Summer classes begin Tuesday at Chipola

Registration for Summer Session I classes is Monday, May 7, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Classes begin Tuesday, May 8. Late registration continues through noon on May 9. Online registration is available for students who qualify.

College officials have added classes at more convenient times as well as new classes that extend from Summer I to Summer II. More than 30 evening courses and six distance learning courses are available during the two six-week summer sessions. Several classes—including ENC 1101, ENC 1102, Humanities and French—have been extended to run for 12 weeks rather than 6.

Students who take at least one summer class may register early for Fall 2007 classes.

Applications for Admission are available in the Admissions Office located in the Student Service Building or on-line at www.chipola.edu

Business majors are encouraged to contact the college for information on a new Bachelor's of Applied Science degree in Business Management slated to begin in January of 2008.

For information, call 718-2211, or view the new Summer Schedule online at www.chipola.edu.
