Chipola ensembles to present Fall Festival of Music

Chipola College's Chamber Chorus, Rock and Jazz Ensemble, and Show Choir invite the public to a free Fall Festival of Music concert in the Chipola Arts Center on Sunday, Oct. 21, at 2 p.m. featuring music by American composers.

Familiar America Folk Music will be presented by the Chamber Chorus under the direction of Lenore Hample, accompanied by Dr. Josh Martin and guest accompanist Dr. Christine Yoshikawa-Powell. Audience members will enjoy and remember well-known folk songs including Shenandoah, Old Dan Tucker, Nine Hundred Miles, Stephen Foster favorites, and others.

The Rock & Jazz Ensemble under the direction of Daniel Powell will swing into action with a compliment of standard jazz tunes and familiar rock favorites. Students and community members in this ensemble will provide a top-tapping concert featuring various jazz styles that challenge the members to improvise and work together.

Closing the program, Chipola's Show Choir will entertain with three high energy song and dance numbers including Shania Twain's Man! I Feel Like a Woman, John Denver's Thank God I'm a Country Boy, and the 1964 hit by the Four Tops, I Can't Help Myself

(Sugar Pie, Honey Bunch). Show Choir is directed of Joy Buczek and Angie White with choreography by Brittney Holmes and Mike Milton.

This non-ticketed, open seating, Fall Festival of Music is free and open to the public.

Application deadline for new Chipola's business degree

Application deadline is Friday, Oct. 12, for Chipola College's new four-year degree in business.

Classes in the Bachelor's of Applied Science degree in Business Management begin in January with two majors. The Management and Supervision major is designed for those who own a business or who want to move up in their current business-related job.

The Business Administration major is similar to the typical business degrees offered at area universities.

Chipola's business degrees are open to any student with an Associate in Arts or Associate in Science degree.

For information about any of Chipola's bachelor's degree programs, call 850-718-2260.

Gulf Power CEO to speak at Chipola

Susan Story, President and CEO of Gulf Power will speak at Chipola College on Friday, Oct. 26, at 10 a.m., in Jackson Hall.

Story's appearance is part of the Chipola Lecture Series sponsored by the college Honors program.

Story joined the Southern Company in 1982 as a nuclear power plant engineer and has served in a number of capacities including: Executive Vice-President of Engineering and Construction Services and Vice-President of Supply Chain Management for the Southern Company.

Gulf Power is a subsidiary of Southern Company—one of the largest producers of electricity in the U.S. Gulf Power Company is headquartered in Pensacola and provides electricity and energy services in Northwest Florida.

Story also served as Vice-President of Real Estate and Corporate Services at Alabama Power.

Story is immediate past Vice-Chair of Enterprise Florida and serves on the boards of: Florida Council of 100; Florida Chamber of Commerce (Chair-Elect); Association of Edison Illuminating Companies; James Madison Institute; Edison Electric Institute CEO Committee and Southeastern Electric Exchange.

She was appointed to the Florida Tax and Budget Reform Commission in 2007. Former Governor Jeb Bush appointed her to the Florida BRAC Advisory Council and served as Chair of the Intra-State Activities Committee. She was appointed by U.S. Sen. Mel Martinez to serve on the Florida Federal Judicial Nominating Commission. She served on Governor Bush's Task Force on Healthcare Accessibility and Affordability and on Lt. Governor Toni Jennings' Universal Pre-Kindergarten (UPK) Task Force and Career Education Task Force.

She serves on the Executive Committee of the Volunteer Florida Disaster Recovery Fund and has served as Chairman of the 2006 Pensacola American Heart Association "Heart Ball."

Story was named Business Leader of the Year for 2007 by the Pensacola Area Chamber of Commerce and won the International Women's Day Award for 2007 presented by World Trade Center Miami. Other honors include: "Ethics in Business Award" from the University of West Florida and Rotary Clubs of the Pensacola region; and "Leaders and Legends Award" for Environmental Leadership (2006).

Story earned a B.S. degree in Industrial Engineering from Auburn University and an MBA from the University of Alabama in Birmingham. She studied in Executive education programs at Duke University and Oxford University. She completed International business studies at Cambridge University and leadership studies at Harvard University.

For information about Story's appearance, contact Chipola Honors adviser Bonnie Smith at 850-526-2761, Ext. 3247.

Some 200 Chipola students enjoyed Chipola’s annual Fall Festival held Oct. 3

Chipola faculty recital set for Oct. 11

The Chipola College Department of Music will host a Faculty Recital, Thursday, Oct. 11, at 2 p.m., in the Chipola Arts center.

Performers will include Dr. Heather Small, flutist, assisted by Dr. Christine Yoshikawa, piano, and Daniel Powell, saxophone.

Dr. Heather Small is a flutist, teacher, and freelancer in the Tallahassee area. An active clinician, she presents master classes and recitals. She was formerly the principal flutist of the Midland-Odessa Symphony. Dr. Small served on the faculty at Messiah College (PA), where she taught applied flute and directed the college flute choir.

She earned a doctorate from the Florida State University College of Music, a Master of Music degree from the University of North Texas and Bachelor’s degree from Oberlin Conservatory.

Her work can be heard on recordings with the North Texas Wind Symphony (Klavier 2000-2002). Her principal teachers are Michel Debost, Mary Karen Clardy, and Eva Amsler.

Dr. Christine Yoshikawa performs concerto engagements and recitals in major halls around the world. A native of Vancouver, she began piano studies at age two, won her first major national competition at age six, and made her concerto debut with the Westminster Philharmonic at age nine.

A frequent collaborator with some of the world’s finest musicians, she performs and tours as a member of the Yoshikawa-Powell Piano/Saxophone Duo with her husband and Chipola music faculty member Daniel Powell.

She received a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in piano performance from Arizona State University and holds performance degrees with distinction from the University of Victoria and the University of British Columbia.

American saxophonist Daniel Powell has established himself as one of the most versatile artists on the stage today. As a soloist, recitalist, and chamber musician, he has appeared throughout North America. Most recently, he performed at the North America Saxophone Alliance convention and the National Endowment for the Arts convention.

He has been invited to jointly co-commission a new work by Pulitzer Prize winning composer Lewis Spatlan, with a world premiere scheduled later this year. His performances have been broadcast on TV and radio including NPR’s Performance Today, and he can be heard on the Titanic label.

Powell earned a bachelor’s degree in music education from West Texas A&M University and a master’s degree from Arizona State. He is doctoral candidate in saxophone performance and a teaching assistant at Florida State University. He joined the Chipola faculty in 2006, and serves on faculty at various camps and festivals including Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp in Michigan.
