

Chipola Indians ranked second in the nation

The Chipola men's basketball team is ranked second in the nation by Street and Smith's College Basketball Preview, the premier pre-season publication for college basketball.

The magazine also listed two CJC players among the best in the nation. Chipola guard Nick Williams, a 6-4, transfer from Kansas State, is listed as a pre-season first team All-American. CJC guard Jue Michael Young, a 6-3 transfer from LSU, as a pre-season fourth Team All-American.

Chipola head coach Ryan Cross says, "We are honored that Street and Smith's would rank us this high in their pre-season poll, however, we realize that we must work every day to prove that we are worthy of this recognition."

Barton County Community College of Kansas is ranked first in the national poll. Cross was head coach at Barton for one year before taking the Chipola job in 2000.

Okaloosa-Walton, the only other Panhandle team on the list, is ranked fourth. Two of Chipola's non-conference opponents are in the top 20. Atlanta Metro is number 10, and Georgia Perimeter is number 18.

Chipola likely earned the high ranking because of three returning sophomores from last year's 18-12 team and a stellar recruiting class.

Returning sophomore Brandon Freeman, a 6-3 guard from Greenwood, South Carolina, led the Panhandle Conference in scoring with 16.7 points per game during his freshman year at Chipola. He recently committed to play at the University of Arkansas-Little Rock. Michael Wilds, a 6-7 forward from Los Angeles, averaged 8.2 points and 7.2 rebounds last season. Cross says, "Michael has worked extremely hard this summer and made tremendous strides. I am expecting him to be one of the top frontcourt players in the league this season." Walter Harris, a 6-4 forward from Birmingham, Alabama, averaged nearly five points and four rebounds last season. Cross says, "Walter is also much improved. He is a young man that can play several positions for us. He has had a great summer and fall and I expect him to be a key contributor to our team."

Newcomers this season include four NCAA Division I transfers: Nick Williams, 6-4, from Kansas State; JueMichael Young, 6-3, from LSU; Justin Smith, 6-2, from Arkansas State; and Tom Frericks, 6-9, from UAB.

Four key freshmen recruits are Walker Russell, a 6-1 point guard from Rochester, Michigan; Cliffone Ault, a 6-5 guard from Brooklyn, New York; Trevor Lawrence, a 6-11 center from Greater Portmore, Jamaica, and Shawn Simpson, a 6-7 forward from Cincinnati, Ohio.

Port St. Joe High standout Kyron Monette, a 6-3 forward, returns after being red-shirted last season. He will be counted on to add quality depth to Chipola's front-line.

Another key signee who may help next year is Derek Burditt, a 6-7 forward from New Orleans. Burditt, the 2002 Louisiana Player of the Year, is recovering from shoulder surgery and will most likely be out for the season.

Coach Cross is optimistic about his team's chances. "I have high aspirations for this team. Entering my fourth season, I think we have finally put together a team that has the talent and all the ingredients to not only compete for a Panhandle Conference title, but also on the national level," said Cross.

Chipola began practice Oct. 1. The Indians open their season on the road Nov. 1 against IMG Academy in Niceville. The Indians host South Georgia Tech, Jeff Davis and Enterprise State in the Milton H. Johnson Classic, Nov. 7-9.

‘You Can’t Take it with You’ opens Oct. 17

Tickets are going fast for the Chipola Junior College production of “You Can’t Take It With You,” which opens Thursday, Oct. 17.

Performances of the hit comedy are scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 7:30 p.m., with a Sunday matinee at 2 p.m.

The hit comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman is one of the most popular and successful plays of modern times. The story—which was also a hit movie starring Jimmy Stewart—is all about the zany Sycamores and the unhappy Kirbys. The story involves Tony, attractive young son of the Kirbys, who falls in love with Alice Sycamore and brings his parents to dine at the Sycamore home on the wrong evening. The shock sustained by the Kirbys, who are invited to eat cheap food, shows Alice that marriage with Tony is out of the question.

The Sycamores, however, though sympathetic with Alice, find it hard to realize her point of view. Tony, who knows the Sycamores are right and his own people wrong, will not give her up, and in the end Mr. Kirby is converted to the happy madness of the Sycamores, particularly since he happens in during a visit by an ex-Grand Duchess, earning her living as a waitress. The strange activities of certain members of the household—the manufacture of fireworks, the printing press set up in the parlor and Grandpa’s trouble with the income tax—add to the delightful eccentricity of the play.

The cast of CJC students and local actors includes: Meredith Nailen as Penelope Sycamore, Sylvia Stanton as Essie, Mavis Flowers as Rheba, Aaron Tiller as Paul Sycamore, Terry Schmitz as Mr. De Pinna, Jon Solari as Ed, Arthur Obar as Martin Vanderhof, Jill White as Alice, Charles Kimrey as Henderson, DJ Meissner as Tony Kirby, James Spooner as Boris Kolenkhov, Judy Riley as Gay Wellington, Chris Manasco as Mr. Kirby, Cassandra Joyner as Mrs. Kirby, Denise Davis as Olga, Gerald Williams as Donald and Brian Mitchell as The Man.

Chipola's Freeman commits to Arkansas-Little Rock

Chipola sophomore Brandon Freeman has committed to play basketball at the University of Arkansas-Little Rock next season.

Freeman led the entire Panhandle Conference in scoring as a freshman with 16.7 points per game.

A native of Greenwood, South Carolina, Freeman was the 2001 Mr. Basketball in South Carolina.

CJC head coach Ryan Cross said, "I am very happy for Brandon. I think Little Rock will provide a great opportunity for Brandon to have a quality Division I basketball experience and earn a college degree. I have a lot of confidence in Brandon not only as a basketball player, but also as a person. I think the coaching staff at UALR did an excellent job in the recruiting process and in the end that was the deciding factor for Brandon." Arkansas-Little Rock is an NCAA Division I school and plays in the Sun Belt Conference.

Freeman was also recruited by Georgia State, Evansville and South Alabama.

Chipola to host seminar on Health and Lifestyle

Dr. Linda Hancock, a nationally known speaker on health and lifestyle choices, will present a live interactive presentation Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 6:30 p.m., in the Chipola Junior College Continuing Education Conference Center.

Dr. Hancock will be speaking on How Lifestyle Choices Determine Human Health. The public is invited. Refreshments will be served.

Hancock is the Assistant Director in the Office of Health Promotion and a Family Nurse Practitioner and Health Educator at Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, Virginia. She initiated the Virginia College Co-op for Tobacco Use Reduction, and is Chair of the Richmond Advisory Board for the Tobacco Settlement Foundation. Dr. Hancock authored Tobacco Use Reduction Guide for Colleges and Universities and Women's Health: A Primary Care Clinical Guide.

The program, produced by Phi Theta Kappa and the National Collegiate Honor Society, is the second part of a five part satellite seminar series designed to accompany the society's 2002 Honors Study Topic, Dimensions and Directions of Health: Choices in the Maze.
