Chipola alumnus graduates from USF med school

Chipola College alumnus Cherra Pumphrey recently graduated from the University of South Florida College of Medicine.

Pumphrey begins a three-year residency in Internal Medicine at the University of Tennessee Medical Center in Knoxville later this month.

Pumphrey shadowed Marianna doctors Dr. Rick Brunner and Dr. Joe Gay while she was a student at Chipola. She said both doctors were instrumental in helping her to earn the Jackson Hospital Physician Recruitment Program stipend in 2001. After residency she hopes to return to Jackson County to practice medicine.

Pumphrey is the daughter of Tommy and Marilyn Pumphrey of Marianna. A 1997 valedictorian of Marianna High, she was a Florida Academic Scholar who received American Legion Auxiliary and Brain Bowl Scholarships at Chipola. She graduated Summa Cum Laude from Chipola in 1999, and was awarded the President's Medallion (4.0 GPA). While at Chipola, she was chosen for the All-Florida Academic First Team, for the All-USA Academic First Team, and as a Phi Theta Kappa Guistwhite Scholar. She was inducted into the Chipola College Academic Hall of Fame in 2003.

When asked about her experience at Chipola, Pumphrey said, "I think it was excellent. I'm very glad I chose Chipola. The faculty members with whom I had the pleasure of working gave me a lot of personal attention. I felt very prepared when I transferred to FSU."

Pumphrey graduated Cum Laude from Florida State University in 2001, with a Bachelor of Science degree in biochemistry and minors in mathematics and biology. At FSU, she was inducted into the Golden Key and Phi Beta Kappa Honor Societies.

Pumphrey served clinical rotations at Tampa General, James A. Haley Veterans' Administration Hospital, H. Lee Moffitt Cancer Center, All Children's Hospital and Bay Pines Veterans' Administration Hospital. She performed volunteer service at the Judeo-Christian Clinic, the Shriner's Hospital for Children, and the Moffitt Cancer Center Hope Lodge. During the summer of 2002, she worked as an Area Health Education Center Interdisciplinary Community Health Scholar for the Mantee County Health Department

She recently co-authored a case report, entitled, "Patient with Funnel Chest and Cough," in collaboration with three USF physi-

Prepare for Summer II registration

Registration for Summer Session II at Chipola College is Thursday, June 23. Classes begin Monday, June 27.

Recent high school graduates and other students who enroll in Summer II classes earn the right to register early for Fall 2005 classes.

Chipola's open-door policy guarantees acceptance to any student with a standard high school diploma. Prospective students should complete a college application which is available in the Office of Admissions and Records located in Room 112 in Building L, or online at www.chipola.edu. Students also must provide an official high school or college transcript.

Chipola offers day and evening college credit courses, as well as independent study and online courses.

For information, call the Admissions and Records Office at 718-2211.

Chipola Theatre majors working at Seaside

Three outstanding theater majors from Chipola College are spending their summer working with the Seaside Repertory Theatre in beautiful Seaside, Florida.

Local audiences will remember Melody Ruano from Sanford, Florida.

Melody was seen in Chipola's past six mainstage shows including the lead in "Anything Goes." Melody recently graduated in May

Chipola seeks applications for EMT

Chipola College is now accepting applications for an upcoming Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) training program.

The EMT program prepares students for employment as ambulance drivers/ambulance attendants, or emergency medical technicians and to treat various medical/trauma conditions.

The curriculum includes simulated learning and clinical study. The 11 credit-hour course is 250 clock-hours in length. Cost is approximately $1,000 for tuition, insurance, books and uniforms. EVOC (Emergency Vehicle Operation) is not included in the course. Clinical assignments are required in addition to regular class hours.

Application deadline is July 20. Candidate interviews are scheduled for July 26. Classes begin Aug. 2. The class will meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6 to 10 p.m. with some week-end classes.

For information, call 850-718-2316.

cians. The article will be published in an upcoming issue of the medical journal Consultant.

Pumphrey participated in the USF chapters of the: American Medical Association, Florida Medical Association, Hillsborough County Medical Association, American Medical Student Association, Christian Medical/Dental Association, and American Medical Women's Association.

Pumphrey said, "I'm thankful to the Lord for enabling me to fulfill my lifelong dream and goal of becoming a medical doctor. And I'm thankful to family and friends for their love, support, encouragement and prayers."

with honors from Chipola College and with an AA in theatre. Melody can be seen this summer in "The Fisherman and His Wife" at Seaside.

Chipola theatre major Josh Barber of Cottdale is serving as Assistant Stage Manager for the Seaside production, "Sylvia." Josh played the role of Lelio in "The Romancers." Jessie Williams, a Chipola technical theatre student is also serving as technical assistant at Seaside.

Charles Sirmon, Director of Theatre at Chipola, says he has worked to establish a relationship with the local professional Seaside Repertory Theatre. "After visiting the area and seeing the shows they produced I was very excited about being some part of a wonderful group." Sirmon had the chance to meet long-time Seaside inhabitant, Craig Hoover, founder of Seaside Repertory. The directors began a friendship that led to a summer outreach for some lucky Chipola Theatre Majors. Sirmon says, "Craig called and said they were looking for interns for the professional summer program. So I immediately got in touch with some talented students."

The award-winning Chipola Theatre produces three major shows a year and provides technical training for some 20 theatre majors.
