November 20 - December 3, 2006
An Equal Access/Equal Opportunity Institution

A newsletter for Chipola College students, employees, and friends

Chipola hosts behind the scenes for Middle Schoolers

The Chipola College chapter of Phi Theta Kappa hosted “Behind the Scenes” for area middle school students on Nov. 13.

The project brought together middle school students to exhibit scenes from novels they had read in school. Students created backdrops and costumes for their scenes which were judged by volunteers. Chipola president Dr. Gene Prough awarded prizes to the winners.

Grand Ridge Middle School won first place. Poplar Springs won second. Roulhac Middle School was third and Blountstown Middle School won fourth place.

Poplar Springs students—Eric Todd, Jake Wangle, Hadley Battles and Natalie Roberts—created a scene from “The Island of the Blue Dolphin,” with direction from teacher Shirley Owens.

Roulhac Middle School students—Matthew Weisensale, Michael Prichard, Jessica Singleton, Jared Bozarth, and Luke Hinson—portrayed “The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe,” along with their teacher Jennifer Sapp.

Grand Ridge students—Jordan Thames, RJ Kerlee, Kara Alford, Patrick McKinstry, and Cassie Coley—created a scene from “The Tribe: Mallrats,” with direction from teacher Hollie Money.

Matthew Warren of Blountstown Middle School portrayed “The Old Man and the Sea,” with help from teacher Wendy Eubanks.

New course offered in Hispanic Cinema

Chipola College will offer Hispanic Cinema (SPT 2521) during the Spring 2007 semester which begins Jan. 5.

The course will be taught in English as a humanities with-writing course, using a variety of foreign films from Spain and Latin America as visual texts to encourage topics for writing. SPT 2521 fulfills 6,000 words of the Gordon Rule requirement. Grades of ‘C’ or better in ENC 1101-02 are required. Prior coursework in Spanish is not required.

Films in the course are mostly in the original Spanish and include English subtitles. The films portray the society, cultures and people of different Hispanic countries. As such, the course will satisfy the requirement for an international diversity course at Florida State University.

The class will meet on Tuesday evenings from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. in Room 113 of the Language and Literature building.

Dr. Mark T. Ebel—who wrote his PhD dissertation on Hispanic cinema at Florida State University—is the professor.

For more information, contact Dr. Ebel at 718-2282.

Chipola Lady Indians top state polls

The Chipola College Lady Indians share the top spot in the FCCAA Women's Basketball poll with Gulf Coast this week, and Chipola freshman Lesheira Stevens was named FCCAA State Player of the Week.

The 5'9" freshman from Chattahoochee, FL, led the reigning FCCAA Champions to three impressive victories, including two against nationally-ranked opponents, during last weekend's Holiday Inn Express/Alzheimer's Classic.

Stevens averaged 16.0 points, 8.7 rebounds and 3.0 assists in wins over then-FCCAA No. 6 Central Florida, NJCAA No. 3 Trinity Valley and NJCAA No. 4 Southeastern Illinois. After tallying 25 points, 11 rebounds and 4 assists against Central Florida on Nov. 10, Stevens put together solid performances on Saturday and Sunday against Southeastern Illinois (12 points, 7 rebounds, 2 assists) and Trinity Valley (11 points, 8 rebounds, 3 assists), respectively.

Chipola College's 65-55 victory over number 3 Trinity Valley gave the Florida Panhandle Conference a 6-5 record for the weekend (Nov. 10-12) in the 2nd Annual Chipola College Holiday Inn Express/Alzheimer's Classic.

Five Panhandle teams (Chipola, Gulf Coast, Okaloosa-Walton, Pensacola, and Tallahassee) faced five national powerhouses (Central Florida, number 23 Georgia Perimeter, number 5 Monroe, number 4 Southeastern Illinois, and number 3 Trinity Valley) in Marianna, Florida.

Panhandle teams struggled on Friday, going 1-4 with Chipola getting the only victory. Conference teams bounced back going 4-1 on Saturday with several upset victories.

