Appreciation Club season kick off party is Monday

The Chipola Appreciation Club invites all current, former and prospective members to a season kick-off event, Monday, Nov. 18, from 6 to 8:30 p.m., at the home of Ronnie and Kitty Myers on Club Drive in Marianna.

New Florida State University basketball coach Leonard Hamilton is the featured guest for the event, which will include a social hour and chili supper.

Ronnie Myers, who played basketball at CJC in the 60's, is the club's current membership chair. He says, "We invite everyone to come out and enjoy a nice evening and hear about the great things happening in FSU and Chipola athletics."

The Appreciation Club is the official support organization of the college's four athletic programs. Directors conduct an annual membership drive that yields an average of 200 memberships. Memberships—$250—include four passes to all basketball games, hospitality room, reserved seating and parking.

In 1997, the club began hosting the State Junior College Basketball Tournament. The top men's teams and women's teams meet in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center every March to compete for the FCCAA/NJCAA Region VIII Titles. Chipola was the site of the first men's state tourney in 1961 at the school's old Field House, now an arts center. Former CJC coach Jim Pavy's Indians won the state title that year. Since then, Chipola has won seven state titles—more than any Florida school. The men's tournament returned to CJC in 1996 after 35 years. Chipola hosted the first ever, combined men's and women's tournament in 1997 and has hosted the event ever since.

New Orleans Blue Serenaders appearing

Orange Kellin's New Orleans Blue Serenaders will play the Chipola Theater Monday, Nov. 18, at 7 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door at 6:30 p.m.

The Serenaders are replacing the Manhattan Rhythm Kings, who cancelled their Fall tour and a Chipola Artist Series show to take a gig on Broadway.

The Serenaders offer authentic New Orleans traditional Jazz direct from the Broadway production of One Mo'Time. Arranger and clarinetist Orange Kellin brings the trio of hot New Orleans musicians, piano, clarinet and percussion, to play the elegant, thrilling and undeniably infectious Big Easy sounds. Joining Orange and his trio is the creator and director of One Mo'Time, Vernel Bagneris, acting, singing and dancing irresistible, razzle-dazzle, show stopping numbers from that show plus many more authentic, traditional selections.

Born in Sweden, Orange Kellin has become a premiere clarinetist of the real New Orleans sound, having played with many of

Chipola ranks second in nation for sending players to D-1

The Chipola men's basketball team has again garnered national attention in a report on former JUCO players now at the Division I level.

The report from the JUCO Classic News Service ranks Chipola second in the nation for most alumni on current division I rosters. Chipola has ten former players at D-1 colleges, including: Janerio Spurlock at Kansas State; Ryan Lewis at Jacksonville University; David Howell at the University of Idaho; Kareem Johnson at the University of Cincinnati and David Hilton at Drexel University; John Andrews and Wayne Bransom at Louisiana-Monroe; and Michael Wilder, Lavelle Felton and Marcelle Davis at Louisiana Tech.

Head coach Ryan Cross, said, "We are very happy that we have been able to graduate our basketball players and move them on to NCAA Division I universities. This is not only a testament to these young men, but also to the faculty and staff here at Chipola that are committed to the success of our student-athletes."

Midland College in Texas leads the nation with 11 players in Division I basketball ranks. Panhandle Conference rival Tallahassee is third with nine players. Okaloosa-Walton CC has eight.

The five teams in the Panhandle Conference lead the nation with 37 former players in D-1, an average of 7.4 per team

Chipola hoops squads sweep five at Johnson Classic

Both Chipola basketball teams made a clean sweep in the Milton H. Johnson Classic winning a total of five games in the Nov. 7-9 event.

The nationally-ranked Indians improved to 5-0 with three wins, beginning with a 94-66 victory over South Georgia Tech on Nov. 7. Brandon Freeman led Chipola with 23 points including six three-pointers. Tom Frerichs pulled in 9 rebounds and scored 16 points. JueMichael Young added 12 points. Walter Harris had 14 points.

Chipola crushed Jeff Davis, 109-49 on

Nov. 8. Brandon Freeman led CJC with 19 points.

The Indians completed their classic trifecta with a 90-74 win over Enterprise on Nov. 9. Freeman led with 23. Walter Harris scored 20. Three more Indians scored in double figures: Tom Fredricks (13), JueMichael Young (12) and Michael Wilds (11).

The Lady Indians evened their record at 2-2 with a pair of convincing wins in the classic, beginning with an 82-35 rout of Enterprise on Nov. 8.

CJC also scored a big 74-54 win over

Southern Union on Nov. 9. Reginette Maddox led CJC with 24. Linnea Eklof and Rebecca Montz each had 11. Heidi Fowler added 10.

