

UWF Social Work program to hold information session at CJC

The UWF Social Work program at Chipola Junior College will hold an information session for prospective students, Monday, June 23, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. in Building L, Room 100 on the CJC campus.

The session will address program requirements, admissions procedures, financial aid and degree planning. Students can complete the degree on the CJC campus without ever traveling to Pensacola. CJC program coordinator Sherri Stone and Dr. Bonnie Bedics, chair of the UWF Social Work department, will be on hand to answer questions.

Program coordinator Sherri Stone, said, "A degree in social work can prepare you for a career in a wide variety of fields including: hospitals, hospice, corrections, education, community planning, family safety, mental health, substance abuse, domestic violence, developmental disabilities, adoption, foster care, family counseling and many more. Not many other degrees allow you to change fields of service without having to return to school."

Stone said persons who currently work for a social service agency but do not have a social work degree, may be required to return to school to complete specialized training.

For information, call Sherri Stone at 526-2761, Ext. 3365, or Joan Lasseter, at 718-2276.

Local artist's work on display at CJC

Local artist John Dunaway will present an exhibition of his works in a one-man show in the Chipola Arts Center through July 1.

Dunaway has been drawing and painting since he was a young boy. He attended Chipola majoring in art under art instructor Richard Vail. According to Dunaway, "I am inspired by the works of Van Gogh, Monet, and Picasso, and these inspirations show up in my work. Additionally, I like the history, myths, and legends of the aboriginal tribes of North, Central and South America, and incorporate those themes in many of my works. I also enjoy abstract geometric forms, and mix thick textured brush strokes with cubist or abstract themes."

Dunaway paints on canvas, and also paints on cow and deer skulls, alligator and snapping turtle shells, and designs artistic and exotic wooden walking staffs. He says, "I hope the public will enjoy my work."

Born in Sarasota in 1958, he has lived in Jackson County for the past 30 years. Of his many siblings one is the acclaimed Oscar winning actress Faye Dunaway. He was involved in a very serious car accident in 1980 which resulted in paralysis and life as a paraplegic. His art is his center and focus.

The exhibit may be viewed Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. through July 1. Group visits are encouraged.

Late registration for Summer II classes

Summer Session II classes at Chipola Junior College begin Monday, June 23. Late registration for the six-weeks summer term continues through noon on Tuesday, June 24.

Graduating high school seniors who enroll in Summer II classes will be allowed to register early for Fall classes. Chipola's open-door policy guarantees acceptance to any student with a high school diploma. Prospective students should complete an application-available in the Registration Office-and provide an official high school or college transcript.

Summer II Classes begin June 23 Late Registration thru June 24

Chipola offers hundreds of day and evening college credit courses leading to the Associate in Arts Degree. The AA guarantees acceptance to the junior year at Florida's public universities. Independent study and online classes also are available.

The University Center @ Chipola provides opportunities for students to pursue a number of bachelor's and advanced degree programs on the CJC campus.

For information, call the CJC Registration Office at 718-2211.

PEANUT SCHOLARSHIP.

The Florida Peanut Producers Association announces their 2003 Scholarship Program.

Two $1,200 scholarships will be awarded to deserving high school seniors and/or college students. The winners must be the son or daughter of an actively producing peanut grower, not necessarily a member of the FPPA.

For an application contact the FPPA office at 2741 Penn Ave, Suite 1 Marianna, FL 32448 or call (850) 526-2590.

Applications must be post-marked no later than July 1.

PARKING REMINDER. White and unpainted spots are for students. Green parking spots are for CJC employees. Red designates fire lanes and blue is for disabled persons.

CJC Parking Services will issue parking tickets. Parking fines are $5 and up, if paid within 24 hours. Students are required to display CJC parking decals. Failure to pay fines will result in a hold on registration and student records.

CHIPOLA THANKS. Chipola Junior College president Dr. Gene Prough recently presented a framed print of the college to Robert Nedley, president of the Alfred I. DuPont Foundation in Port St. Joe. The presentation was made in appreciation of the DuPont Foundation's many years of support of Chipola's programs.

SUCCESS CENTER. The Success Center will be closed Summer Session II.

FACC wants your gently used items

FACC will be sponsoring a yard sale September 5-6 in the Arts Center. Donations of gently used items in good, clean condition are needed. Items can be brought in on Thursday, September 4.

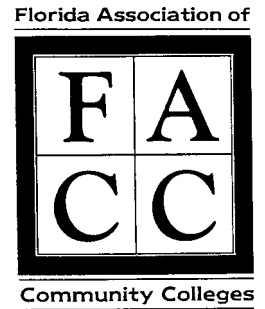

All monies raised will go toward the FACC Scholarship Fund.

Everyone is asked to clean out their closets, garages, and hiding places and donate the items to the sale, so we can continue providing scholarships for our children.

If you have any questions, please contact Kim Collins, Dana Johnson or myself. Thanks again for your continued support.
