Caribbean Sound Steel Band to perform at Chipola

The Caribbean Sound Steel Band will perform Tuesday, Nov. 13, at 7 p.m., as part of the Chipola College Artist Series.

A limited number of tickets—$12 for adults and $8 for ages 18 and under—go on sale Oct. 30 in the Chipola Business Office.

Caribbean Sound will present their exciting “American Carnival” show, an exhilarating evening of music, entertainment and fun. The show presents an exciting look at the development of “pan” music, a unique innovation of the 20th Century, mixing the sound and culture of the Caribbean through Calypso, Soca, and Latin Music with Classical, American pop and original compositions.

Since 1986 Caribbean Sound has performed traditional Calypso, Contemporary Classics, original compositions for the steel pan and World Music striking new territory with an incredible sound. The music of Caribbean Sound is grounded in classical and Jazz traditions combined with years of cultural research of Caribbean Rhythms. The one-of-a-kind ensemble provides presents the amazing influences from around the world that came together to create the steel pan.

Some of Caribbean Sound’s outstanding performance venues include the Florida International Festival in Daytona Beach, the University of Florida Center for the Performing Arts, Ruth Eckerd

Hall, Mahaffey Theater, the Jacksonville Symphony, the Louisiana Philharmonic, and the Rockford Symphony Orchestra. Caribbean Sound has been on the Florida State

Touring Program through the Division of Cultural Affairs since 1998.

Upcoming performances in the Chipola Artist series include: “Pop! Go The Classics,” Jan. 24, starring Mac Frampton and the ThreePenny Symphony; “Strata,” classical trio, Feb. 19; and Proteus 7, Brass Ensemble, March 25.

The Artist Series is funded through Chipola’s Performing Arts Fund, with grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Southern Arts Federation, the Florida Division of Cultural Affairs, the Chipola Regional Arts Association and corporate donors.

For information call the Chipola business office at 718-2204.

Chipola theater Night of Scenes and Songs is Thursday

Chipola College Theater will present a Night of Scenes and Songs, Thursday, Nov. 15, at 7:30 p.m.

Chipola theatre majors will present its 3rd annual Theatre Showcase “COME NYC US”. Chipola director Charles Sirmon says, “Imagine Saturday Night Live on a Thursday. This will give you an idea of the great variety of comedy, drama and music that will be performed by Chipola theatre majors and guests.”

Proceeds for the show will go toward the theatre department New York Broadway trip scheduled for Spring 2008, where theatre students will be guided through the city by a theatre professional, attend a master class from a Broadway performer, attend two Broadway shows, an off Broadway performance, and more.

General admission tickets—$10—may be purchased from a Chipola Theater major, or in the lobby of the McLendon Fine Arts Building.

For information, call 850-718-2227.
