A newsletter for Chipola College students, employees, and friends

Chipola College mathematics instructor Irma Cruz-White has been selected as a Dolciani-Halloran Foundation Project NExT Fellow for 2004-05. Project NExT (New Experiences in Teaching) is a year-long professional development program for new or recent Ph.D.'s in the mathematical sciences. The project addresses the full range of faculty responsibilities in teaching, research, and service. Some 60 new faculty from across the nation were chosen this year as Project NExT Fellows.

Cruz-White will participate in Workshops at the Mathematical Association of America meeting, August 12-14, in Providence, RI. She also will attend the Joint Mathematics Meetings in Atlanta in January of 2005, and the MAA Mathfest in Albuquerque, NM, in August of 2005. The Chipola instructor also will be part of an Electronic Network which links Project NExT fellows with one another and with distinguished teachers of mathematics.

Cruz-White teaches undergraduate math courses in Chipola’s new bachelor’s degree in secondary Mathematics education. Prior to coming to Chipola, she was a teaching assistant at Florida State University. She earned a Ph. D. in Biomedical Mathematics and a Master’s Degree in Mathematics at FSU. She earned a BS in Mathematics and Computer Science at the University of Puerto Rico, Humacao Campus.

Student trainer scholarships available

Application deadline is July 10 for Student Trainer scholarships available at Chipola College in the Fall of 2004.

All students are welcome to apply. Preference will be given to individuals from Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty and Washington counties interested in entering the allied health fields or certified trainer programs. Offspring of educators or allied health professionals are also preferred.

Applicants must have a 3.5 high school GPA and maintain a 2.8 college GPA. Student trainers will receive partial tuition and books.

Applicants must submit a Chipola Foundation fellowship application to: C. David Farrar, Chipola College, 3094 Indian Circle, Marianna, FL, 32446. Two letters of recommendation must accompany the application. Applications must be postmarked on or before July 10.

Six student trainers will be selected and must enroll in a first aid and safety course, and principles of prevention and care of athletic injuries during the Fall 2004 Semester. Trainers will serve under the direction of the Chipola Athletics Trainer. Trainers will have daily responsibilities similar to the expectations of student athletes on scholarship. Some weekend work and team travel will be necessary.

For information, call David Farrar at 850-718-2462.
