Chipola to host State Student Development Meeting

Chipola will host the Florida Association of Community Colleges Student Development Commission Spring Practitioners Conference May 15-17.

Some 100 community college professionals who work in counseling, advising, testing and other areas of student services are expected to attend.

The Student Development Commission is the branch of FACC that provides a network for employees to share successes in student development to better serve students in Florida's 28 community colleges.

CJC counselor Lindsay Roach, Student Development Commission chair says, "The excitement at Chipola grows each day the Spring Conference draws closer. We look forward to hosting our colleagues and showcasing our beautiful campus."

This year's theme is "Cultivating Connections for Student Success." Dr. David Schjott of Okaloosa-Walton Community College will deliver the keynote address at Wednesday's opening session, set for 4 p.m., in Jackson Hall of Building Z. An orientation for first-time attendees is set for 2:30 p.m, Wednesday. Chipola Presi-

Snoopy is Thursday at Chipola

The children's musical Snoopy will be presented Thursday, May 16 at 7 p.m. in the Chipola Junior College Theater.

Tickets are on sale at the Chipola Junior College business office.

Director Charles Sirmon leads the large cast, including Christopher Bishop as Charlie Brown, Erin Davis as Lucy, Amber Williams as Peppermint Patty, Mavis Flowers as Snoopy, Arthur Obar III as Linus, Nikki Howell as Woodstock, Lacy Purvis as Little Red-Headed Girl, Alyson Hartzog and former FACC State President Dr. Dale O'Daniel will host a Wednesday evening reception at his home.

Concurrent sessions Thursday will include True Colors at Work, Effective Ways to Manage Stress, Financial Aid Changes, CLEP Update, Show Me the Money and Am I Buggin' Ya Yet?

Friday's activities will feature four Exemplary Practice presentations. Joan Miller, Chipola Dean of Students, will highlight "Chipola's Annual Counselor Appreciation Day," a program for high school counselors, which is part of Chipola's Annual Senior Day event.

Participants will choose from a number of educational excursions including Florida Caverns State Park, golfing, canoeing on the Chipola River and an Historical Tour of Antebellum Homes.

FACC is a statewide organization open to all employees, retirees and trustees of Florida's 28 public community colleges. FACC provides professional development opportunities for its members and represents the interests of community colleges before the Florida Legislature.

as Fredia, Ben Ayers as Schroder and Cheryl Tyus as Sally.

The crew includes Chris Manasco, choreographer; Mario Gonzalez, sound; Jennifer Burgess, lights; and Jenny Parmer, stage assistant.

The musical will be presented to hundreds of elementary school students during several daytime performances.

Indians capture second place in State Tourney

The CJC Indians captured second place in the State Junior College Baseball Tournament Thursday, May 9 at Space Coast Stadium in Melbourne.

Chipola defeated Pensacola Junior College 1-0 in the semi-final round on Thursday. Kyle Pawelczyk was the winning pitcher. Ricardo Nanita hit a sacrifice fly to drive in Joey Wilson in the bottom of the eighth for the win. The win put the Indians in the championship game with Manatee with after only a 30-minute break. The heat proved too much for the Indians as they lost to Manatee 8-0 to finish the tournament in second place.

Chipola beat Manatee 7-2 on May 8 to advance to the semi-finals. Manatee, which had the longest string of victories, got a bye into the championship game. The Indians lost a second round game to Manatee, 8-7 on May 6.

Alford wins Kirkland Award

Math instructor Brenda Alford was chosen by her peers to receive the Kirkland Award for Excellence in Teaching at Chipola Junior College.

Alford teaches Developmental, Intermediate and College Algebra courses. She is a member of the Council of Chipola Educators and the Florida Association of Community Colleges. She represents the faculty on the Governance Council, serves on the Financial Aid/Appeals Committee and presently is chair of the Marketing and Recruitment Committee.

Alford is a member of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, Delta Kappa Gamma, a professional fraternity for women educators, and is a Sunday School teacher and choir member at the First Methodist Church of Bonifay where she currently serves as Church Lay Leader. An alumna of Chipola, she has two grown children, Nan and Will, who also attended CJC.

The Kirkland Award was endowed 13 years ago by brothers J. R. and David Kirkland in honor of their parents Carolyn and the late Willis Kirkland of Marianna. The award provides $1,000 to the recipient. Previous winners include faculty emeriti Donald Holley, Don Adams, Peggy Register, Charlene Lord and Lonnie Keene, former instructor Jean Taylor and current instructors Paul Huang, Dr. Stephen Shimmel, Mary McClendon, Nancy Burns, Dr. Lou Cleveland and Dr. Bill Brievogel.

Things You Might Not Have Known

The term "devil's advocate" comes from the Roman Catholic church. When deciding if someone should be sainted, a devil's advocate is always appointed to give an alternative view.
