Chipola hoops squads look to repeat last year’s success

The Chipola College men’s and women’s basketball teams are looking to repeat their outstanding seasons of 2004-05.

The Indians are the defending state champions and are ranked first in a national pre-season poll by Juco-Junction.com. Last year’s team set a school record for most wins in a season with 33.

The Indians return three starters from last year’s squad that finished fourth in the national tournament: Stefhon Hannah, Michael Taylor and Ryne Hamblet. Hannah, a 6-0 point guard, Michael Taylor, a 6-2 guard, and transfer center Shawn Taylor, 6-10, are listed among the Top 65 JUCO prospects for 2006.

Three other important players return from last year’s team: Gerard Jackson, Pawel Malesa, and red-shirt freshman Fred Bellamy of Cottondale. Transfers Jamarcus Ellis and Jay Anderson studied at Chipola last Spring, but will suit up for the first time this season.
