Chipola auto program earns NATEF recertification-

The Chipola College Automotive Technology Program recently completed recertification as a National Automotive Technician Education Foundation (NATEF) program.

NATEF is part of (ASE) the National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence. The non-profit group was established in 1972 by the automotive industry to improve the quality of vehicle repair and service through the voluntary testing and certification of automotive repair technicians. NATEF is responsible for the program evaluation process, and makes recommendations for ASE program certification based on the evaluation.

NATEF representative Gary McClain conducted the review of Chipola's program working with three local automotive industry representatives Matt Cox and Julian Williams from Chipola Ford and Rusty Lawrence from Ray's Garage. The team reviewed 50 rigorous national standards dealing with every aspect of the Chipola program, including curriculum, shop, students and safety. NATEF certified the Chipola program in the following areas: Automatic Transmission and Transaxle, Brakes, Electrical Electronic Systems, Engine Performance, Engine Repair, Heating and Air Conditioning, Manual Drive Train and Axles, and Suspension and Steering.

Listed among Chipola's program strengths were: instruction, curriculum, shop tools and equipment, use of latest technology and safety practices.

McClain said, "Overall the (Chipola) program was very well-organized and the curriculum was outstanding."

Automotive instructor John Gardner said, "We are indebted to our local advisory committee and the local automotive industry both of which make this national certification possible."

Chipola announces Performing Arts Camp for ages 8-12

Registration deadline is July 7 for Chipola College's first-ever performing arts camp for ages 8-12.

The two week camp will focus on acting, dancing, singing, audition techniques, voice, diction, and performance etiquette. The camp will run Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., the weeks of July 17-27.

Registration will be held at the Chipola Arts Center Thursday, July 6, from 4 to 7 p.m. Registration forms may be postmarked by July 1.

Cost is $195 early registration. Late registration is $220.

The camp will culminate in a performance for family members on Thursday, July 27, at 12:15 p.m. in the Chipola Theatre.

The camp will be taught by Joan Stadskev, Chipola Director of Fine and Performing Arts Department and Angela White, assistant director for the Chipola Show Choir and former director of the Marianna High Show Choir. Chipola theatre majors Felicia Gibson and Michael John Milton also will serve as instructors.

For information, contact Stadskev at 850-718-2301.

Joan Stadskev, Director of Chipola College's Fine and Performing Arts Department, was recently honored and thanked by the Chipola Regional Arts Association for her "skill, style, and love of bringing the arts to all" throughout her many years of cultural service to the area.
