees are entitled to one comp ticket. Sellout performances are expected.

For information, contact Dr. Ed Lyon at 850-718-2221.

Chipola Theatre announces auditions for Big River

The Chipola Junior College Theater will hold open auditions for the stage musical Big River, Monday, Jan. 6 and Tuesday, Jan. 7, at 6 p.m.

Director Charles Sirmon is on the lookout for talented men and women in the local area. “Voices and characters are very important in this show, but it does not rely on heavy choreography as have my past few musicals at CJC,” said Sirmon.

Twain’s timeless classic sweeps the audience down the mighty Mississippi as the irrepressible Huck Finn helps his friend Jim, a slave, escape to freedom at the mouth of the Ohio River. Their adventures along the way are hilarious, suspenseful and heartwarming, bringing to life favorite characters from the novel.

Propelled by an award winning score from Roger Miller, the king of country music, this jaunting journey provides a brilliantly theatrical celebration of pure Americana. Big River won seven Tony Awards including Best Musical, Score and Book.

For more information, contact Sirmon at 850-718-2227.
Chipola opens conference season Wednesday

Both Chipola basketball squads open the conference season at home on Wednesday, Jan. 8, when they host Tallahassee. The women’s game tips off at 5:30 p.m. The men play at 7:30 p.m.

CJC was scheduled to play non-conference opponents Seminole and Broward in the Florida Junior College Shootout in Ocala, Jan. 3 and 4.

The Indians have played their last 12 games without the help of starting point guard Nick Williams, a pre-season All American transfer from Kansas State. Coach Cross, said, “We’re hoping to only have to play these next two without him. Most likely we’ll have him back for conference play. I think Nick will give us a little bit of a boost and get us back to playing the way we need to play.”

For the latest scores, call the CJC Hotline at 718-2CJC or check out the CJC website at www.chipola.edu.
