

'Proteus 7' to perform March 25 for Chipola Artist Series

Proteus 7 will perform favorites from Bach to Bacharach, Tuesday, March 25, in the final offering of the 2008 Chipola College Artist Series.

A limited number of tickets—$12 for adults and $8 for ages 18 and under—are on sale in the Chipola Business Office.

Proteus 7—a group of brass, winds and percussion—breathes new life into music with their dynamic, free-ranging approach with an eclectic mix of music from Bernstein's Candide to West Side Story and the Pink Panther.

Members of Proteus 7 perform on Broadway and record for television and motion pictures and have been nominated for Emmy and Grammy awards. All have played with major symphony orchestras throughout the world. Their programs are as diverse as their individual talents, balancing intricate works of Baroque masters in tandem with contemporary classical and jazz counterparts, plus everything in between.

Trumpeter and Emmy award-winning composer Anthony DiLorenzo has performed as soloist with the New York Philharmonic,

Chipola plays Tuesday in NJCAA National Tournament

The Chipola College men's basketball program has eleven national tournament appearances—more than any other Florida community college team—but the national title has eluded the Indians for 61 years.

Chipola (29-1) has a great opportunity to finish on top this year. The Indians play unranked Seward County (KS) in the first round of the National NJCAA Men's Tournament, Tuesday, March 18, at 8:30 p.m. (CST).

Chipola will need four wins to bring home the national championship trophy. The title game is set for Saturday, March 22, at 8 p.m.

Chipola captured its fourth Florida/Region VIII championship in the last five seasons with an 89-78 win over Okaloosa-Walton on March 8.

The Indians are led by Panhandle Player of the Year Mario

Little, who also won tournament MVP honors with 24 points in the title game. He will play at the University of Kansas next season.

Seward captured the NJCAA Region VI championship with a 71-61 win over Cowley College. Seward is led by sophomore Darko Cohadarevic (tournament MVP) who scored 25 points on 11-of-17 shooting and 10 rebounds.

Chipola finished runner-up in the 2007 National Tournament, matching the Indians' other second place finish in 1975.

Tournament information is available at <http://www.njcaabbtrny.org/> All Chipola games will be broadcast on WJAQ-100.9 FM in Marianna. The broadcast may be accessed via internet through a link on www.chipola.edu

The Indians will depart from the Milton H. Johnson Health Center, Saturday, March 15, at 10 a.m. The team will travel by bus to Atlanta for a Sunday morning flight to Wichita, KS.

Chipola arts scholarships announced

Scholarship audition dates and deadlines for music, art, theatre, show choir and jazz band at Chipola College for 2008-2009 academic year have been announced.

Music and Theatre Scholarship Audition dates are March 20, and April 24. Visual Art Application and portfolio deadline is April 18. High School graduates with acceptable academic records and music, theatre, and art aptitude who plan to pursue studies as music, theatre or art majors are eligible to apply for scholarships.

Scholarships also are available for Show Choir, Jazz Band, and Chamber Chorus.

Show Choir auditions are Tuesday, April 22, at 4 p.m. in the Chipola Arts Center. Students wishing to be considered for scholarship consideration in the Jazz Band and/or Chamber Chorus should contact Joan Stadslev, Director of Fine and Performing Arts.

Scholarships in various amounts, up to full tuition and fees, are awarded on the basis of talent and academic record. Students with financial need may seek additional assistance through the college's Office of Financial Aid and the Chipola Foundation.

Applications for art, music, theatre, and Show Choir may be obtained by phoning 850-718-2277 or 850-718-2301, or stadslevj@chipola.edu. Applications are available on the college web site: www.chipola.edu by going to Departments and clicking on "Fine and Performing Arts."

Students tapped for math honorary

The Chipola College Chapter of Mu Alpha Theta Honorary Mathematical Society recently inducted new members.

Mu Alpha Theta is a national honorary mathematics club for students who have maintained a "B" average in at least two math courses above the level of College Algebra and who have an overall "B" average in all college work. Most of the new initiates plan to major in engineering or pre-med.

Chipola to host cultural celebration

The Chipola College Social and Behavioral Sciences Department will host a "Cultural Celebration!" event, Wednesday, April 16, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., in front of the Milton H. Johnson Health Center on College Street.

Dr. Willie Spires, Director of the Social and Behavioral Sciences department, said, "The purpose of the event is to increase awareness of the many diverse cultures in our world as we become more global within the many sociological institutions."

Students in Spires' Contemporary Sociology course are highlighting the seven continents by selecting various cultures within their continent. There will be entertainment including music, dancing, and marital arts demonstrations to illustrate each of the cultures along with displays of various cultures.

For the inaugural year, the Chipola students are inviting the community and the sixth grade classes from the surrounding counties.

"Chipola students are very enthusiastic about this event," said, Dr. Spires. "The visiting students and other guests will gain an invaluable cultural and educational experience in a fun way. We plan to make this an annual event."

Community members or cultural groups interested in participating, should contact Angela Paul at pitbull_charm@yahoo.com or Jonathan Sober at collegeboundjds@yahoo.com.

Educator's Workshop help at Chipola

Some 20 area teachers and students attended a recent workshop hosted by the Chipola College Future Educator's Club (FEC).

Chipola's teacher education students and faculty presented activities for teachers to use in their classrooms. The workshop centered on mathematics and science; however, all activities displayed could be adapted to any classroom.

Chipola students presenting included Kari Adams, Nathan Day, Rachel Edminson, Chris Eby, Lori Holland, Stephanie McIntosh, Amanda Mullins, Danny Rutherford, Jessica Sloan and Debbie Yglesia. FEC president, Amanda Mullins, said, "Participants surveyed enjoyed the workshops and gave many suggestions for future topics."

The FEC plans to hold the workshop annually to provide in-service points for area teachers.

Chipola offers the following bachelor's degrees in education: Elementary Education, Exceptional Student Education, Middle School Mathematics Education (5-9), Mathematics Education (6-12), Middle School General Science Education (5-9), Biology Education (6-12).

Chipola education majors interested in joining the FEC, or anyone interested in earning a bachelor's degree, may call 850-718-2492.

Dockery and Walker are 3-point champs

Tallahassee photographer's work on display at Chipola

An exhibit entitled, "Through my Looking Glass" by Tallahassee photographer Michele Beaudin will be displayed March 17 through April 28 in the gallery of the McLendon Fine Arts Building.

The exhibit is open weekdays, from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Beaudin's award-winning photography and extensive collection of published articles have a presence in three continents. While she spent many years working and living abroad, she now shares her time between Florida and Alabama.

As a writer and photographer, Beaudin has been documenting her own adventures as well as her family and friends' lives on camera since she was a child. While pursuing a career in international business and technology, she freelanced as a photo-journalist for various newspapers and magazines. Her recent experience in Africa, as part of the Peace Corps, served as an inspiration to dedicate her life creating and sharing beauty as a professional artist.

A three-time mother and five-time grandmother, Michèle is an active member of the art community and of organizations, such as the League of Women Voters. She also volunteers as a Guardian ad Litem for children in dependency cases.

Her work can be seen in her gallery at: www.immiges.com

Soap writer Jane Atkins speaks at Chipola