Tallahassee defeated number 23 Georgia Perimeter, 71-58. The game of the day was number 6 Gulf Coast's come-from-behind victory over number 5 Monroe. Gulf Coast trailed 31-15 at half, but came out firing in the second half and was able to pull off the 58-54 win. Number 16 Chipola capped off the night with a 60-55 victory over number 4 Southeastern Illinois.

Proceeds from the tournament and from a three-mile memory walk, helped to raise $1,100 for the Alzheimer's Resource Center of Dothan, Alabama.

The Lady Indians are 4-1 on the year. Chipola travels to Florida Community College at Jacksonville for a Friday, Nov. 17 game. The Lady Indians next home game is Dec. 8 against FCCJ.

For the latest scores, call 718-2CJC.

Chipola auto students win FAIA Essay Contest

Two students in Chipola College's Automotive Technology program recently won a state-wide essay contest sponsored by the Florida Automotive Industry Association (FAIA).

Ahmed Santana of Graceville received $500 for his first place essay. Matthew Conrad of Sneads won $250 for his second place essay.

FAIA is a statewide automotive aftermarket association dedicated to serving the needs of its members which include wholesale distributors, jobbers, paint and body, general repair, transmission, muffler shops, engine re-builders, machine shops and manufacturers.

John Gardner, instructor of Chipola's automotive program, says, "We appreciate the FAIA and local members Roy Scheffer and Alan Scheffer of Auto Electric in Marianna who contribute to our program's success. Our partnership with this organization as well as our entire advisory committee affords our students many valuable opportunities."

According to FAIA, the automotive aftermarket in Florida includes some 24,000 independent businesses with more than 150,000 employees.

For information about the FAIA, call 1-800-989-1992.

Singers invited to join Chipola Chorus for Handel's Messiah

All singers are invited to join members of the Chipola College Chamber Chorus in singing the Christmas portion of Handel's Messiah. The first rehearsal is Tuesday, Nov. 14.

The performance is set for Sunday, Dec. 3, at 2 p.m., in the Chipola Arts Center.

Rehearsal times are 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 14; Monday, Nov. 20; Tuesday, Nov. 28; with a dress rehearsal Saturday, Dec. 2, from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. Rehearsals will be held in the McLendon Fine Arts Building, Room H108

Chipola's new Choral Instructor Lenore Hample will lead rehearsals and direct the Messiah performance. Hample has a Bachelor's degree in Organ Performance and a Master's Degree in Choral Conducting. The College Chorus is accompanied by Dr. Josh Martin, Chipola's newest piano faculty professor.

Female chorus members will dress in black long skirts or dress pants and long-sleeved white blouses. Male members will wear black dress pants, long-sleeved white dress shirts and black ties.

Messiah scores and rehearsal CD's of voice specific parts are available from the Fine Arts Office.

Chipola to host Panhandle Classic

The Chipola College Indians will host the Panhandle Classic, Dec. 1-2, in the Milton Johnson Health Center.

The Indians play Santa Fe at 8 p.m., Friday, Dec. 1, and Daytona Beach at 8 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 2.

Panhandle fans will have a chance to see all five men's team in action beginning with Pensacola and ABAC at noon on Friday, Dec. 1. Gulf Coast meets Genesis One in the 2 p.m. game. Top-ranked Tallahassee will face Daytona in the 4 p.m. game and OW will play South Georgia Tech in the 6 p.m. game on Friday.

Saturday's action begins with Gulf Coast and ABAC at noon. Pensacola and Genesis One tie up at 2 p.m. Tallahassee plays South GA Tech at 4 p.m. OW meets Santa Fe at 6 p.m. Saturday.

The classic is sponsored in part by the Jackson County Tourist Development Council.

The Chipola men's team is ranked second in the NJCAA National Poll, and second in the state FCCAA polls behind number one Tallahassee.

The Indians improved to 5-0 with a 94-64 win over Beville State on Nov. 9. Victor Dubovitsky had 15 points including 9 of 10 from the free throw line. DeAndre Thomas had 14 points including 10 in the second half. Ed Berrios, Mario Little, Jamarcus Ellis and Johnny Harris, each scored 12 points apiece.
