October 18 - 24, 2004

A newsletter for Chipola College students, employees, and friends

“Run For Your Wife” opens Thursday at Chipola

The Chipola College production of the hit comedy “Run for Your Wife,” opens a four-day run Thursday, Oct. 21, at 7 p.m. in the Chipola Theater. Shows are nightly at 7 p.m. with a 2:30 p.m. Sunday matinee.

Tickets are now on sale in the college Business Office.

“Run for Your Wife” is British farce in the tradition of Faulty Towers, Mr. Bean and The Benny Hill Show.

Writer Ray Cooney’s plot centers on John Smith—an ordinary London cab driver. He owns his own car, sets his own hours, is hard working, punctual and lives a very ordinary life...with the exception of his two wives, Mary and Barbara. One night

John stops an old woman from getting mugged and gets knocked unconscious. After being checked over at the hospital, he is taken home with Mary by a local Detective Troughton. However, that morning, he supposed to be with at his home with Barbara. After realizing his predicament, John tries to get home to Barbara while keeping both his first wife Mary and Detective Troughton from finding out about his second wife.

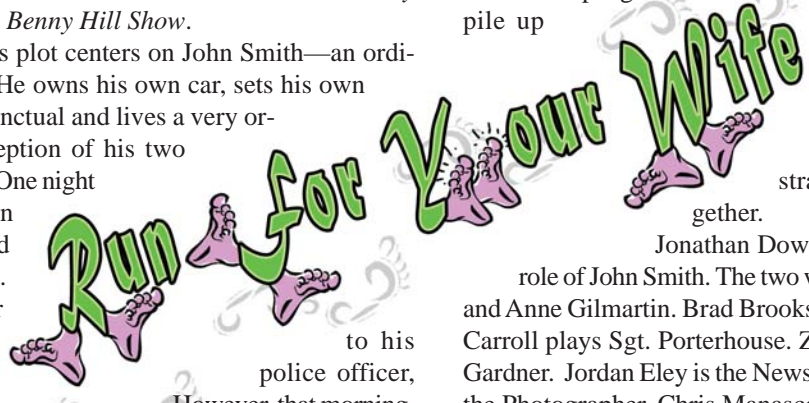

Enlisting the help of his neighbor, John heaps one lie upon another to get back to Barbara and back on his very precise schedule. All appears to be well until another police officer arrives from a neighboring district investigating the case of two cab drivers named John Smith, both mugged on the same night but having different addresses. Quick thinking Stanley exaggerates several more lies to create a new John Smith for Detective Porterhouse, while keeping the truth from Mary. As the lies and craziness ensues, Stanley and John try valiantly to keep the nosy detectives busy, John’s suspicious wives from running into each other, their sex lives straight and all of their stories together.

Jonathan Dowling leads the Chipola cast in the role of John Smith. The two wives are played by Melody Ruano and Anne Gilmartin. Brad Brooks is Det. Sgt. Troughton and Heath Carroll plays Sgt. Porterhouse. Zackary Price is neighbor Stanley Gardner. Jordan Eley is the Newspaper Reporter and Josh Barber is the Photographer. Chris Manasco plays Bobby Franklyn.

Chipola Theater director Charles Sirmon leads the crew of: Courtney Haile, Mary Kathryn Tanner, Kimberly Hobgood and Jessi Helms.

The comedy contains some adult humor. For ticket information, call 718-2204.

Meet the Indians Day set at Chipola

The Chipola College basketball coaching staff invites all area youngsters to the first “Meet the Indians Day,” Tuesday, Oct. 26, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center.

Additional meetings will be held Nov. 4 and 16 and Dec. 2. Boys and girls—grades K-6—are invited to meet the Chipola basketball players and coaching staff and to participate in a short clinic on fundamentals. Participants will receive complimentary season passes—good for all Chipola’s home games.

For information, call assistant coach T.J. Otzelberger at 850-718-2378.

Workforce Programs have openings

Registration is ongoing for a number of Workforce Development programs at Chipola College.

