Chipola partners with Daimler Chrysler

Daimler Chrysler, Inc., has partnered with the Chipola College Automotive Technology program to provide factory training for the Southern region dealerships in Alabama, Florida and Georgia.

Daimler Chrysler recently conducted a three-day class at Chipola which covered electrical systems on three of the company's hottest new vehicles—Caliber, Compass and Patriot.

Chipola Automotive instructor John Gardner, said, "John Pforte of the Marianna Bob Pforte Motors was a key player in arranging the training. Also, our National Automotive Education Foundation (NATEF) certification was a must. This partnership will put us on top of Daimler Chrysler's list for donations of new vehicles, parts, service information, as well as provide the latest training for our instructors and students."

Gardner said members of Chipola's Automotive Advisory Board have nation-wide contacts which help his program stay current in the ever-changing, technologically sophisticated automotive service industry.

Retirees honored at Chipola

Chipola College honored three of its retirees—Helen Rhynes, Ed Finch and Annette Rash—at the annual end-of-year luncheon on May 2.

A 50's theme was the backdrop for the event which featured music by Royce Reagen and Richard Hinson, and a special performance by Brian "Elvis" McKeithan. Employees arrived clad in bobby socks, poodle skirts and penny loafers to enjoy cokes in little bottles and peanuts.

Presentations were the order of the day for the retirees. Bryan Craven delivered programs on Annette Rash, Administrative Services and Capital Projects Coordinator, highlighting her 32 years of service to Chipola; and Helen Rhynes, instructor in the Clerical/Secretarial program, for 25 years of service. Bud Riviere presented a program on Ed Finch, who served as Firing Range Master for 13 years.

Chipola president Dr. Gene Prough presented resolutions citing each retiree's accomplishments, and presented Chipola Gold Cards that provide free admission for life to college events. Rhynes and Rash also were awarded lifetime memberships in the Florida Association of Community Colleges.

The event was sponsored by the Council of Chipola Educators (CCE).
