Chipola College Theatre Department presents

The Romancers

The Chipola Theater production of the Children's play, "The Romancers," is set for Thursday, May 12, at 7 p.m., in the Chipola Theater. General admission tickets—$5—go on sale April 28 in the college Business Office.

The comedy is based on the book by Edmon Rostand. Chipola director Charles Sirmon, says, "This hilarious show draws from Rostand's main plotline and infuses it with characters, scenarios and a commedia dell'arte performance style which originated in the streets during the early Italian Renaissance." According to Sirmon, the Italian street performers used acrobatic skills and physical comedy to help establish commedia as a genre of theatre in the mid-1500s.

For ticket information, call 718-2204.

Aim high Nu Chi

"Phi Theta Kappa, how do you feel? We feel good! Oh, so good! Ugh!" This slogan was heard throughout the week during the 87th Phi Theta Kappa International Convention in Dallas, TX from April 12-17. Chipola College's Nu Chi chapter was represented by advisers: Dr. Kitty Myers and Joan Lasseter, and members: Paige Rentz, Brandon Sasser, Lauren Eade, Summer Zick, Ashley Melzer, Michelle Rhynes, Joy Post, Cassie Prichard, Stacey Hall, Kimberly Garske, Rebecca Carter, and Mark Jumper.

At the conference Nu Chi's 2005-06 officer team attended the Officer Academy where they learned about teambuilding, leadership, scholarship, fellowship, and service to help the chapter continue to be a great impact on their campus and community. At the aca-demical marketplace the chapter sold t-shirts to support the Relay for Life team.

Lauren Eade, Paige Rentz, and Brandon Sasser were awarded the Guistwhite Scholarship, which awarded them $5000 in scholarships each. Eade and Rentz both received $11,000 in other scholarships. Waylon Lewis was recognized internationally with the Distinguished Chapter President Award.

The Nu Chi chapter was awarded Most Distinguished Chapter in the Florida region and received Hallmark awards for scholarship, leadership, service and fellowship. Ashley Melzer won second place, Nota Bene Award and Chris Shaw won second place in the speech contest at the Florida conference.