Most programs feature open enrollment, which allows students to enroll at any time and complete programs at their own pace. All programs offer excellent job placement potential. Financial aid is available, and remedial assistance is provided for most programs. Several programs have reached capacity for the semester, but have established waiting lists.

Certificate Programs include: Accounting Applications, Automotive Service Technology, Correctional Officer, Computer Electron-

Cloud is Chipola Faculty/Administrator of the Month

Sybil Cloud of Grand Ridge is the recipient of the October Faculty/Administrator of the Month Award at Chipola College.

Cloud has worked at Chipola since 1975 where she serves as Director of Financial Aid. Chipola's Office of Financial Aid dispenses more than $2 million annually and oversees some $4 million in related funds. The Financial Aid office won an award from Florida Leader magazine last year for a Financial Aid workshop that Cloud organized for students and parents.

Cloud's supervisor Dr. Jayne Roberts, says, "Sybil is definitely an asset to Chipola and very deserving of this award. She is very student-oriented, arriving before 8:00 a.m. and leaving after 4:00 p.m. on most days in order to accommodate students. She frequently works on the weekend to contact hard-to-reach students and has received calls from students at home. I can't think of anyone on this campus who works harder to help the student and to make students aware of the rules governing financial aid. Her dedication and hard work are reflected each year through the outstanding audit reviews earned by the Financial Aid Office."

Cloud is active in the Chipola chapter of the Florida Association of Community Colleges. She also serves on the college Student Aid and Scholarship Appeals Committee and the Curriculum Committee.

Cloud has two grown sons Shon and Shane and three grandchildren.

The faculty/administrator award includes a plaque, reserved parking for a month, a $300 bonus, and a $50 gift certificate from the College Book Store. Monthly winners are eligible for the annual award.

Chipola hoops season opens on Election Day

The Chipola College Indians open the 2004 basketball season on Election Day (Nov. 2) with a 7:30 p.m. home game against PyExpress, a club team from Tallahassee made up of former Division 1 players.

First year Chipola coach Greg Heiar will lead the Indians into battle. "I couldn't ask for a better group of kids, said Heiar. "They're young and really inexperienced at the guard position, but they're big and fast. I'm excited to be coaching this team. We've got a long way to go, but we've great kids and they want to get better. They want to learn the game of basketball."

The Indians are the defending State Champions coming off an outstanding 32-5 season that ended with a sixth place finish at the national tournament.

The Chipola men's and women's squads host a big weekend of basketball Nov. 5 and 6 in the Milton H. Johnson Classic. The Lady Indians play Middle Georgia at 5 p.m. on Nov. 5 and Clinton College at 4 p.m., Nov. 6. The Indians play Shelton State at 7 p.m., Nov. 5 and South Georgia Tech at 6 p.m., Nov. 6. South Georgia handed Chipola an early season loss in 2003.

David Lane begins his second season as head coach of the Lady Indians. The squad made it to the quarterfinals of the state tournament last year to finish with a 22-9 record.

Chipola to host Arts and Crafts Show

Artists, craftsmen, entertainers and fund-raising organizations all are invited to participate in the First Annual Chipola College FACC Arts & Crafts Show, Saturday, Nov. 13, from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the Chipola Arts Center.

A limited number of 10' X 12' booth spaces are available to anyone wishing to sell crafts or food concessions. Deadline to reserve a booth is Nov. 1. Arts and crafts booths rent for $25. Food booths are $100. Proceeds benefit the FACC scholarship fund.

Entertainers also are invited to perform during the show.

For information, contact Lou Kind at 718-2295 or Kim Collins at 718-2311.

Chipola to host high school seniors

Chipola's Student Ambassadors have invited area high school seniors from Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty, and Washington counties to come and visit our campus on October 20. The day will consist of performances by the Chipola cheerleaders, men's and women's basketball teams, show choir, and theater. The seniors will also have a tour of our campus and a complimentary lunch before they depart.
