

Chipola This Week

October 25-31, 2004

A newsletter for Chipola College students, employees, and friends

Chipola Workforce programs have openings

The Chipola College Workforce Development currently has openings in a number of programs.

Most programs feature open enrollment, which allows students to enroll at any time and complete programs at their own pace. All programs offer excellent job placement potential. Financial aid is available, and remedial assistance is provided for most programs. Several programs have reached capacity for the semester, but have established waiting lists.

Certificate Programs include: Automotive Service Technology, Correctional Officer, Computer Electronics Technology, Electronics Technology, Emergency Medical Technician, Grooming & Salon Services (formerly Cosmetology), Law Enforcement, Combination Law Enforcement

& Corrections, Telecommunications and Welding Technologies.

Associate in Science Degree Programs include: Business Administration & Management, Child Development & Education, Computer Information Administration, Networking Administration, Criminal Justice Technology, Culinary Management, Dental Hygiene, Electronic Engineering Technology, Fire Science Technology, Recreation Technology, Telecommunications Technology, and Office Administration.

The Chipola Success Center has openings for students who need help with testing skills, GED Prep, academic confidence or a refresher in Reading, Language, Math and Pre-algebra in order to succeed in academic and workforce programs.

For information about Chipola's Workforce programs, call 850-718-2270.

Meet the Indians Day set at Chipola

The Chipola College basketball coaching staff invites all area youngsters to the first "Meet the Indians Day," Tuesday, Oct. 26, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center. Additional meetings will be held Nov. 4 and 16 and Dec. 2.

Boys and girls—grades K-6—are invited to meet the Chipola basketball players and coaching staff and to participate in a short clinic on fundamentals. Participants will receive complimentary season passes to Chipola's home games.

For information, call assistant coach T.J. Otzelberger at 850-718-2378.

More than 900 area high school seniors recently visited Chipola College for the annual Senior Day event. Here, students from Holmes County High enjoy a pizza break. The event was sponsored by the Chipola Student Ambassadors.

Fall Festival thanks

A big thanks goes out to all the students and staff that came to Chipola's Fall Festival. It was a huge success!

Thanks also to the clubs for participating in the relays and tug-o-war competitions. The winner of the relays was the Science Club and the tug-o-war winner was Baptist Campus Ministry. Great Job!

Thanks to all SGA and Student Ambassador members for helping me plan and organize Fall Festival. I could not have done it without you! Fall Festival was sponsored by Chipola College SGA.

Chipola to host Arts and Crafts Show

Artists, craftsmen, entertainers and fund-raising organizations all are invited to participate in the First Annual Chipola College FACC Arts & Crafts Show, Saturday, Nov. 13, from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the Chipola Arts Center.

A limited number of 10' X 12' booth spaces are available to anyone wishing to sell crafts or food concessions. Deadline to reserve a booth is Nov. 1. Arts and crafts booths rent for $25. Food booths are $100. Proceeds benefit the FACC scholarship fund.

Entertainers also are invited to perform during the show.

For information, contact Lou Kind at 718-2295 or Kim Collins at 718-2311.

PTK to host seminar on Women Voting Issues

Phi Theta Kappa will sponsor a Popular Culture Film Series, "Iron Jawed Angels: Lead Follow or Get Out of the Way" on Thursday, Oct. 28 at 6 p.m. in the Continuing Education Conference Center. Everyone is invited to attend.

Chipola hoops season opens on Election Day

The Chipola College Indians open the 2004 basketball season on Election Day (Nov. 2) with a 7:30 p.m. home game against PyExpress, a club team from Tallahassee made up of former Division 1 players.

First year Chipola coach Greg Heiar will lead the Indians into battle. "I couldn't ask for a better group of kids, said Heiar. "They're young and really inexperienced at the guard position, but they're big and fast. I'm excited to be coaching this team. We've got a long way to go, but we've great kids and they want to get better. They want to learn the game of basketball."

The Indians are the defending State Champions coming off an outstanding 32-5 season that ended with a sixth place finish at the national tournament.

The Chipola men's and women's squads host a big weekend of basketball Nov. 5 and 6 in the Milton H. Johnson Classic. The Lady Indians play Middle Georgia at 5 p.m. on Nov. 5 and Clinton College at 4 p.m., Nov. 6. The Indians play Shelton State at 7 p.m., Nov. 5 and South Georgia Tech at 6 p.m., Nov. 6. South Georgia handed Chipola an early season loss in 2003.

David Lane begins his second season as head coach of the Lady Indians. The squad made it to the quarterfinals of the state tournament last year to finish with a 22-9 record.
