Indians open hoops season at home Monday

The Chipola Indians open the basketball season at home this week with four big games. Chipola tips off Monday, Nov 3, against IMG Academy from Sarasota. Game time is 7:30 p.m. in the Johnson Health Center.

First year Chipola coach Chris Jans will lead the Indians into battle. "We don't know a lot about IMG. I've heard that they've got several D-1 level players. This will be a true blind opener for us," said Jans.

Chipola will continue their homestand, Nov. 6-8 with the Milton H. Johnson Classic named in honor of retired legend Milton H. Johnson who coached at Chipola for 32 years. The college gymnasium and the Panhandle Conference Trophy also bear his name. Johnson recorded 628 wins at Chipola and led the team to the state tourney six times. He is a charter member of the Florida Community College Hall of Fame and a member of the National Junior College Athletic Association Hall of Fame.

The Indians face South Georgia Tech on Thursday at 7:30. Pasco-Hernando and Enterprise State open the classic at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday. Chipola plays Pasco-Hernando at 7:30 p.m. on Friday.

South Georgia Tech and Enterprise State meet at 5:30 p.m. on Friday. Chipola faces Enterprise State at 6 p.m. Saturday. Pasco-Hernando plays South Georgia Tech at 4 p.m. Saturday.

Coach Jans, says, "I'm new to the area so I don't know a lot about these teams. We've made some phone calls and our staff will have the opportunity to view game films and scout our weekend opponents before we play."

The 34 year-old Jans has learned quite a bit about his own squad and seems pleased with the team's preparation. "I think our Fall program, when we lift and do individual skill development, went well. I'm excited about the work ethic of our team. Since practice began Oct. 1, we've had a month to prepare and the players have bought in to our program. I'm happy with our progress."

The Indians have scrimmaged with a couple of non-conference teams. "It's nice to figure out your weaknesses and come back to the gym and work on them. But we need to play somebody else. The guys are tired of beating up on each other," said Jans.

The coach said this week's game should teach him a lot more about his players. "I'm interested to see how they're going to react when the lights come on and the popcorn's popping," said Jans.

On the whole, the coach says he likes the makeup of this year's squad. "One of my areas of concern was our depth. Now I think it's one of our assets. I'm pretty comfortable with 11 or 12 of our guys on the floor at any given time."

About specific positions, Jans says, "We're not very big in the post. But the guys we're going to play around the basket are very quick. Our guard court has a chance to be very, very good before the year is out. We have some skilled players who should be fun to watch. As the season progresses individual roles will be established."

Jans is also facing a personal challenge on the sidelines this week. He is recovering from surgery to repair a torn Achilles tendon he suffered playing basketball in early October. "It's been interesting to have to be stationary during practice. I think I've seen more because I haven't been distracted by walking around during practice. My coaching staff—Greg Heiar and coach Micah Byars—have really helped tremendously during this time."

Jans is only Chipola's 13th men's basketball coach in Chipola's 55-year history. He came to Chipola from Howard College in Big Spring, TX, where he was 49-14 in two seasons. Jans earned Division 1 experience as the top assistant to head coach David Farrar at the University of Idaho (1999-2001).

Chipola Christmas Feaste tickets on sale Friday

Tickets go on sale Friday, Nov. 7 for the Chipola College Christmas dinners.

The Fine and Performing Arts Department will present "Candlelight and Carols: A Christmas Feaste," in a holiday setting on Dec. 4 and 5 at 6:30 p.m. in the College Arts Center.

The dinner will include traditional holiday fare from wassail to carved top round of beef, breast of chicken and assorted cakes and pies.

Musicians will signal the opening of the Great Hall for each performance. The Chipola Singers will present a program of holiday favorites for the entire family.

Reserved tickets—$25 for adults, $20 for children 12 and under—will be available in the Chipola Fine Arts Office. Tables of eight may be reserved. Groups wishing to sit together must purchase tickets at the same time. No phone or credit card reservations are available. An early sell-out is expected.

For information, call 850-718-2277.

PTK seminar set

Phi Theta Kappa will hold the fourth Satellite Seminar on Tuesday, Nov. 4 at 6:30 PM in the Continuing Education Building Conference Center. The seminar's title is "The Young and the Ruthless: Youth Violence and Public Health" and the speaker is Dr. James Alan Fox. In lieu of an admission fee, all participants are asked to bring donations for local pregnancy crisis centers. In addition to this, American Cancer Society clear ribbons, which represent Lung Cancer, will be sold and an organ donation registration drive will be conducted.

Phi Theta Kappa is also sponsoring a Fall Festival held on Saturday, Nov. 15 from Noon-5 p.m. at the McLane Community Center for the enjoyment of elementary and middle school aged children. The admission price is $4. All money raised will go toward a Wish Tree for the McLane Center children.

Science seminar Nov. 5

Bill Dean, Environmental Health Director at the Jackson County Health Department, will present a science seminar, Wednesday, Nov. 5, at 10 a.m. in Jackson Hall. The seminar, entitled, "Arsenic in Private Wells at Merritts Mill Pond" centers on the recent discovery of arsenic in a number of private wells in a subdivision on the Southwest side of Merritts Mill Pond. Dean will discuss the results of well testing and remediation of well contamination and the cooperative effort between the Department of Health, Department of Environmental Protection and the Jackson County Board of Commissioners.

Student social workers developing resource list

Student social workers from the University of West Florida @ Chipola College are developing a directory of social workers in the area.

Social workers who would like to be included in the listing and receive a copy of the finalized document, should email Sherri Stone at ssstone@uwf.edu. Emails should include name, credentials, areas of specialization, current employment, availability for supervision for licensure, contact information, membership in professional organizations, and other relevant information.

For information call 526-2761, Ext. 3356.

AMERICAN RED CROSS HURRICANE SHELTER TEAMS. The American Red Cross is in the process of forming Hurricane Shelter Teams composed of Faculty and Student volunteers from Chipola College. Each team will contain 8 to 10 volunteers and be asked to man a local Hurricane Shelter in the event of a tropical storm. Volunteer teams will be provided with free Red Cross training and equipped with all of the equipment, such as a cell phone and first aid kit, required for shelter operation.

Call your local chapter of the American Red Cross at 482-4384 and ask to speak with Bob Jones or Dick Hallisey if you are interested in becoming a part of such an important community-spirited team. Other volunteer opportunities are also available. Together, we can save a life.

HELPING HABITAT. Phi Theta Kappa and Phi Beta Lambda are collecting funds to give to Habitat for Humanity, whose goal is to eliminate poverty housing, to build a home. Make checks payable to Jackson County Habitat for Humanity. If you wish to mail your check, the address is Habitat for Humanity at P.O. Box 6114, Marianna, FL 32447. If you prefer, you may give your check or cash to Jody Spooner at Ext. 3279 or Kathryn Roberts at Ext. 3269.

Remember that Katharyn Jones and Kathryn Roberts at Ext. 3269 have tickets for the Habitat For Humanity Steak Dinner on Thursday, Nov. 6. Tickets are $15. Anyone wishing to make any donation to help Habitat build a house for someone living in poverty send or give money or check to either Miss Jones or Mrs. Roberts.
