Tickets for Chipola's "Greater Tuna" on sale Oct. 18

Tickets for the Chipola College production of the hit comedy "Greater Tuna," go on sale, Thursday, Oct. 18, in the college business office.

The cast is in full rehearsal for the show which opens a four-day run, Nov. 1.

The plot of Greater Tuna centers on the death of Judge Roscoe Buckner, of an apparent stroke, while wearing a 1950 turquoise Dale Evans one-piece swimsuit with "lots of cowgal fringe." Among the subplots are Stanley Bumiller's attempts to walk the straight and narrow after a stint in reform school, Bertha Bumiller's trying to hold her family together, and the Smut Snatchers of the New Order's attempts to censor books (including the dictionary) at the local library. Recommended age 13 and up.

For information about Chipola Theater, call 718-2227.

Garrett Brolund of Dothan and Kevin Russell of Chipley rehearse a scene for the show which opens a four-day run, Nov. 1.

Chipola president named co-chair of United Way Campaign

Chipola president Dr. Gene Prough and Art Kimbrough, President and CEO of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, were named co-chairmen of the local United Way campaign at a kickoff luncheon, Oct. 10, at the Jackson County Chamber.

Dr. Prough said, "I'm proud to serve an organization that helps so many people at all stages of life. I challenge everyone in Jackson County to dig deep to help those in need. If you have a heart for groups like Guardian Ad Litem or hospice, please give to United Way."

The annual campaign raises funds to support some 21 United Way affiliated non-profit agencies in Jackson County. Community leaders announced a goal of $110,000 for the campaign which runs through Nov. 15.

United Way assists organizations that offer help to newborns, senior citizens and everyone in between in Jackson County.

For information about United Way, call Tommy McDonald, Jr. at 850-832-2919.

Chipola ensembles to present Fall Festival of Music

Chipola College's Chamber Chorus, Rock and Jazz Ensemble, and Show Choir invite the public to a free Fall Festival of Music concert in the Chipola Arts Center on Sunday, Oct. 21, at 2 p.m. featuring music by American composers.

Familiar America Folk Music will be presented by the Chamber Chorus under the direction of Lenore Hample, accompanied by Dr. Josh Martin and guest accompanist Dr. Christine Yoshikawa-Powell. Audience members will enjoy and remember well-known folk songs including Shenandoah, Old Dan Tucker, Nine Hundred Miles, Stephen Foster favorites, and others.

The Rock & Jazz Ensemble under the direction of Daniel Powell will swing into action with a compliment of standard jazz tunes and familiar rock favorites. Students and community members in this ensemble will provide a top-tapping concert featuring various jazz styles that challenge the members to improvise and work together.

Closing the program, Chipola's Show Choir will entertain with three high energy song and dance numbers including Shania Twain's Man! I Feel Like a Woman, John Denver's Thank God I'm a Country Boy, and the 1964 hit by the Four Tops, I Can't Help Myself (Sugar Pie, Honey Bunch). Show Choir is directed of Joy Buczek and Angie White with choreography by Brittney Holmes and Mike Milton.

This non-ticketed, open seating, Fall Festival of Music is free and open to the public.

For information, contact Joan Stadskev at 718-2301.

Gulf Power CEO to speak at Chipola

Susan Story, President and CEO of Gulf Power will speak at Chipola College on Friday, Oct. 26, at 10 a.m., in Jackson Hall.

Story's appearance is part of the Chipola Lecture Series sponsored by the college Honors program.

Story joined the Southern Company in 1982 as a nuclear power plant engineer and has served in a number of capacities including: Executive Vice-President of Engineering and Construction Services and Vice-President of Supply Chain Management for the Southern Company.

Gulf Power is a subsidiary of Southern Company—one of the largest producers of electricity in the U.S. Gulf Power Company is headquartered in Pensacola and provides electricity and energy services in Northwest Florida.

Story also served as Vice-President of Real Estate and Corporate Services at Alabama Power.

Story is immediate past Vice-Chair of Enterprise Florida and serves on the boards of: Florida Council of 100; Florida Chamber of Commerce (Chair-Elect); Association of Edison Illuminating Companies; James Madison Institute; Edison Electric Institute CEO Committee and Southeastern Electric Exchange.

She was appointed to the Florida Tax and Budget Reform Commission in 2007. Former Governor Jeb Bush appointed her to the Florida BRAC Advisory Council and served as Chair of the Intra-State Activities Committee. She was appointed by U.S. Sen. Mel Martinez to serve on the Florida Federal Judicial Nominating Commission. She served on Governor Bush's Task Force on Healthcare Accessibility and Affordability and on Lt. Governor Toni Jennings' Universal Pre-Kindergarten (UPK) Task Force and Career Education Task Force.

She serves on the Executive Committee of the Volunteer Florida Disaster Recovery Fund and has served as Chairman of the 2006 Pensacola American Heart Association "Heart Ball."

Story was named Business Leader of the Year for 2007 by the Pensacola Area Chamber of Commerce and won the International Women's Day Award for 2007 presented by World Trade Center Miami. Other honors include: "Ethics in Business Award" from the University of West Florida and Rotary Clubs of the Pensacola region; and "Leaders and Legends Award" for Environmental Leadership (2006).

Story earned a B.S. degree in Industrial Engineering from Auburn University and an MBA from the University of Alabama in Birmingham. She studied in Executive education programs at Duke University and Oxford University. She completed International business studies at Cambridge University and leadership studies at Harvard University.

Chipola Brain Bowl team wins Faulkner Tournament

The Chipola College Brain Bowl team won the ACBL Brain Bowl Tournament held Friday, October 5, on the campus of Faulkner State Community College in Gulf Shores, Alabama. This is the first tournament Chipola has competed in this year. Chipola beat host school Faulkner State in the tournament final to claim the championship.

Chipola Brain Bowl team members are Chuck Bryant of Bonifay, Mark Hodge of Bonifay, Trey Paul of Esto, Jantzen Whitehead of Cottondale, and Mitchell Whitehead of Cottondale. Team coaches are Stan Young and Dr. Robert Dunkle.

The team competed against 14 Alabama community college teams including Faulkner State, Bevill State, Northeast, Mount Union, Snead State, and Wallace College. Gulf Coast CC was the only other Florida team in the field. Chipola finished with a 10-0 record, recording 7 wins in round-robin play and 3 more wins in the playoff rounds.

Chipola team Co-Captains Mark Hodge and Jantzen Whitehead placed second and fifth respectively among 70-plus participants.

Chipola students present at state math conference

Mathematics education students in the Chipola College Teacher Education Program presented a program at the Florida Council of Teachers of Mathematics Conference in Orlando, Oct. 10-12.

The mathematics education students' proposal, "Using Interwrite to teach Middle School Mathematics," was accepted for a presentation at the conference.

Students enrolled in the Chipola Math Education program received a personal laptop with a remote Interwrite Pad this semester. The computers allow students to take the newest teaching strategies into area classrooms.

Chipola students Christopher Eby, Amanda Mullins and Bridgett Miller will be the lead instructors during the presentation. Other students Beverly Jackson, Miriam Beasley, Gloria Hobbs and Mike Hamm will assist with the project.

Dr. Lou Cleveland, Director of Math, Natural Science and Education, assisted the students with their presentations.