Both CJC teams hit the road for this weekend for games in Ocala and Atlanta. The Lady Indians return home, Nov. 22-23, to host Northwest Shoals and Hillsborough CC in a CJC Women's Classic. The Indians will host Surry and St. John's River in the Panhandle Classic on Dec. 6-7.

For information, call the CJC Hotline at 718-2CJC.

The club has amassed more than $500,000 in an endowment mainly through its former fund-raiser, the Wild Game Dinner, held during the 1990's. The money will eventually be used to fund athletic scholarships.

Retired coaching legend Milton H. Johnson was a charter member of the Appreciation Club in the late 1960's. He said, "The club has been instrumental in keeping Chipola at the level we've been at for a number of years. The club was formed as a businessmen's support organization to help Chipola compete at the state and national level. It's a very important part of Chipola's athletic programs. A great number of well-known businessmen have been directors of the club through the years with a core group that has kept the club vital through the turn of the century."

Johnson said Chipola's strong athletic traditions can be traced back to the beginnings of the college in 1947. "Roy Beall and others who helped form the college recognized the importance of establishing a sports program. As athletics got more expensive and more competitive, more money was needed for things like transportation and uniforms that the college could not afford."

Johnson said the club has helped the men's basketball program maintain its place as one of the premier programs in the country. Chipola's owes much of its acclaim to retired Johnson who coached at CJC for 32 years. The college gymnasium and the Panhandle Conference Trophy also bear his name. Johnson recorded 628 wins at CJC and led the team to the state tourney six times. He is a charter member of the FCCAA Hall of Fame and a member of the National Junior College Athletic Hall of Fame.

Johnson's Indians finished second in the 1974-75 National Tournament. And now, 27 years later, Chipola is ranked second in the nation heading in the 2002-03 campaign.

Appreciation Club president Robert Trammell, also one of Johnson's former players, said, "Chipola Junior College is an important part of this community. And athletics is an important part of the college. It is something very special to see 3,000 fans show up for the homecoming game. No other junior college in the country has more loyal alumni and community support."

Chipola Ryan Cross, "I think historically, Chipola has had one of the finest programs in the state and this is due in large part to the Appreciation Club, the college and the facilities on our campus. Our support programs are arguably the best in the state and among the finest in the country. And with the recent renovations to the Johnson Center and the baseball softball complex, I think we've probably got the best facilities in the Southeast."

Appreciation Club officers are: Robert Trammell, president; Robbie Roberts, vice president; Sonny Wise, treasurer; Sandra Harrell, secretary. Directors are: Kenneth Anderson, Allen Clark, Gary Clark, Ryan Cross, Bill Davis, Greg Drake, Joe Ray Durham, Hop Hopkins, Milton Johnson, Ronnie Myers, Dale O'Daniel, Danny Pate, Bill Peacock, Mike Peacock, Colby Peel, Aaron Peterson, Gene Prough, Donnie Read, Wendell Taylor and Jamey Westbrook.

No reservations are needed for the Nov. 18 event. For information about the Appreciation Club, call Sandra Harrell at 718-2302.

Student Activities News

Senior Day is Wednesday

Some 850 high school seniors are expected to visit Chipola for the Annual Senior Day, Wednesday, Nov. 20.

Chipola's Student Ambassadors have invited seniors from the 16 high schools in Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty, and Washington counties.

Seniors will arrive on campus beginning at 8:30 a.m. High School and CJC counselors will meet at 9 a.m. Performances by the CJC cheerleaders, and a slam dunk competition featuring the men's and women's basketball teams will begin at 9:15 a.m.

Ambassadors will host seniors on campus tours beginning at 10 a.m. Tours will include performances by the Show Choir and Theatre Department. The seniors will enjoy lunch at 12:30 p.m., before departing campus at 1:30 p.m.

PTK Seminar on environment and health

Phi Theta Kappa will host the final program in the Satellite Seminar series Tuesday, Nov. 19, at 6:30 p.m., CST in the Continuing Education Conference Center.

Dr. Lori Arviso Alvord will be speaking on the topic The Mind/Body Connection. Dr. Alvord is Associate Dean for Student and Minority Affairs and Assistant Professor of Surgery at Dartmouth Medical School. She is widely regarded for combining modern medicine with the traditions of her Native American heritage. Her book, The Scalpel and the Silver Bear, relates her attempt to bring state-of-the-art medical skills to a Native American culture.

In honor of the Phi Theta Kappa Founders Day, dinner will be served before the seminar at about 5:30 p.m.

For information, contact Jody

Spooner, PTK advisor, at (850) 526-2761, Ext. 3279, or Krissy Lee, PTK Scholarship Officer, at krislee\_gg@hotmail.com
