

Chipola students benefit from WIRED Scholarships

Thirteen Chipola students were awarded special scholarships this Fall thanks to a new grant for students in computer and technology-related majors.

Officials from Florida's Great Northwest invested $1,150,000 to be used for scholarships in information technology (IT) and engineering programs at seven area colleges and universities.

Chipola received $50,000 to fund scholarships. Chipola is participating in the program with the UWF, Pensacola Junior College, Northwest Florida State College, Gulf Coast, TCC and FSU.

Chipola's scholarship recipients were introduced at a press conference on Tuesday. They are: Christopher Bennett of Graceville, Kevin Kimbro of Cottondale, Brandon Evans of Marianna, Tory Brown of Marianna, Eric Holmes of Greenwood, Joseph Phinney of Blountstown, Nicholas Simmons of Marianna, Marlin Boyd of Cottondale, Sharon Kowitz of Chipley, Thomas Rudolph of Grand Ridge, Tucker Nebel of Marianna, Josef Stackowicz of Greenwood and Fred Gilley of Bonifay.

Chipola president Dr. Gene Prough, said, "These scholarships couldn't come at a better time for our students. We have selected several bright, motivated students who will succeed in these programs."

WIRED scholarships are available for the following programs: Associate in Arts (AA) degrees in Computer Science and Information Tech; Associate in Science (AS) degrees in Computer Engineering Tech, Computer Information Tech and Networking Services Tech; and a Workforce certificate program in Computer Systems Tech.

WIRED Scholarships may fund all or part of costs for tuition, fees, textbooks and software and are available only for the 2009-2010 school year.

Indians reload men's basketball team with talented freshmen

New Chipola men's basketball coach Jake Headrick has snagged one of the top recruiting freshmen classes in the country.

"We are a very young team this year. But with a young team, we are able to instill in them our basketball philosophy," said coach Headrick.

Chipola will have a new look offensively this year as several of the guards will be able to play both at the point and shooting guard position. John Taylor (6-0) from Chicago, IL, Sam Grooms (6-1) from Greensboro, NC, Roderick Lanon (5-10) from Louisville, KY, Lashay Page (6-2) from Dillon, SC, Dexter Ellington (6-1) from Culthbert, GA, and Daniel Cummins (6-2) from Charlotte, NC are slated to play the guard positions this year.

On the wing, the Indians will look to several versatile players to help the lead the Indians to a record-setting seventh consecutive conference title, including Delwan Graham (6-5) transfer from LSU, Steadman Short (6-9) transfer from High Point University, Kevin Powell (6-6) from Fayetteville, NC, and Marvin Fitzgerald (6-5) from Milwaukee, WI.

In the paint, Headrick is hoping that the young blood of Chadrack Lufile (6-10) from Canada and Aaron Davis (6-7) from Huntsville, AL, will contribute at a high level for the Indians this season.

The new members of the men's program look to write their own chapter in the rich history of Chipola tradition.

The Chipola College nursing department has added another member to their growing family of human patient simulators.

The birthing simulator named Noelle can breathe, bleed and talk just like a real mother. The high tech device is designed to help students learn about the challenges associated with delivering babies by making quick decisions in a stressful environment.

Noelle is Chipola's fourth human simulator in the family which includes a child, and male and female adults.

All simulators can be adjusted to suit the education point of the student. Medical issues and training can be progressively increased in difficulty as students move through the program.

Amy Samson, a Jackson Hospital nurse and Chipola adjunct instructor, is responsible for the patient simulator project. Samson can control the patients' vital signs and speech from a remote location which is equipped with cameras for observing the students.

Funds for the latest simulator came from the Chipola Regional Workforce Development Board.

Important information on the H1N1 Flu Virus

The H1N1 Flu Virus or “Swine Flu” has been the topic of a great deal of media attention. We are aware that H1N1 Flu cases have been reported in public schools in the Chipola district. We also know it has already spread to some college and university campuses; thankfully Chipola College is not in that group...yet!

The Center for Disease Control reports the groups with the highest infection rates and hospital admission rates per 100,000 are ages 0-4 years and 5-24 years. It is also reported that many underlying medical conditions including asthma, diabetes, heart disease, and pregnancy place individuals at greater risk of serious flu-related complications. Symptoms of the H1N1 Flu Virus are very similar to the symptoms for various flu outbreaks we experience annually. Symptoms, by percentage, as reported by the CDC include:

Fever	93%
Cough	83%
Shortness of Breath	54%
Fatigue/Weakness	40%
Chills	37%
Runny Nose	36%
Body Aches	36%
Sore Throat	31%
Headache	31%
Vomiting	29%
Wheezing	24%
Diarrhea	24%

The CDC has provided guidance for institutions of higher learning and the H1N1 Flu Virus. Accordingly, Chipola College requests that students not come to campus if they have symptoms as outlined above. We further request that students not return to campus until a full 24 hours after any fever drops below 100 degrees. Students are encouraged to work with their individual instructors concerning related absences.

Please remember that implementing the following prevention tips, as outlined by the Centers for Disease Control, will help control the spread of H1N1 and other infections:

- Wash hands properly and often
- Use alcohol wipes or gels to clean hands
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, or mouth
- Cough or sneeze into a tissue or into your elbow; throw tissue into trash
- Follow public health advisories

To get the latest information on the H1N1 Flu Virus, visit the Centers for Disease Control website at www.cdc.gov/h1n1/flu/
