Indians to host Chipola Men's Classic Nov. 20-22

The Chipola Indians host the Chipola Classic, Nov. 20-22, in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center.

The Indians face Abraham Baldwin on Thursday, Nov. 20, at 7:30. Jefferson Davis and St. John's River open the classic at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday.

Chipola plays Jefferson Davis at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 21. St. John's River and Abraham Baldwin meet at 5:30 p.m. on Friday.

Chipola faces St. John's River at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 22. Jefferson Davis plays Abraham Baldwin at 5:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Indians are off to a strong 3-1 start, but new head coach Chris Jans says his squad has a lot of work ahead. "I'm a little disappointed in the way we played last weekend. I learned that we really need to focus on sustaining our effort for the entire game and concentrate on taking care of the ball and rebounding. We missed some assignments and didn't finish some plays. Hopefully we've corrected the problem and we're getting better. We're not very big, so we've got to all the little things right," Jans said.

Deke Thompson and Shawn Malloy are out with injuries but expected to return to the lineup later this month.

The Indians won two of three games in the Milton H. Johnson Classic, Nov. 6-8. Chipola finished the classic with a 74-59 win over Enterprise State. Mario Jointer and Je'kel Foster led Chipola in scoring with 18. Vas'shun Newborne scored 14 points and 12 rebounds. Kendaris Pelton scored 12. Victor Gomez had 8 points and 8 rebounds.

The Indians logged a big 85-62 win over Pasco-Hernando in the classic on Nov. 7. Chipola's only loss of the season came at the hands of South Georgia in a 57-50 game marked by fouls and turnovers. The Indians turned the ball over 26 times and shot only 28 percent from the floor. "We've got to cut out the unnecessary fouls to make sure that our best players are on the floor as much as possible," said Jans.

Chipola travels to Santa Fe Community College on Nov. 15.

The Indians opened the season with a 107-89 home victory over IMG Academy on Nov 3.

Lady Indians off to a great start

Chipola hosted the Lady Indians Classic, Nov. 13-15, in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center.

Chipola defeated Oakland College on Thursday, 62-42. Reggie Maddox was leading scorer for the Lady Indians with 21 points, 4 assists and 5 rebounds. Oakland is ranked 18th in the national JUCO poll.

New Chipola head coach David Lane says his team is ready for some action. "We're recovering from some injuries, but anxious to play after a 12 day layoff. The last two weeks have been very good for us. We're excited to play in front of our home crowd. It will give the community the chance to see the kind of team we're going to have this year," said Lane.

The Lady Indians were to play Pyexpress, a club team from Tallahassee, on Friday at 7:30 p.m. Pyexpress includes several former FSU, FAMU and TCC players.

The Lady Indians had a rematch with Enterprise on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Chipola opened the season with an impressive 88-47 win at Enterprise-Ozark College on Nov. 1. Alicia McDonald led Chipola with 20 points. Kristina Andjelkovic added 16. Leading rebounders were McDonald with 20 grabs and Tamika Jackson with 10 rebounds.

Chipola held Enterprise scoreless through the first six minutes of the game. The Lady Indians shot 61 percent from the floor and out-rebounded EO, 50-20.

"It was a good opening effort," said Chipola coach David Lane who celebrated his first career win as a head coach. "The girls played well, but there's definitely room for improvement," said Lane.

The Ladies are on the road again this weekend in Pensacola where they will play Beville State (AL) on Nov. 21 at 4 p.m. and LSU - Eunice (LA) on Nov. 22 at 6 p.m.

For information, call the Chipola Hotline at 718-2CJC or visit the Chipola web site at www.chipola.edu.

Williams is Faculty/Administrator of the Month

Margie Braxton Williams of Marianna is the recipient of the November Faculty/Administrator of the Month Award.

Williams is director of Continuing Education programs at Chipola, where she has worked since 1986. She is a Certified Program Planner and also is certified to lead a number of professional workshops. Williams is a graduate of Chipola and Troy State University. She holds a Master's Degree from the University of West Florida.

The colleague who nominated Williams for the award, says, "Margie is Miss Courtesy! She is constantly seeking to make everyone feel comfortable and welcome on our campus."

She is presently a member of the Student Retention Committee and has served on many other committees and as an administrative representative on the Governance Council.

Williams is a member of the Florida Association of Community Colleges (FACC), and serves on the boards of the Chipola Chapter of FACC, Council of Chipola Educators, State-wide Continuing and Adult Education Standing Committee, Panhandle Area Health Network, and Jackson County Association for Retarded Citizens.

Williams and her husband, Don, a vice president at Regions Bank, have three children and a son-in-law (Amy and John O'Brien, Anna K. and Donald). The family attends the First Baptist Church of Marianna.

The Chipola award includes a plaque, reserved parking for a month, a $300 bonus, and a $50 gift certificate from the College Book Store. Monthly winners are eligible for the annual award.

Meet the Indians

The Chipola Indians basketball coaching staff invites all area youngsters to the first annual "Meet the Indians Day," Tuesday, Nov. 18, at 7 p.m. in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center.

Youngsters will meet the men's basketball players and coaching staff and participate in a short clinic on fundamentals. Participants also will learn how to join the new Little Indians Club. All in attendance will receive two complimentary passes, good for all of Chipola's home games.

For information, call assistant coach Greg Heiar at 718-2364.

Student assistant needed

The Social Work Department of UWF at the University Center on Chipola's campus is looking for a student assistant. This is a part-time position to assist the coordinator of the social work program with general office duties. Computer skills very helpful. The position is for 12.5 hours per week. Exact hours to be determined upon hiring. Salary is $9/hr. Please deliver resume and/or letter of interest to the Social Work Coordinator's office, Building L, Room 101 F no later than 4 p.m., Thursday, November 20.

Student social workers developing resource list

Student social workers from the University of West Florida @ Chipola College are developing a directory of social workers in the area.

Social workers who would like to be included in the listing and receive a copy of the finalized document, should email Sherri Stone at sstone@uwf.edu. Emails should include name, credentials, areas of specialization, current employment, availability for supervision for licensure, contact information, membership in professional organizations, and other relevant information.

For information call 526-2761, Ext. 3356.

AMERICAN RED CROSS HURRICANE SHELTER TEAMS. The American Red Cross is in the process of forming Hurricane Shelter Teams composed of Faculty and Student volunteers from Chipola College. Each team will contain 8 to 10 volunteers and be asked to man a local Hurricane Shelter in the event of a tropical storm. Volunteer teams will be provided with free Red Cross training and equipped with all of the equipment, such as a cell phone and first aid kit, required for shelter operation.

Call your local chapter of the American Red Cross at 482-4384 and ask to speak with Bob Jones or Dick Hallisey if you are interested in becoming a part of such an important community-spirited team. Other volunteer opportunities are also available. Together, we can save a life.

HELPING HABITAT. Phi Theta Kappa and Phi Beta Lambda are collecting funds for Habitat for Humanity, whose goal is to eliminate poverty housing. Make checks payable to Jackson County Habitat for Humanity. If you wish to mail your check, the address is Habitat for Humanity at P.O. Box 6114, Marianna, FL 32447. If you prefer, you may give your check or cash to Jody Spooner at Ext. 3279 or Kathryn Roberts at Ext. 3269.

VALID IDS. Returning students must have a current semester sticker on your Chipola ID for it to be a "valid" ID. Valid ID's are necessary for free admittance to Chipola athletic events and student activities. Semester stickers are available at the Business Office.
